D.J. Williams was named the recipient of the Disney Spirit Award, given to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure, and the Mackey Award as the best tight end in college football, in 2010. He was the first student-athlete in Arkansas history to win either award and also was the first Razorback to be named a finalist for the Sullivan Award, presented to the outstanding amateur athlete in the United States.

INDIVIDUAL

Joe Adams won the inaugural Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers National Return Specialist Award in 2011 after leading the country with four punt return touchdowns, tying the SEC single-season record. Adams also led the SEC and ranked second in the NCAA with his average of 16.89 yards per punt return and tied the SEC single-game record with two punt return touchdowns in the season opener.

Razorback student-athletes excel in the classroom as well, with a premium placed on graduating from the University of Arkansas along with performing on the field.

Jonathan Luigs earned the Rimington Trophy as the most outstanding collegiate center in 2007.

The Razorbacks raised the Field Scovell Trophy after defeating No. 11 Kansas State 29-16 in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. The win concluded an 11-2 season that tied the school record for wins in a season and saw Arkansas ranked No. 5 in the final AP poll, the school's first top-five finish since 1977.

BOWL EX

The 2011 Allstate Sugar Bowl marked the first BCS game in school history as Arkansas faced No. 6 Ohio State. The game earned an 8.4 overnight rating on ESPN, which at the time was the third-highest overnight rating for college football in ESPN history.

PERIENCE

The Razorbacks hoisted the AutoZone Liberty Bowl Trophy following the 2009 season after defeating East Carolina 20-17 on Jan. 2, 2010. In front of one of the largest crowds in the bowl's history, Arkansas earned its first bowl victory since 2003.

Darren McFadden (middle) and Felix Jones (right) were selected in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft, with McFadden taken fourth overall by the Oakland Raiders and Jones picked 22nd overall by the Dallas Cowboys. Peyton Hillis (left) made it three UA backfield mates taken in the draft as a seventh-round selection of the Denver Broncos. In 2010, all three former Razorbacks accounted for more than 1,000 all-purpose yards.

PROFESSIONAL

"I was ready for the NFL because of all the hard coaching I went through in college. Paul Petrino taught me little things in my game, and Coach Cinkovich helped me out once he got there so it was a great balance. I loved everything those two coaches taught me."

— Joe Adams

Arkansas tied an NFL draft record by having three receivers selected in the 2012 NFL Draft, marking the 14th time in draft history one school had three receivers picked in the same draft. Jarius Wright (left), Greg Childs (middle) and Joe Adams (right) were all chosen in the fourth round, the sixth time a school has had three receivers drafted in the first four rounds.

Arkansas has had at least one player drafted in 17 straight NFL Drafts, the second-longest streak in school history. In the last two seasons, seven Razorbacks have been picked in the NFL Draft, bringing the school's total to 181 draft selections all-time.

DEVELOPMENT

The Razorbacks have been represented in four straight Super Bowls and had a former student-athlete on the winning team for three consecutive years. Arkansas has 30 former student-athletes or coaches who have been affiliated with a Super Bowl team.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

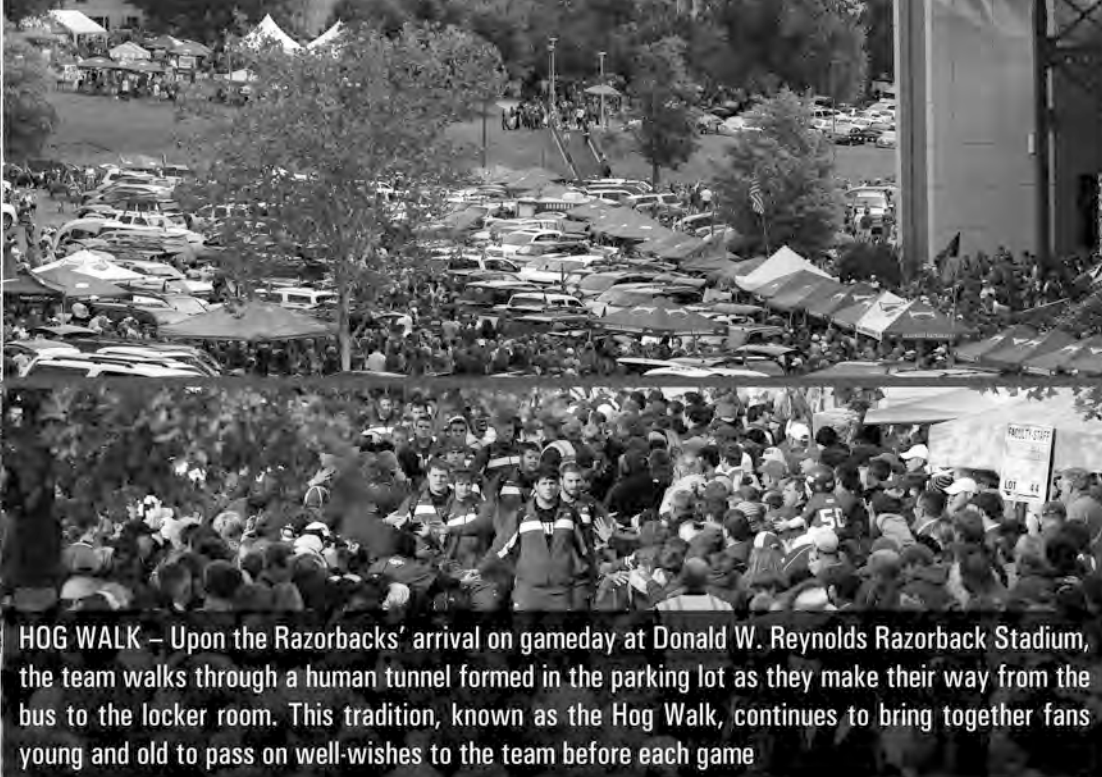

RUNNING THROUGH THE A – For each home game, the Razorbacks enter the field by running through the A, formed by the Razorback Marching Band. The band marches the length of the field blaring Arkansas Fight before stretching the A from the locker room to midfield, at which time the Razorbacks run onto the field as the crowd erupts.

FACILITIES

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

HOG WALK – Upon the Razorbacks' arrival on gameday at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, the team walks through a human tunnel formed in the parking lot as they make their way from the bus to the locker room. This tradition, known as the Hog Walk, continues to bring together fans young and old to pass on well-wishes to the team before each game

GAMEDAY

A PROPER HOG CALL – A chant of “Woo Pig Sooie” is known worldwide as the Hog Call. A properly executed Hog Call is composed of three “calls,” slowly raising one’s arms from the knees to above the head during the “Woo.” Traditionalists prescribe an eight-second “Woo.” The fingers are wiggled and the “Woo” builds in volume and pitch as the arms rise. Upon completion of the “Woo” both arms are brought straight down with fists clinched as if executing a chin-up while yelling “Pig.” The right arm is extended up and out with the “Sooie.” A full Hog Call requires two more Hog Calls, followed immediately by a “Razor-Backs” yell, coordinated with a pumping motion of the right arm after the third “Sooie.” In order, the full Hog Call is:

Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
 Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
 Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
 Razorbacks!

TUSK – Tusk IV is a Russian boar which closely resembles the wild hog of Hugo Bezdek’s day and currently serves as the official live mascot of the Razorbacks. Tusk IV is in his second full season in 2012 after debuting at the 2011 Allstate Sugar Bowl. Tusk IV is cared for by the Stokes family of Dardanelle, Ark., and is supported by the legacy program known as the Tusk Fund, which fans can participate in by sending their support in care of the Razorback Foundation, Inc.

2012 SEASON PREVIEW

Tyler Wilson and Knile Davis are set to lead the Razorback offense in 2012. Wilson was a first-team All-SEC performer in 2011 after Davis earned first-team accolades in 2010.

THE SCHEDULE

Arkansas opens the 119th year of Razorback football Sept. 1 against Jacksonville State in Fayetteville. The Razorbacks have won five straight season-opening contests and 14 of their last 15. UA is 92-22-4 (.797) all-time in season openers.

Arkansas is hosting LSU in Fayetteville for the first time since 1992 in a game that has wrapped up the regular season for each team every year since Arkansas joined the SEC. UA is set to play Ole Miss in Little Rock for the 16th time, including the first meeting between the schools in 1913, and the first time since 1992. UA has hosted nine different SEC teams in War Memorial Stadium since joining the conference.

UA's schedule includes games against teams that have won four of the last five national championships (LSU 2007, Alabama 2009, Auburn 2010, Alabama 2011). Including this year's meeting with Alabama, Arkansas has played the defending national champion 12 times in the last 20 years. Arkansas is 3-1 when hosting the defending national champions in Fayetteville.

The Arkansas and Texas A&M series becomes a conference matchup and returns to campus sites in 2012. The teams renewed their Southwest Conference rivalry by playing a non-conference game inside Cowboys Stadium from 2009-11. The Razorbacks won all three of those contests and lead the all-time series 41-24-3.

THE STAFF

John L. Smith returned to Arkansas as head coach in April 2012 to provide guidance, energy and stability to the program. In addition to Smith, the Razorback coaching staff welcomed new faces and adjusted duties of some current coaches at the conclusion of the 2011 season. Below is a chart identifying coaches with new responsibilities for UA in 2012:

Coach	Position
John L. Smith	Head Coach
Paul Petrino	Offensive Coordinator/QBs
Paul Haynes	Defensive Coordinator/Secondary
Taver Johnson	Assistant Head Coach/LBs
Kevin Peoples	Defensive Tackles
Steve Caldwell	Special Teams Coordinator/DEs
Bobby Allen	Secondary

Combined, the 2012 Arkansas football staff has 234 years of coaching experience. The staff also features eight coaches who have been either an offensive or defensive coordinator in their career.

THE TEAM

Arkansas has been ranked in 32 straight AP polls, tied for the seventh-longest active streak in the nation, and ended the 2011 season in the top 10 for nine straight polls, which also ranks seventh among active streaks in the country.

Arkansas' leaders in each of the following categories from the 2011 season are projected to return to the 2012 squad: total offense, all-purpose yards, passing yards, passing touchdowns, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, kickoff returns, scoring, field goals, extra points, punting, kickoffs, tackles for loss and quarterback hurries.

UA is set to return eight starters on offense and six on defense, while also bringing back its kicker and punter from 2011. The Razorbacks return 24 players who made at least one start in 2011 (14 on offense and 10 on defense).

THE OFFENSE

The Razorbacks are the only team in the SEC to return a quarterback with a 3,000-yard passing season in his career and a running back with a 1,000-yard rushing season as a collegian.

Knile Davis returns to the field after suffering an injury in August of 2011 that forced him to miss the entire season. A first-team All-SEC selection in 2010, Davis led all SEC running backs that season with 1,322 yards, the fourth-highest single-season total in school history, and closed the season with five straight 100-yard rushing games.

Tyler Wilson enters his second season as the Razorbacks' starting quarterback in 2012. His first season as a starter resulted in UA tying the single-season school record with 11 wins and Wilson becoming the first Arkansas quarterback to earn first-team All-SEC honors after he passed for 3,638 yards and 24 touchdowns in 2011.

Entering the 2012 season, Tenarius Wright leads all current Razorbacks in career tackles, tackles for loss, sacks, quarterback hurries and forced fumbles and is tied for the team lead in career fumble recoveries.

Arkansas returns players who accounted for 100 percent of its passing, 91 percent of its total offense yards and 72 percent of its rushing yards during the 2011 season. The Razorbacks also return players who accounted for 64 percent of the scoring in 2011.

Arkansas' projected top-four running backs have combined to gain 3,854 yards and score 34 touchdowns while playing for the Razorbacks.

The offensive line returns three starters plus Mitch Smothers, who started the first four games of the season and was the first true freshman to start a season opener on the offensive line in UA history, to a group that allowed the Arkansas offense to break 16 single-game or single-season school records while leading the SEC in passing offense, total offense and scoring offense.

Biletnikoff Award contender Cobi Hamilton leads the deep and dynamic Arkansas receiving corps. In 39 career games, he has 85 receptions for 1,519 yards and 13 touchdowns. Hamilton is the lone senior among the group, but collectively the UA wide receivers set to take the field in 2012 have appeared in 112 games with 21 starts at Arkansas.

Mackey Award candidate Chris Gragg leads a talented group of tight ends. Gragg has started 15 games in his career and caught 50 passes for 714 yards and four touchdowns. Austin Tate returns for his junior season and freshman Demetrius Dean, who enrolled in January of 2012, is expected to contribute at the position as well.

Cobi Hamilton enters the 2012 season tied for 11th on Arkansas' all-time career receiving touchdowns list and ranking 15th on the school's all-time career receiving yards list. His four 100-yard receiving games rank tied for ninth on UA's all-time list.

Alonzo Highsmith finished the 2011 season first on the team and 10th in the SEC with 12.5 tackles for loss. He also ranked second on the team with 4.5 sacks and third among Razorbacks with 80 tackles.

THE DEFENSE

The Razorbacks are installing a new defensive scheme for 2012 with the hire of defensive coordinator Paul Haynes, who will have 24 returning lettermen on defense and 15 players who have started at least one game in their career.

Arkansas returns players who accounted for 60 percent of the team's tackles for loss in 2011. Alonzo Highsmith led the team in that category with 12.5, the 10th-highest total in the SEC, for a total of 51 yards lost.

Five different defensive linemen return after starting at least one game in 2011, including 13-game starter Byran Jones. Jones led the linemen with 47 tackles, while Chris Smith led the group of returners with 6.0 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. DeQuinta Jones and Trey Flowers, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, played in all 13 games in 2011, and Robert Thomas saw action in 12 contests.

Alonzo Highsmith returns to the linebacking corps after starting all 13 games in 2011 and making his mark all over the defense. He recorded 80 tackles, 4.5 sacks, two quarterback hurries, one interception, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. Tenarius Wright moved to linebacker from defensive end during spring practice. Wright started all eight games in which he appeared during the 2011 campaign at defensive end and recorded 25 tackles, 5.0 for loss with 1.5 sacks, five quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

In the secondary, safety Eric Bennett and cornerback Tevin Mitchel return as starters. Cornerback Darius Winston also returns after starting six games in each of the last two seasons and safety Ross Rasner brings starting experience as well, having started three games in 2011. Bennett ranked fourth on the team with 74 tackles and was second among Razorbacks with three interceptions in 2011. Mitchel was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after recording 56 tackles, sixth-most on the team, 1.5 for loss, one pass breakup and one fumble recovery.

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

Kicker Zach Hocker enters his junior season as UA's record holder for career field goal percentage with his success rate of 80.4. He also ranks in the top 10 in school history in six other categories and finished the 2011 season second in the SEC in points per game, field goals made per game and touchback percentage.

Punter Dylan Breeding returns after becoming the first Razorback to lead the SEC in punting average. His average of 45.28 yards per punt, which also ranked seventh in the NCAA, earned him second-team All-SEC honors and placed a UA punter on top of the conference for the first time since Brad Horne led the Southwest Conference in 1986.

Dennis Johnson enters the 2012 season as the SEC's active leader in career all-purpose yards with 4,104, career kickoff return yards with 2,475 and total return yards with 2,475. His kickoff return yards total is an Arkansas record and ranks fifth all-time in the SEC, and his all-purpose yardage total ranks fourth in school history. He also holds the UA record with 102 career kickoff returns and is tied for fourth on the SEC's all-time career list with three kick returns for touchdowns. His career kickoff return average of 24.26 yards ranks fifth in school history.

RAZORBACKS AT HOME

Arkansas finished the 2011 season undefeated at home for the first time since 1999. With seven home victories in 2011, the Razorbacks have 19 wins at home in the last three years, which is tied for the fourth-highest total in the NCAA. UA enters the 2012 season with an 11-game home winning streak, the fifth-longest active streak in the country.

Dennis Johnson is tied for fourth on the SEC's all-time career list with three kickoff returns for touchdowns and has recorded a kickoff return touchdown in each of his three full seasons at Arkansas. His career kickoff return average of 24.26 yards ranks fifth in school history.

After nearly four decades in collegiate coaching, including head coaching positions at five previous institutions, John L. Smith returned to Arkansas in April of 2012 to provide guidance, energy and stability to a program he helped elevate to national prominence.

Smith enters his 40th year of coaching and his 19th as a head coach. Arkansas is Smith's sixth head coaching position following stints at Idaho, Utah State, Louisville, Michigan State and most recently at his alma mater, Weber State. As a head coach, Smith has a 132-86 overall record and produced six conference champions (two Conference USA, two Big West and two Big Sky). Twelve of his 18 teams participated in postseason play. Smith is one of 19 head coaches in collegiate football history to take three different schools to a bowl game.

Smith served as the Razorbacks' special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach for the 2009-11 seasons before departing last December for Weber State. He has previously worked with eight of the nine members of the Razorbacks' assistant coaching staff.

Smith's special teams groups dominated in 2011, as Arkansas boasted the SEC's individual leader in punt returns, punting and kick scoring. Last season, Joe Adams became the first recipient of the Johnny Rodgers Award, presented to the nation's top returner. Adams led the NCAA and tied an SEC single-season record with four punt return touchdowns and was second in the NCAA with his average of 16.9 yards per punt return. Arkansas returned an NCAA-leading six kicks for touchdowns, scoring four punt return touchdowns and two kickoff return touchdowns. Dylan Breeding became the first Razorback to lead the SEC in punting, with an average of 45.28, which ranked seventh nationally. Kicker Zach Hocker's average of 9.1 points per game led the SEC in kick scoring and finished seventh in the nation.

On defense, Smith helped transfer Alonzo Highsmith make an immediate impact as the junior led the team with 12.5 tackles for loss and finished third on the team with 80 total tackles. Fellow outside linebacker Jerico Nelson was fifth on the team with 70 tackles and tied for fourth among the Razorbacks with four quarterback hurries.

"Coach Smith is a great coach. He is one of the best coaches and best people I have ever been around. He was the one that inducted me into the Kentucky Hall of Fame. It was an honor for me to call him to do that. He is a like a father figure to his players, especially the guys that come from single-parent households. In addition to coaching football, he will always make sure that his players understand how to live life the right way. It really is an honor for me to have him in my life on a personal level. There is just something real special about this guy." – Deion Branch, Super Bowl XXXIX MVP

Smith's impact was easy to spot in 2010 as Arkansas made the first BCS appearance in program history. Adams ranked second in the Southeastern Conference and fifth nationally in punt return average (15.56). Hocker was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after going 56-of-56 on PAT attempts to rank second in the SEC and tie for 12th nationally. It was the third-highest PAT total in program history. Hocker's 104 points scored was the fourth-highest total in school history and the third highest by a kicker. Hocker's .842 field goal percentage ranked third in the SEC and tied for 21st in the NCAA and was the third-best single-season percentage (min. 10 attempts) in school history.

From 2003-06, Smith was the head coach at Michigan State and led the Spartans to a 22-26 overall record. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2003 after posting the most wins by a first-year head coach in MSU history with an 8-4 record. During his time in East Lansing, 41 of his student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

The Spartans started the 2006 season off 3-0, which included an impressive 38-23 victory over Pittsburgh. The season also saw Michigan State make the record books with the largest comeback in NCAA Division I-A history. The Spartans, after falling behind to Northwestern 38-3 with 9:54 remaining in the 3rd quarter, rallied to score 38 unanswered points for a 41-38 victory. MSU also finished third in the Big Ten in passing offense (227.58).

In 2005, Michigan State ranked among the NCAA leaders in all four offensive categories: No. 20 in rushing offense (201.8 yards per game), No. 11 in passing offense (school-record 295.5 ypg), No. 5 in total offense (school-record 497.3 ypg) and No. 18 in scoring offense (33.8 points per game). The Spartans finished second in the Big Ten in passing offense and total offense while ranking third in rushing offense and fourth in scoring offense. Michigan State's per game averages for passing offense (No. 10) and total offense (No. 4) rank among the top 10 season totals in Big Ten history.

Michigan State opened the 2005 season with a bang, outscoring its first four opponents 176-83 en route to a perfect 4-0 record. A 44-41 overtime victory at No. 10 Notre Dame highlighted the fast start as the Spartans produced their fifth straight win in South Bend, Ind., tying Purdue (1954-62) for the longest winning streak by an Irish opponent in the storied stadium. The following week, the Spartans amassed a school-record 705 total yards in a 61-14 victory over Illinois in the Big Ten opener, breaking the previous single-game mark of 698 against Purdue in 1971. The 705 total yards also marked the third-best single-game figure for a league game in Big Ten history. The 61 points marked the Spartans' highest total since scoring 76 against Northwestern in 1989. In addition, MSU tied the

"I can't think of a better guy for this situation. He's helped me throughout my career in everything we have done, and he's a guy who I have leaned on heavily on a little bit of everything, especially when it comes to the head coaching seat. He cares about his players, not only as players but also as people. The way he handles himself and his coaches is something that is incredible. As an assistant, I never felt I worked for him and always felt I worked with him. He is there with you 100 percent of the way." – Jim McElwain, Colorado State Head Coach

"I have nothing but the utmost respect for John L. as a person No. 1, but No. 2 as a head football coach. Going all the way back to Idaho, Utah State, Louisville and Michigan State, his body of work speaks for itself. He just gets it; he gets the position of the head coach. It's a person that's really the CEO of the football team and he knows how to manage coaches so that they are doing things to best represent the university. He always talks about the team – he never talks about individual success – and is really big on making sure that everybody within their role is accountable. I've always respected that. John L. lets coaches coach. I always thought one of his strengths was evaluating coaches as teachers because he sees himself as a teacher. But probably the best thing is he's got the respect of the players. The players know that John L. is looking out for their best interest and always doing what's best for the student-athlete. I think that's his best strength." – Scott Linehan, Detroit Lions Offensive Coordinator

Big Ten single-game record with seven TD passes. With four impressive wins under its belt, Michigan State climbed to No. 11 in The Associated Press poll.

All told, the 2005 Spartans produced top 10 MSU single-season totals in six different offensive categories, including first downs (No. 1: 284), total yards per game (No. 1: 497.3), total offense (No. 2: 5,470 total yards), passing yards (No. 3: 3,250), total points (No. 4: 372) and scoring average (No. 5: 33.8).

In 2005, Drew Stanton became just the second quarterback in Spartan history to reach the 3,000-yard passing milestone in a season, joining Jeff Smoker who threw for 3,395 yards in 2003. Stanton completed 236-of-354 throws (.667) for 3,077 yards and a school-record 22 touchdowns. He ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in passing efficiency with his 153.4 rating. A key to Stanton's throwing success in 2005 was his ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal as the Spartans ranked as the only NCAA I-A team to have five players with at least 400 receiving yards each.

When Smith took over the Michigan State football program, he knew his mission wasn't an easy one. Playing against a 2004 schedule that featured seven bowl participants, Smith's Spartans saw four of the 12 games decided by eight points or less. Unfortunately, Michigan State dropped all four of those nail biters by a combined total of 23 points.

Despite falling short in their quest for a second straight bowl bid, the Spartans (5-7, 4-4 Big Ten) produced some impressive results in 2004, recording two victories over ranked opponents. Michigan State dominated play in all three phases of the game in stunning No. 4 Wisconsin 49-14. Against the Badgers, the Spartans had two goal-line stands, amassed 430 yards on the ground and blocked a punt for a touchdown. Michigan State was equally as impressive in its 51-17 triumph over No. 19 Minnesota as the Spartans produced a season-best 636 total yards while limiting the nation's third-best running game to just 102 yards – 199 below its season average.

In 2004, Michigan State featured one of the nation's most prolific offensive attacks. The Spartans led the Big Ten and ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in total offense (460.0 yards per game) while racking up a school single-season record 5,520 total yards. In addition, Michigan State finished second in the Big Ten and No. 10 nationally in rushing, averaging 238.5 yards per game. In Big Ten play, the Spartans rushed for a league-best 265.8 yards per game. The 2,862 rushing yards marked the sixth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

When Smith arrived in East Lansing, he brought with him a reputation as a program builder from his previous head coaching tenures at Idaho, Utah State and Louisville. He only enhanced that track record at Michigan State, earning the Dave McClain Coach of the Year award in 2003 as selected by the Big Ten media panel. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, orchestrated the nation's fifth-biggest regular-season turnaround by producing an 8-4 record in 2003. After finishing eighth in the league with a 2-6 mark in 2002, the Spartans climbed to fourth in the final Big Ten standings at 5-3.

His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in school history. Smith also became only the second first-year coach in Spartan history to earn a postseason bowl bid (Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska), joining Nick Saban who guided the 1995 team to a 6-5-1 record including a trip to the Independence Bowl.

Michigan State opened the 2003 campaign with a 7-1 record – its best start since 1966. The Spartans put together a five-game winning streak that featured victories over three ranked opponents: Notre Dame (NR/No. 23), Iowa (No. 13/9) and Minnesota (No. 25/19). Following its 44-38 victory at Minnesota, Michigan State ascended to No. 9 in The Associated Press poll – its first appearance in the AP Top 10 since the 1999 season. In addition, the Spartans opened Big Ten play 4-0 for just the third time since joining the league in 1953.

Smith, who became the university's 23rd head coach on Dec. 19, 2002, wasted little time injecting doses of confidence and fiery competitiveness. His influences were evident in all three phases of the game. Smoker thrived in the spread offense, leading the Big Ten in both passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg). Thanks to his aggressive defensive philosophy, the Spartans led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards) and takeaways (29) while finishing second in turnover margin (+11). Michigan State boasted arguably one of the nation's best kicking tandems in punter Brandon Fields (No. 2 in NCAA with 46.3 avg.) and placekicker Dave Rayner (No. 10 in NCAA with school-record 22 made field goals). In addition, All-American

"I think that is a good hire. John L. Smith has had some great teams. He had a great team when I was at Louisville and he also had success at Michigan State. I think he is a guy that knows the system and that will make the players comfortable. They can be in a system where they know the coach has been in that system and knows what is going on. I think it is a good hire. John L. Smith does a great job of motivating kids." – Kerry Rhodes, Arizona Cardinals Safety

"It's good for him. He's had success everywhere he's went, and I don't think this year will be any different." – Alex Smith, San Francisco 49ers Quarterback

DeAndra Cobb ranked No. 11 nationally in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average, including an NCAA-record-tying three runbacks for touchdowns.

Smith went to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he led the Cardinals to unprecedented success. He put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2000-01. The five bowl trips equaled the number of postseason appearances Louisville had made prior to his arrival and the five consecutive winning seasons marked a first for the program.

- The 2002 Cardinals went 7-6 overall, including a 38-15 loss to Marshall in the GMAC Bowl. Louisville finished third in the C-USA standings at 5-3, one game behind co-champions Texas Christian and Cincinnati. The highlight of the 2002 season came on Sept. 26 when the Cardinals knocked off No. 4 Florida State in overtime 26-20. Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 ypg) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg). The Cardinals produced a league-best six first-team All-Conference USA selections, including Offensive Player of the Year Dave Ragone (quarterback) and Special Teams Player of the Year Broderick Clark (kick returner).
- In 2001, Smith earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors after leading Louisville to a school-record 11 victories, including a 28-10 triumph over Brigham Young in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville became the first program in C-USA history to win back-to-back league titles while Ragone and defensive end Dewayne White became the first C-USA players from the same school to receive offensive and defensive player of the year honors in the same season. The Cardinals were ranked among The Associated Press Top 25 for seven straight weeks, finishing No. 17 (No. 16 in USA Today/ESPN final poll).
- The 2000 team won its last four regular-season games to claim Louisville's first Conference USA championship and a berth in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville finished 9-3 overall, posting its most wins since 1993, while also making its first appearance in the national polls in seven years. For his efforts, the Football Writers Association of America named Smith one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. The 2000 Cardinals featured a high-scoring offense and a relentless defense. Louisville averaged better than 35 points per game during the regular season, scoring touchdowns 73 percent of the time it reached the red zone. The Cardinals also ranked among the NCAA's leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15). Louisville's defense led the nation in turnovers forced with 37, including 10 interceptions from All-America safety Anthony Floyd.

- In 1999, Louisville won four of its last five regular-season games en route to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA play. For the second year in a row, the Cardinals were listed among the nation's top 10 in scoring, passing offense and total offense. Six players earned first-team All-Conference USA honors while five rookies were named to the all-freshman team.
- The revival of Louisville's football program began in 1998. Smith, who inherited a team that went winless in the league and finished 1-10 in 1997, produced the biggest turnaround among NCAA I-A programs in 1998 by guiding the Cardinals to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA action. Louisville led the nation in total offense, averaging 559.6 yards per game, while also ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 3 at 408.9 ypg) and scoring (No. 6 at 40.4 ppg). The Cardinals topped the 50-point mark four times in 1998, including three 60-point games. Quarterback Chris Redman finished second in the nation in total offense, averaging 400.9 yards per game. Louisville broke or tied 84 school or C-USA records in Smith's first season.

Prior to his appointment at Louisville, Smith posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State. He took over a Utah State program that had produced only two winning seasons in the previous 15 years and led the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97, finishing 6-5 and 6-6, respectively.

In 1997, Utah State won four of its last five regular-season games and earned a trip to the Humanitarian Bowl. It marked the program's second bowl appearance since 1961. In 1997, the Aggies were listed among the NCAA leaders in total offense (No. 9 at 449.4 yards per game), passing offense (No. 14 at 280.5 ypg), scoring offense (No. 17 at 33.6 points per game) and rushing defense (No. 25 at 115.6 ypg).

In 1996, Utah State forged a 6-5 overall mark despite facing a demanding non-league schedule, with home games against Utah and Brigham Young and road contests at Southern Miss, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech. The Aggies ranked among the nation's top 10 in passing offense (No. 7 at 317.5 yards per game) and total offense (No. 9 at 468.5 ypg).

The Aggies compiled a 4-7 record overall in 1995 but narrowly missed posting a winning season, losing four games by a combined total of 14 points. Smith's one-back offense produced impressive numbers in 1995, with Utah State ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 14 at 270.5 ypg) and total offense (No. 16 at 434.2 ypg). The defense certainly did its share to keep the Aggies in the Big West title race, allowing fewer than 16 points per game in league play. Utah State finished among the league leaders in every defensive category – second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense.

A native of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Smith arrived at Utah State following six seasons at the University of Idaho where he became the winningest coach in school history. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho included a 34-11 Big Sky Conference record (.756) and five postseason appearances, including three straight trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs from 1992-94. Those five playoff teams also finished the year ranked among the nation's top 20.

His 1994 team won its first seven games, including a 48-38 road victory over eventual Big West Conference champion UNLV, en route to a 9-3 record, a trip to the I-AA playoffs and No. 8 final ranking.

His 1993 squad climbed to No. 1 in the polls following a 28-17 victory at Utah. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Youngstown State in the I-AA semifinals to end up 11-3 (No. 11 final ranking). The Vandals led the nation in both scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532.0 yards per game).

His 1992 team won the Big Sky Conference title with a 6-1 record, finished the year ranked fifth nationally and its 9-3 ledger included an impressive 37-34 road victory over Colorado State. Idaho again was listed among the national leaders in total offense (second at 490.0 yards per game) and scoring (third at 40.6 points per game).

His 1991 club went 6-5 and ranked second nationally in passing offense (336.3 yards per game) and third in total offense (482.4 ypg).

His 1990 team put together a seven-game winning streak on its way to a 9-4 record and No. 13 national ranking. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Georgia Southern 28-27 in the I-AA quarterfinals. The Vandals ranked among the national leaders in scoring (second at 37.2 points per game) and total offense (fifth at 454.6 yards per game).

His 1989 team won a school-record nine-straight games and became the first team in Big Sky Conference history to complete the league schedule with a perfect 8-0 record. The team finished the year ranked fourth nationally at 9-3.

Smith tutored 12 first-team All-Americans at Idaho, including Walter Payton Award (I-AA Player of the Year) winners John Friesz (1989) and Doug Nussmeier (1993).

Prior to taking over the Idaho head coaching position, Smith spent two years as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Washington State (1987-88) where he served under head coach Dennis Erickson. He was Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Wyoming during the 1986 season. Smith began his first stint at Idaho in 1982 where he again served as Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for four years from 1982-85.

His college coaching credits also include stops at Nevada

"I want to congratulate Coach Smith on being named the head coach at Arkansas. He is a great person and a great coach. I was fortunate enough to be with him while he was at Michigan State and saw firsthand the job that he does in teaching football the right way. He takes the time to talk with his players and that relationship goes beyond just the football field. I talked to Ryan Mallett, and Ryan told me that the players are excited about John L. Smith returning to Arkansas. I wish him the best." – Brian Hoyer, New England Patriots Quarterback

"I think he is going to do a good job there. He is a guy who has won at a high level for a long period of time, and I think just waiting for the right opportunity. He can go into that place and continue the success that they have had. He knows how to win, and I think he is going to do a great job upholding that tradition and keep the ball rolling the way that they have. He was a mentor to me and had a big impact on my life. I think you just look at the effect that he has on his players and it is tremendous. Some people view his tactics as quirky or kind of out there, but there is no lack of affection for his players and he really wants to get the most out of them and put them in the best position." – Drew Stanton, Indianapolis Colts Quarterback

"In all my years as a collegiate and professional player, I have never had a coach with such a perfect blend of characteristics. He is demanding yet he always coaches in a positive manner regardless of the situation. Most importantly, he truly cares about each and every player on his team." – John Friesz, College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2006

(1977-81) and Montana (1972-76). During his tenure as defensive coordinator at Nevada, the Wolf Pack led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense in 1980. He began his coaching career in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Weber State.

A linebacker and quarterback at Weber State, Smith earned Big Sky Conference scholar-athlete honors in 1971-72. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education with a minor in math in 1971. Smith earned a master's of science degree in physical education from the University of Montana in 1974.

He lettered in three sports – football, basketball and track – while attending Bonneville High School in Idaho Falls, Idaho. In 2000, Sports Illustrated recognized Smith as one of Idaho's top 100 athletes of the 20th century. For his accomplishments as both an athlete and head coach, he was inducted into the Idaho Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Married to the former Diana Flora of Idaho Falls, Smith and his wife are the parents of three children, Nicholas, Kayse and Sam.

Paul Haynes joined the Arkansas staff in December 2011 and led the Razorback defense in the AT&T Cotton Bowl as it dominated No. 11 Kansas State in a 29-16 UA win. Prior to coming to Fayetteville, Haynes spent seven seasons at Ohio State where he was the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2011 after working with the defensive backs from 2005-10.

In Haynes' first game as the UA defensive coordinator, Arkansas held Kansas State to 87 yards rushing, more than 100 yards below the Wildcats' season average entering the game, and an average of just 2.2 yards per carry. The Razorbacks also attacked the K-State backfield and recorded 11.0 tackles for loss with 7.0 sacks while allowing just 4-of-15 third-down conversions. Defensive end Jake Bequette was named the game's Defensive MVP after collecting three tackles, 2.0 sacks, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry.

Bequette was a third-round selection by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft, the first of two former Haynes pupils to be taken by the 2011 AFC champions. Ohio State defensive back Nate Ebner was picked in the sixth round by the Patriots.

While Haynes was in Columbus, the Buckeyes compiled a 66-11 record, won six Big Ten titles and played in six straight BCS games while consistently putting one of the best defenses in the Big Ten on the field. The OSU defensive backs earned five first-team All-America citations and 10 first-team All-Big Ten selections under Haynes' direction. Nine Buckeye defensive backs were selected in the 2006-12 NFL Drafts, including first rounders Donte Whitner and Malcolm Jenkins. Whitner, a safety, was taken with the eighth overall pick by the Buffalo Bills in 2006, and Jenkins, a cornerback, was picked 14th overall by the New Orleans Saints in 2009.

Haynes coached under UA head coach John L. Smith at Michigan State and Louisville and also has worked at Kent State, Northern Iowa, Ferris State and Bowling Green in addition to one year as defensive quality control with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Haynes was promoted to co-defensive coordinator at Ohio State before the 2011 season and the Buckeyes ranked fourth in the Big Ten in turnover margin and fifth in the conference in pass defense and sacks. Ohio State also ranked in the top 30 in the NCAA in total defense and scoring defense, and first-team All-Big Ten selection John Simon was tied for third in the conference with an average of 0.58 sacks per game.

In 2010, Ohio State became the first team in Big Ten history to win at least 10 games in six straight seasons, finishing with a 12-1 record and a victory in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Buckeye defense led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA in total defense by allowing 250.6 yards per game and topped the conference and ranked third in the country with an average of 13.3 points per game allowed. They also led the Big Ten while tying for third in the country in turnover margin, and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

In 2009, the Buckeyes were 11-2 and defeated Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State allowed just 262.5 yards per game, first in the Big Ten and fifth in the NCAA, and 12.2 points per game, second in the conference and fifth in the country, while also ranking number one in the Big Ten and fifth in the NCAA by allowing 83.4 rushing yards per game. Ohio State also was second in the Big Ten and seventh in the nation in pass efficiency defense and second in the conference and 17th in the nation in pass defense.

Jenkins brought the Thorpe Award to Columbus as the nation's best defensive back in 2008. He recorded 57 tackles, three interceptions and three forced fumbles while leading the Buckeye secondary that held opponents to 164.3 passing yards per game, first in the Big Ten and eighth in the NCAA. Ohio State ranked in the top 20 in the country and top three in the conference in rushing defense, scoring defense, total defense and pass efficiency defense.

Ohio State played in the BCS National Championship Game in 2006 and 2007. In 2007, the Buckeyes led the country in total defense, allowing 233.0 yards per game, in scoring defense, giving up just 12.7 points per game, and in pass defense, as opponents passed for 150.2 yards per game. Ohio State also led the Big Ten in rushing defense, allowing 82.9 yards per game to rank third in the country, and in pass efficiency defense with a mark of 98.73, which was fourth in the nation.

The 2006 squad allowed just 12.8 points per game and 280.5 yards of total offense while running undefeated through all 12 games in the regular season. Ohio State, which was ranked No. 1 in the country throughout the season, twice defeated the No. 2 team in the country by taking down Texas in Austin and Michigan in Columbus.

In Haynes' first season at Ohio State, the Buckeyes ended the year with seven straight wins, including a victory over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl, to finish 10-2. OSU's opponents scored 15.2 points per game and gained 281.3 yards of total offense, including just 73.4 rushing yards per game. The Buckeyes grabbed six interceptions and recovered six fumbles as Whitner garnered first-team All-America honors.

Haynes spent the 2002 season at Louisville, where he coached the cornerbacks in his first season under Smith. That year, the Cardinals ranked fifth in Conference USA and No. 35 nationally in pass efficiency defense (112.9 rating).

Haynes followed Smith to Michigan State for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. In those two years, the Spartans were 13-12 overall and 9-7 in the Big Ten and advanced to the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska in 2003. In each year, safety Jason Harmon was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection, and three other members of the secondary earned Academic All-Big Ten acclaim in those two seasons.

In 2003, the Spartans intercepted 15 passes and returned two for touchdowns. During the 2004 season, MSU picked off 17 passes, returning one for a touchdown, while collecting 241 yards on interception returns.

In 2001, Haynes was with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars, where he served as the defensive quality-control coach. Haynes' duties included assisting the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including compiling scouting reports, breaking down opponent film and writing the playbook. He also helped coach the secondary. The Jaguars ranked among the AFC leaders in passing defense (second at 190 yards per game), scoring defense (fourth at 17.9 points) and total defense (seventh at 316.9 yards).

He worked for two years at Kent State, where he coached the secondary in 1999 before taking over the duties as assistant head coach and safeties coach in 2000. Prior to joining the Kent State staff, Haynes coached the running backs and secondary at NCAA I-AA Northern Iowa in 1997-98.

Haynes served as secondary coach at Ferris State for two seasons, from 1995-96. Haynes began his coaching career at St. Francis DeSales High School in Columbus, Ohio, in 1993, before moving on to Bowling Green as a graduate assistant in 1994.

Haynes walked on at Kent State University in the fall of 1987 and went on to play four years for the Golden Flashes. As a freshman, he led the team in interceptions. As a sophomore, he led the team with 116 tackles. After missing the 1989 campaign with a knee injury, he started his final two years and ended his career as the seventh-leading tackler in Kent State history with 440 stops.

Haynes and his wife, Denita, who graduated from Florida A&M with an education degree, have two daughters, Jordyn and Kennedy Rose, and one son, Tarron.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS PAUL PETRINO

Paul Petrino is in his second stint with the Razorbacks after rejoining the Arkansas staff in December 2011. He has 21 years of collegiate experience and an impressive offensive background, which includes national top-10 rankings in scoring and total offense.

In the 2012 NFL Draft, five offensive players he coached at Illinois or Arkansas were drafted, including four wide receivers, which was the most by any coach in the nation. Receiver A.J. Jenkins was a first-round selection by the San Francisco 49ers, and tackle Jeff Allen was the Kansas City Chiefs' second-round pick. Petrino's Arkansas receivers tied a draft record as for the 14th time in draft history, and third time by the SEC, a school had three different wide receivers selected in the same draft. Joe Adams, Jarius Wright and Greg Childs were all drafted in the fourth round, marking the sixth time in draft history a school had three receivers picked in the first four rounds.

Petrino coached the Razorbacks in their 29-16 win vs. No. 11 Kansas State in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl after completing his second season as offensive coordinator at Illinois. In the Cotton Bowl, Arkansas averaged 5.7 yards per play, including more than four yards per rush and 7.0 per pass attempt, while totaling 345 yards of offense. Quarterback Tyler Wilson was named the bowl's Offensive MVP after passing for 216 yards and two touchdowns while completing 20-of-31 passes.

In 2011, Petrino coached Jenkins to one of the best seasons by a receiver in Illinois history, as Jenkins led the Big Ten with 90 catches and was a first-team all-conference performer. His 1,276 yards ranked second in school history, just two yards shy of the Illini record, and he also ranked in the top five of the school's list for season receptions, season 100-yard receiving games, career receptions, career receiving yardage, career receiving touchdowns and career 100-yard receiving games.

Petrino guided an Illini offense that broke school records for total points (423) and points per game (32.54) in 2010 and featured running back Mikel Leshoure, who broke the single-season school rushing record with 1,697 yards. Illinois averaged 42.1 points and 448.9 total yards over the last seven games of the season and notched a 38-14 win over Baylor in the 2010 Texas Bowl.

In 2009 he was the offensive coordinator at Arkansas as the team averaged 37 points per game, which ranked eighth in the NCAA, while also posting top-15 rankings in passing offense at No. 10 (303.3 ypg) and total offense at No. 14 (439.3 ypg). Quarterback Ryan Mallett was the nation's sixth-rated passer, averaging 285 yards per contest and throwing 29 touchdowns. The Razorbacks broke the school record for passing yards with 3,640, eclipsing the previous record that was set under Petrino in 2008.

Petrino coached at Louisville from 2003-06 and in 2007 with the Atlanta Falcons of the NFL. He was the receivers coach in Atlanta after working the four previous years as offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Louisville. Playing for Petrino, Roddy White posted then-career-highs with 83 catches and 1,202 yards.

His teams at Louisville averaged 41.1 points per game from 2003-06; 34.6 in '03; 49.8 in '04; 43.3 in '05 and 37.8 in '06. Texas Tech was the only other school to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense during those years. In 50 games at Louisville, Petrino's teams went 41-9 and scored 40 or more points 28 times and 60 or more seven times.

Petrino coached three wide receivers who set single-season yardage records at Louisville. Arnold Jackson totaled 1,209 yards in 1999, J.R. Russell broke the record in 2003 with 1,213 yards and Harry Douglas had 1,265 yards in 2006.

In 2006, the Cardinals went 12-1, won the Big East title and finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation. Louisville was second in the country in total offense (475.3 ypg), seventh in passing (290.0 ypg) and fourth in scoring (37.8 ppg). In 2005, Louisville was ninth in the nation in offense (482.1 ypg) and third in scoring (43.4 ppg) with six offensive players earning first-team All-Big East Conference honors. Running back Michael Bush led the nation with 24 touchdowns, while receiver Mario Urrutia was second in the nation in yards per catch.

The 2004 team won the Conference USA title, beat No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl to end the season 11-1, finished ranked No. 7 in the nation and led the country in total offense (539.0 ypg) and scoring offense (49.8 ppg). The Cardinals set school records for total yards, rushing yards and points in a season (597), also scoring 50-plus points seven times. Russell earned All-Conference USA honors for the second straight season after catching 73 passes. He had 75 catches for a school-record 1,213 yards in 2003.

Petrino began his coaching career in 1990 and served two seasons as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Carroll College. He coached at Idaho for the next three years, from 1992-94, where he tutored receivers, running backs and special teams. As running backs coach, he coached Sherriden May to All-America honors after he led I-AA players with 150 points while rushing for 1,111 yards. Petrino moved to Utah State from 1995-97 as receivers coach and special teams coordinator. In 1995, Aggie's receiver Kevin Alexander was second in the nation in receptions and third in yards.

In 1998, Petrino went to Louisville for two years in his first stint at the school. In 1998, UL set records for points, scoring average, touchdowns, passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass attempts, pass completions and total offense. In 1998, the Cardinals ranked No. 1 in the nation in passing offense and ranked second in 1999.

From 2000-02, he was the quarterbacks coach at Southern Mississippi. In his three seasons, the Golden Eagles went 8-4, 6-5 and 7-6 with two bowl bids.

Born in Butte, Mont., Petrino was a four-year starter at quarterback for his father at Carroll College from 1985-88. He set 16 school records, earned Kodak All-America honors and was named the Football Gazette NAIA Division II Player of the Year as a senior. In Petrino's four seasons, Carroll was 36-6 and won four Frontier Conference titles. He was an all-conference and all-region selection all four years and was a two-time All-American.

Petrino and his wife, Maya, have two daughters, Anne Mari and Ava, and a son, Mason. Anne Mari and Mason are twins.

Steve Caldwell is in his third season on the Razorback coaching staff coaching defensive ends and was promoted to special teams coordinator in December, 2011.

During the 2011 season, the defensive ends spent much of their time in opponents' backfields. Jake Bequette, Tenarius Wright, Trey Flowers and Chris Smith combined for 27.0 tackles for loss and 16.0 sacks. Bequette, a first-team All-SEC selection by the conference's coaches, led the SEC and tied for third in the NCAA with his average of 1.0 sack per game and topped the conference with an average of 0.5 forced fumbles per game that tied for fourth in the nation.

Bequette was named Defensive MVP of the Cotton Bowl after collecting three tackles, 2.0 sacks, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry. He finished his career with 23.5 sacks, which ranked as the third-highest career total in school history. Flowers was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after collecting 28 tackles, 5.5 for loss with 1.0 sack, two pass breakups and one quarterback hurry in his first collegiate season.

Bequette was a third-round pick of the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft and became the 13th draft pick tutored by Caldwell in his career and the eighth taken in the first three rounds.

Caldwell was named special teams coordinator prior to the Cotton Bowl and oversaw the Razorbacks' efforts in the 29-16 victory vs. No. 11 Kansas State. Joe Adams returned a punt 51 yards for a touchdown, the first punt return touchdown in the Cotton Bowl since 1961, which gave him an SEC single-season-record-tying four in 2011. Kicker Zach Hocker was 3-for-3 on field goal attempts, tying a Cotton Bowl record for made field goals, and punter Dylan Breeding averaged 46.8 yards per punt on four punts, with two being downed inside the five-yard line.

The defensive front made its presence known for the Razorbacks in 2010. Arkansas averaged 2.85 sacks and 7.31 tackles for loss per game to rank second in the Southeastern Conference and ninth in the NCAA in both categories. Bequette was named second-team All-SEC by the Associated Press and the conference's coaches. Bequette and Wright led all UA defensive linemen with 8.5 and 8.0 tackles for loss, respectively. The

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE ENDS STEVE CALDWELL

Razorbacks made 95 tackles for loss in 2010, which tied for the second-highest total in school history. Arkansas notched the third-highest single-season sack total (37) en route to the first BCS appearance in program history.

Before Arkansas, Caldwell spent 14 seasons at Tennessee, where he helped the defensive ends maintain a standard of excellence. The Vols' defense was ranked in the top four among league schools in total defense 10 times while he was at Tennessee, and UT's defensive unit led the SEC in fewest rushing yards allowed three times during that span. In 2008, the unit ranked first in the conference and tied for third nationally in total defense allowing 263.5 yards per game. In 2005, Caldwell helped spark the Vols' defense to the best rushing average allowed in the SEC (82.5), which ranked second nationally.

Caldwell also earned deserved credit for his work on the recruiting front, helping Tennessee sign what many observers called some of the nation's top recruiting classes on an annual basis.

Caldwell advanced several Vols into the NFL, joining such former stalwarts as Shaun Ellis, Demetri Veal and Parys Haralson.

Among Caldwell's most accomplished pupils was Will Overstreet, who not only finished his UT career with 19 sacks to tie for eighth on the all-time school list, but also mirrored the coach's emphasis on studies by being named to the 2001 Academic All-America second team. After retiring from professional football, Overstreet returned to campus and completed his undergraduate degree in May 2005.

A dean's list student himself at Arkansas State, Caldwell played four years of football for the Indians as a defensive end and linebacker.

His first taste of coaching came over three seasons at his alma mater, from 1978-80. From Jonesboro, Caldwell moved on to Northwest Mississippi Community College, where he coached the offensive line for four seasons and was part of a national championship team in 1982.

He then went back to Arkansas State, coaching linebackers under head coach Larry Lacewell during a notable period of success for the Indians. Arkansas State advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals three straight seasons from 1985-87, including a 1986 squad that finished 12-2-1 and lost in the national championship game. The Indians' only other blemishes that season were a loss to Mississippi State and a tie against Ole Miss.

Caldwell's 1985 linebacking unit helped Arkansas State lead Division I-AA in total defense with an average of only 258.8 yards allowed per game.

Subsequent jobs took him to Tennessee, Pacific and Nevada, the latter school as co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 Big West Conference champions. Caldwell coached briefly at Mississippi before accepting an offer to join the Vols.

Caldwell and his wife, Leisa Henley Caldwell, are the parents of three children, Lauren, Lendl and Landon. They have one son-in-law, Josh Rudd, and two granddaughters, Cayman and Reese Rudd.

Ohio State ranked in the top 20 in the country and top three in the conference in rushing defense, scoring defense, total defense and pass efficiency defense.

In 2007, the Buckeyes played in the BCS National Championship Game and led the country in total defense, allowing 233.0 yards per game, scoring defense, giving up just 12.7 points per game, and in pass defense, as opponents passed for 150.2 yards per game. Ohio State also led the Big Ten in rushing defense, allowing 82.9 yards per game to rank third in the country, and in pass efficiency defense with a mark of 98.73, which was fourth in the nation.

Johnson briefly served as the defensive line coach with the Oakland Raiders after he spent five of six years at Miami (Ohio) and had a one-year stint with the Cleveland Browns organization in 2004 as special teams coach.

Johnson was the linebackers coach at Miami (Ohio) from 2000-03. During that time he produced four first-team All-MAC selections, including two-time honoree Terrell Jones, who finished his career among the top 10 tacklers in program history. Johnson also was responsible for grooming two-time All-MAC linebackers and NFL signees Terna Nande and John Busing. From 2005-06, he was the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator for the RedHawks and in his first year back the unit forced 35 turnovers, ranking fourth nationally. The defense also ranked among the MAC's top three teams in both scoring and rushing defense. In 2006, Miami (Ohio) grabbed 14 interceptions while forcing 22 turnovers. The RedHawks had six defensive players named All-MAC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons.

He was a graduate assistant in 1999 at Notre Dame where his responsibilities were on the defensive side of the ball in addition to working with the Irish defensive scout team.

Johnson spent the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Millikin University in Decatur, Ill. His defense ranked first in scoring defense (14.1 points per game) in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin and was ranked second in total defense. Johnson coordinated all recruiting activities at Millikin and was also involved in practice organization, game planning and film breakdown.

In 1997, Johnson was the linebacker coach at Millikin after serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator at Millikin. During the 1996 season, he also was the director of the Fitness and Wellness Center at the school. He spent the 1994 and 1995 seasons as the defensive line coach at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio.

Johnson is a native of Cincinnati and a high school graduate of Cincinnati Academy of Physical Education (C.A.P.E.) After an outstanding high school career, he went on to play three years of football at Wittenberg, where he was a two-time All-American and the North Coast Athletics Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 and 1993.

Johnson and his wife Sharday, a Toledo marketing graduate who ran track for the Rockets, have a son, Tyree and a daughter, Brooklynn.

Taver Johnson joined the Arkansas staff in January 2012 after coming from Ohio State where he spent five seasons as cornerbacks coach before being retained following the Buckeyes' coaching staff change in December of 2011.

In his first spring practice in Fayetteville, Johnson handled all of the administrative duties of the head coach while leading the Razorback football program over the final two weeks.

During his five seasons in Columbus, Ohio State put together a record of 50-15 that included four straight Big Ten titles and BCS appearances. Johnson helped produce 2008 Jim Thorpe Award winner Malcolm Jenkins, who was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten performer. The Buckeyes had three cornerbacks selected in the NFL Drafts between 2008-12, led by Jenkins as the 14th overall pick by New Orleans in 2009. Ohio State had three different cornerbacks earn four first-team All-Big Ten honors under Johnson.

In 2011, with current Arkansas defensive coordinator Paul Haynes serving as co-defensive coordinator of the Buckeyes, they ranked fourth in the Big Ten in turnover margin and fifth in the conference in pass defense. Ohio State also ranked in the top 30 in the NCAA in total defense and scoring defense.

In 2010, Ohio State finished the season with a 12-1 record and a victory in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Buckeye defense led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA in total defense by allowing 250.6 yards per game and topped the conference and ranked third in the country with an average of 13.3 points per game allowed. They also led the Big Ten while tying for third in the country in turnover margin, and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

In 2009, the Buckeyes were 11-2 and defeated Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State allowed just 262.5 yards per game, first in the Big Ten and fifth in the NCAA, and 12.2 points per game, second in the conference and fifth in the country while also ranking number one in the Big Ten and fifth in the NCAA by allowing 83.4 rushing yards per game. Ohio State also was second in the Big Ten and seventh in the nation in pass efficiency defense and second in the conference and 17th in the nation in pass defense.

Bobby Allen is in his 15th year on the staff at Arkansas in 2012. A two-time co-defensive coordinator at Arkansas, he is in his second stint as a coach of the secondary. He moved to the defensive backfield prior to the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl, going back to where he coached from 2003-07, after coaching the defensive tackles from 2008-11 and the defensive line in 2001.

In the Razorbacks' 29-16 win vs. No. 11 Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl, the secondary recorded 28 tackles, 1.0 for loss, one interception and one pass breakup while holding the Wildcats to just 173 passing yards on 16 completions. True freshman cornerback Tevin Mitchel had three solo tackles, 1.0 for loss, and his first pass breakup as a collegian in his first game under Allen's tutelage.

During the 2011 season, the defensive tackles contributed 132 tackles, led by Byran Jones' 47 that ranked eighth on the team. The position group also added 9.5 tackles for loss and 11 quarterback hurries. Jones immediately benefited from Allen's coaching as a true freshman in 2010 and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 2010, Allen coached a unit that helped Arkansas to its first BCS appearance and ranked second in the Southeastern Conference in sacks with an average of 2.85 per game that tied for eighth nationally. UA made 95 tackles for loss in 2010, which tied for the second-highest total in school history. Arkansas also notched the third-highest single-season sack total (37) in program history.

Allen has been an assistant coach at Arkansas since 1998 and is in his 30th overall season as a collegiate coach. He coached the Razorback cornerbacks from 2003-07 along with the free safeties from 2003-04.

Under Allen's guidance, the Razorback secondary ranked among the best units in the nation in defending the pass in 2007. Arkansas led the SEC and was second in the nation in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 97.8 and ranked second in the SEC with 20 interceptions, including 11 by Allen's cornerback unit.

In addition, two UA cornerbacks, Michael Grant and Jerell Norton, ranked in the top five of the conference's passes defended category. Grant led the SEC with 21 (1.62 per game) passes broken up during the season, while Norton ranked fourth with 15 (1.15). Norton led the team, tied for fourth in the SEC and tied for 40th in the nation with five interceptions (0.38 per game) for 174 yards and one touchdown.

SECONDARY

BOBBY ALLEN

Grant led the cornerbacks and ranked fifth on the team with 75 tackles. He also grabbed three interceptions for 15 yards and earned a spot on the All-SEC second team.

In 2006, cornerback Chris Houston, an honorable mention All-American, spent the season containing some of the best wide receivers in the nation. The junior held USC's Dwayne Jarrett to his lowest receiving output in 34 games and stifled other standouts, including Tennessee's Robert Meachem, Auburn's Courtney Taylor and Vanderbilt's Earl Bennett. Houston notched 45 tackles and a team-leading three interceptions for 129 yards and one touchdown. He also broke up a team-leading 13 passes.

In 2005, cornerbacks Michael Coe, Houston, Grant and Mattered Richardson finished first through fourth, respectively, on the team with a combined 29 passes broken up. Coe and Grant also tied for second on the club with three interceptions each, and those four had a total of 117 tackles, helping the Razorbacks rank 34th in the nation in total defense by allowing 341 yards per game.

In 2004, free safety Vickiel Vaughn was first on the team in tackles with 66 while freshman cornerback Darius Vinnett ranked fifth with 54 stops.

In 2003, UA ranked fourth in the SEC and 21st in the nation by holding opponents to 187.0 passing yards per game. The Razorbacks also intercepted 17 passes, the third-most in the league.

Since joining Arkansas' coaching staff, Allen has served as defensive coordinator (1998, 2000), coached the inside linebackers (1998-99), the middle and strong side linebackers (2002), the defensive line (2001, 2008-11) and the cornerbacks and free safeties in 2003 and 2004. Prior to the 2008 season, Allen worked with cornerbacks exclusively from 2005-07.

Allen has held or shared UA's defensive coordinator duties on two separate occasions. He served as co-defensive coordinator with Keith Burns in 1998 and shared the duties with John Thompson during the 2000 season. When Burns left UA following the 1999 regular season, Allen was named the Razorbacks' defensive coordinator for their meeting with Texas in the 2000 Cotton Bowl.

In 1998, Allen helped direct a Razorback defensive unit that ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense, 10th in turnover margin and 13th in scoring defense. In 2000, Allen helped guide a Razorback defense that allowed just 292.1 yards per game to lead the SEC and rank 12th nationally in total defense.

Allen began his coaching career at Colorado, where he served as a graduate assistant during the 1983 and 1984 seasons. After helping Minnesota to an Independence Bowl berth as a defensive secondary graduate assistant in 1985, Allen landed his first full-time position when he was named defensive coordinator at Drake where he served from 1986-88.

Allen was a standout prep quarterback at Seneca Valley High School in Gaithersburg, Md., where he was named the Washington, D.C., area player of the year as a senior and also excelled in baseball and basketball. He went on to earn three varsity letters while playing three positions, kicker, quarterback and outside linebacker at Virginia Tech, where he earned a bachelor's of science degree in marketing in 1983.

Allen is married to the former Marcela Garcia. The couple has one daughter, Daniela, and three sons, Christian, Brandon and Austin. Brandon is a redshirt freshman quarterback for the Razorbacks.

WIDE RECEIVERS

KRIS CINKOVICH

Kris Cinkovich is in his third season at Arkansas as assistant coach for wide receivers. He was named one of the top 50 recruiters in the country by 247Sports.com in February of 2012.

In the 2012 NFL Draft, Arkansas receivers tied a draft record as for the 14th time in draft history, and third time by the SEC, a school had three different wide receivers selected in the same draft. Joe Adams, Jarius Wright and Greg Childs were all drafted in the fourth round, marking the sixth time in draft history a school had three receivers picked in the first four rounds.

During the 2011 season, Cinkovich again molded the UA receivers into one of the most dominant groups in the country. Arkansas led the SEC in passing offense (300.7), total offense (438.1) and scoring offense (36.8) to become just the fifth different school to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and the first since Florida in 2001. The Razorbacks topped the conference in passing offense for the third straight season and became the second SEC team since 1992 to lead the conference in passing offense for at least three straight seasons. Arkansas was one of two schools to place two receivers in the top 10 in the SEC in receiving yards per game and receptions per game.

Wright earned first-team All-SEC accolades after he broke the UA single-season record for receptions (66), receiving yards (1,117) and touchdown receptions (12). He topped the conference and tied for seventh in the country in receiving touchdowns and led the SEC and ranked 18th in the NCAA with his average of 93.1 receiving yards per game, making him the first Razorback in school history to lead the SEC in that category. His 5.5 receptions-per-game average ranked second in the conference. Wright also broke Arkansas' career receptions (168) and career receiving yards (2,934) records and left ranking second in school history in 100-yard receiving games (9) and receiving touchdowns (24).

Adams ranked second on Arkansas' career receptions list with 164 and fourth in school history with 2,410 receiving yards, 17 touchdowns and seven 100-yard receiving games. He finished the 2011 season fourth in the SEC with his average of 4.2 receptions per game and eighth in the conference with an average of 50.2 receiving yards per game.

In 2010 during the Razorbacks' campaign toward the school's first BCS appearance, Cinkovich's unit tied for the SEC lead with nine different games featuring a 100-yard receiver. UA was one of two schools in the conference to have four different receivers top 100 yards. Arkansas also was one of two schools in the SEC to have two receivers rank in the top 10 in the conference in receiving yards per game.

Before Arkansas, Cinkovich coached three of the top four all-time reception leaders in UNLV history. Ryan Wolfe finished his career ranked first in the UNLV record books with 283 receptions, a total that stood 12th all-time in NCAA history. Wolfe signed with the Atlanta Falcons after leaving the Rebels. Casey Flair was the second-leading receiver in school history with 202 receptions, and Earvin Johnson finished fourth with 183 receptions.

Cinkovich also assisted with a passing attack that ranked in the top 50 nationally in 2008 and 2009, accounting for 40 passing touchdowns. UNLV also led the nation in red zone production in 2008 (95 percent) and third-down efficiency in 2009 (46.39 percent).

During the 2006 season, Wolfe set several Mountain West Conference and UNLV freshman records while both Wolfe and Flair earned All-MWC honors. It was the first time since 1994 that a pair of Rebel receivers picked up all-conference accolades. Flair broke the school record for career receptions in 2007, only to be passed by Wolfe.

Cinkovich came to UNLV from Las Vegas High School, where he oversaw the Wildcats for nine seasons and built one of the state's top programs en route to compiling a record of 79-24. In 1995, he took LVHS to the playoffs for the first time in 15 years and in 2001 brought the school its first state championship since 1959.

Cinkovich's squads won three regional titles and were ranked among the best on the west coast three times by USA TODAY. He was inducted into the Southern Nevada Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2004.

Cinkovich played collegiately at Spokane Falls Community College from 1979-80 and Carroll College from 1981-82 as an offensive lineman.

A 1984 graduate of Carroll College in Helena, Mont., Cinkovich earned his master's degree from Central Washington in 1987. He and his wife, Joanie, have two daughters, Carly and Stephanie.

Tim Horton, a former Razorback letterman who was a two-time academic all-conference selection and a second-team All-Southwest Conference performer, is entering his sixth season on the UA staff and has been the Razorbacks' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator since 2008. He has been recognized by Rivals.com and ESPN.com as one of the nation's top recruiters during his time in Fayetteville.

Horton was one of just two coaches in the nation, and the only one in the SEC, to coach four different 1,000-yard rushers from 2007-10. Overall, Horton has coached two of the top four single-season rushing performances and more than a third of the 10 Razorbacks in school history to rush for more than 1,000 yards.

Horton's first class as recruiting coordinator in 2008 featured wide receivers Joe Adams, Jarius Wright and Greg Childs, who were all selected in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft. With their selections, Arkansas tied a draft record with three receivers taken in the same draft. It was the 14th time in draft history, and third by an SEC team, three receivers from the same school were taken in the same draft and the sixth time all three were picked in the first four rounds.

In 2011, the Razorbacks tied a school record with 11 wins and, combined with a 10-win season in 2010, marked just the third time in school history and first since 1988-89 UA reached double-digit win totals in back-to-back seasons.

Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, averaging 438.1 yards per game, for the second time in the last three seasons and has finished inside the top four in the conference in that category each of the last five seasons. UA also topped the SEC in scoring offense at 36.8 points per game and finished in the top three in the conference for the third straight season.

All-SEC performer Dennis Johnson's 6.3 yards-per-carry average was second among the SEC's top-10 rushers, as he finished seventh in the conference in rushing, and fourth overall in the conference. His average of 6.3 yards per rush in conference games tied for the lead among the top-10 rushers and tied for third overall. As a team, UA's 4.5 yards-per-carry average in SEC games ranked third in the conference. Johnson also ranked second in the SEC with an average of 134.9 all-purpose yards per game and was sixth in the conference in touchdown scoring with an average of 4.5 points per game.

Under Horton's tutelage, running back Knile Davis posted the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in Arkansas history in 2010 as he ran for 1,322 yards and became just the 10th Razorback to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards in a season. Davis was named a first-team All-SEC performer and led all SEC running backs with his average of 101.7 yards per game on the ground. He finished the season strong, with five consecutive 100-yard rushing games. He was the only player in the SEC to average 100 yards per game in November, finishing the month with an average of 157.8 rushing yards per game.

After returning to his alma mater, Horton has coached All-American running backs Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. McFadden was the Heisman Trophy runner-up and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back in 2007. McFadden finished the 2007 season with a school-record 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Before returning to Arkansas, where Horton played from 1986-89, he was at Air Force for spring 2007, at Kansas State for the 2006 season and at Air Force for the seven previous years.

He came to Arkansas after taking the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coaching position at Air Force in January 2007. During the 2006 season, he was the running backs coach at Kansas State, helping the Wildcats earn a Texas Bowl appearance. At KSU, Horton coached two future NFL running backs in Thomas Clayton and James Johnson.

Prior to his one season at KSU, he was at Air Force from 1999-2005, serving as the wide receivers coach from 1999-2004 and the running backs coach in 2005. Horton was recognized by the Colorado Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes as one of its coaches of the year in 2004.

He began his coaching career at Appalachian State in 1990 and helped guide the Mountaineers to a 67-32 record during his eight years, including Southern Conference championships in 1991 and 1995 and five appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. The 1995 Mountaineers were the first Division I team to go undefeated in North Carolina college football history.

From 1990-92, Horton coached Appalachian State's receivers and tight ends before taking over as the Mountaineers' running backs coach in 1993. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Horton earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management from Arkansas in 1990. While at Arkansas, he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter as a split end and punt returner under head coach Ken Hatfield. He caught 49 passes for 942 yards and one touchdown in his career, including hauling in 23 catches for 453 yards as a senior in 1989. Horton also returned 78 punts for 657 yards in his collegiate career, which is fifth all-time in school history.

Horton's four years at Arkansas proved to be among the most successful in school history as the Razorbacks compiled a 38-11 record, won back-to-back Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989 and appeared in four straight bowl games. Horton's graduating class remains tied for the school record for the most wins in a four-year period.

A two-time academic all-conference selection, Horton was a second-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1989 and served as the Razorbacks' team captain that season. In high school, Horton was a two-time all-state running back and a track standout at Conway (Ark.) High School.

Horton and his wife Lauren have one daughter, Caroline, and one son, Jackson.

OFFENSIVE LINE

CHRIS KLENAKIS

Chris Klenakis is in his third season at Arkansas as assistant coach for the offensive line. Klenakis has 22 years of Division I experience and came to Arkansas from Nevada where he was at the helm of the "Pistol" offense that had prolific production and a powerful running game led by the offensive line.

Klenakis led an offensive line that replaced three starters from 2010 and featured two players who made the first start of their collegiate career in 2011 to block for a UA offense that set or tied 16 school records. Arkansas led the SEC in passing offense (300.7), total offense (438.1) and scoring offense (36.8) to become just the fifth different school to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and the first since Florida in 2001. The Razorbacks topped the conference in passing offense for the third straight season and became the second SEC team since 1992 to lead the conference in passing offense for at least three straight seasons.

Quarterback Tyler Wilson led the SEC in passing yards and total offense per game, while receiver Jarius Wright topped the conference in receiving yards per game in 2011. Guard Alvin Bailey was named an All-American by Pro Football Weekly, which selects its team based on feedback from NFL evaluators and takes into account true talent and draft value, and a second-team All-SEC performer by The Associated Press and the conference's coaches.

Klenakis coached an offensive line in 2010 that blocked during the first season in Arkansas history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher. The Razorbacks led the Southeastern Conference and ranked fourth in the NCAA in passing offense, averaging 333.7 yards per game, and ninth in the NCAA in total offense with a 482.5 yards-per-game average. UA's offensive line was the only unit in the SEC to start the same five for each game.

In 2010, Klenakis coached two freshmen to all-conference recognition as Bailey and center Travis Swanson garnered spots on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Bailey also was named to the FWAA Freshman All-America Team. Following the season, tackle DeMarcus Love was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings and tackle Ray Dominguez was signed by the Green Bay Packers. In his career, Klenakis has coached 17 offensive linemen who have advanced to the NFL.

As offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, Klenakis has tutored 14 all-conference selections, including 2010 first-team All-SEC performer Love.

In 2008 at Nevada, the Wolf Pack offense steamrolled over opposing defenses to the tune of a number of school records, including total offense, rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. In 2009, Klenakis and the offense eclipsed all those marks. The Wolf Pack had the No. 1-ranked rushing offense in the nation, averaging 344.9 yards per game. In 2009, he became the first offensive coordinator in NCAA FBS history to have a team lead the nation in rushing offense (2009) and passing offense (1997). Nevada also became the first team in NCAA history to have three players rush for more than 1,000 yards in a single season. In addition, the Wolf Pack ranked second nationally in total offense (505.6) and sixth in scoring (38.2).

In 2007, Nevada's offensive line paved the way for the top rushing attack in the WAC and the 12th-best rushing offense in the nation at 214.1 yards per game. The group was paced by Luke Lippincott, who led the WAC in rushing at 109.2 yards per game.

In 2009, Klenakis coached WAC Freshman of the Year and second-team All-WAC honoree Brandon Wimberly. Offensive lineman Alonzo Durham and running back Vai Taua were selected to the first team in 2009, while offensive lineman Kenneth Ackerman, tight end Virgil Green and quarterback Colin Kaepernick were second-team choices.

In 2008, Dominic Green was a first-team All-WAC honoree and Durham and Mike Gallett were second-team selections. Center Jimmy Wadhams was named the team's offensive MVP in 2006 when the Wolf Pack offensive line helped the team to rank 24th in the nation in rushing offense.

Klenakis saw Tony Moll (first team) and Barrett Reznick (second team) earn All-WAC honors in 2005, and Nevada's WAC co-championship team led the nation in time of possession and ranked eighth in the NCAA in third-down conversions. In his first year back at Nevada in 2004, Klenakis coached All-WAC performer Harvey Dahl.

Prior to his most recent stint at Nevada as offensive coordinator, Klenakis held the responsibility for three years at Southern Mississippi (2000-02) and one at Central Missouri (2003).

Klenakis helped Central Missouri finish the 2003 campaign with a record of 9-2 and a share of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association title for the first time since 1988 with a 7-2 league mark. Central ranked second among NCAA Division II schools in scoring offense (41.5 ppg) and 25th in rushing offense.

While at Southern Mississippi, he helped the Golden Eagles set eight offensive school records and advance to a pair of bowl games, the GMAC Mobile Bowl in 2000 and the Houston Bowl in 2002.

From 1990-99, Klenakis was an assistant coach at Nevada, serving as offensive coordinator from 1997-99. Under his guidance, Nevada set 24 NCAA records and annually ranked among the national leaders in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense. Klenakis helped lead the Wolf Pack to Big Sky Conference titles in 1990 and 1991 and an NCAA I-AA national runner-up finish in 1990. He then helped lead the Wolf Pack to five Big West championships and to three Las Vegas Bowl appearances.

Klenakis was a two-time Nevada High School Coach of the Year while leading Churchill County High to a three-year record of 21-9.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and history from Carroll College in 1986, where he was a four-year letterwinner as an outside linebacker. In 1992, he completed his master's of exercise physiology at Nevada. He and his wife, Andrea, have a son, Nikos, and a daughter, Lucy.

Kevin Peoples is in his first season as defensive tackles coach after taking over the post in December 2011 following two seasons on staff.

Peoples' first game as an on-field coach for the Razorbacks was a 29-16 defeat of No. 11 Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl that gave Arkansas its school-record-tying 11th win of the 2011 season. In that game, Arkansas held the Wildcats to 87 yards rushing, more than 100 yards below their season average entering the game, and an average of just 2.2 yards per carry.

The Razorbacks also attacked the K-State backfield and recorded 11.0 tackles for loss with 7.0 sacks while allowing just 4-of-15 third-down conversions. Defensive tackles accounted for seven tackles, 1.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, and one quarterback hurry while allowing Arkansas' starting linebackers to collect 22 tackles, 2.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, and one quarterback hurry.

Peoples served as the Razorbacks' Director of High School Relations for two seasons after spending eight seasons as the defensive line coach at Arkansas State. In his first two seasons in Fayetteville, Arkansas posted consecutive 10-win seasons for just the third time in school history and played in the first BCS game in school history with an appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl following the 2010 season.

Peoples coached 11 all-conference selections in his time at Arkansas State. While there, he tutored several players who were chosen as All-

In addition, Carrington was named the 2008 Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year. Williams and Bradley spent time playing in the NFL, and Carrington was a third-round pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Peoples, who joined the ASU staff in January 2002, was selected from 500 coaches as one of the recipients of the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year Award for the 2002-03 season. The award is set up to recognize those coaches that made a significant contribution to their teams and have generally gone unnoticed.

Prior to coaching at Arkansas State, Peoples spent the 2001 season coaching defensive tackles at Northwestern State University. He spent the 2000 season with the XFL's Las Vegas team after coaching the defensive line and special teams at Northern Arizona in 1999. From 1997-98, Peoples was the defensive line coach at Central Missouri and in 1996, he worked with the defensive ends and the kickoff coverage team at Northwestern State.

Peoples began his coaching career at Carroll College in Montana in 1993 for two years before joining the staff at Blinn Community College in Texas for the 1995 season. The team at Blinn went on to win the national junior college championship in 1995.

He was a four-year starter at linebacker at Carroll College, helping the Saints to the 1989 Frontier Conference crown and a berth in the NAIA playoffs. During his playing career, Peoples earned two all-conference selections and was also an all-district performer as a senior.

He is married to the former Rebecca Chilton of Buckeye, Ariz.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING JASON VELTKAMP

Jason Veltkamp enters his fifth season as the head strength and conditioning coach at Arkansas after previous stops at Louisville, Utah and Utah State.

With the selections of Jake Bequette, Joe Adams, Jarius Wright and Greg Childs in 2012, he has worked with 47 NFL Draft picks in his career.

The Bozeman, Mont., native spent the four previous years (2004-07) as the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Louisville, and in the first three years he was there the Cardinals earned trips to the Liberty, Gator and Orange bowls.

Before going to Louisville, he was the director of strength and conditioning at the University of Utah from 2001-03 after working as an assistant from 1999-2000.

While with the Utes, the football team won two Mountain West Conference championships, earned three bowl bids, and had wins over Southern California in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl and Southern Mississippi in the 2003 Liberty Bowl. The men's basketball team also won three conference titles and earned three NCAA Tournament bids with Veltkamp organizing its workouts.

Veltkamp began his career in 1995 as a student assistant and volunteer coach working with the offensive line at Carroll College in Helena, Mont. A little more than a year later he moved into strength and conditioning as the coach for the Helena Ice Pirates Junior "A" hockey team for the 1996 season.

He returned to Carroll and assisted with spring practice before working at Utah State as a graduate assistant from 1997-98. His time at USU saw him work with 14 sports, including football, basketball, volleyball and track.

Athletes he has worked with include four NFL first-round draft picks in defensive tackle Amobe Okoye (Houston), offensive tackle Jordan Gross (Carolina), quarterback Alex Smith (San Francisco) and offensive guard Eric Wood (Buffalo).

He also worked with basketball center Andrew Bogut (Milwaukee). Other professional athletes he has worked with include Jason Spitz (Green Bay), Steve Smith and Maake Kemoeatu (Carolina), Elvis Dumervil (Denver), Michael Bush (Oakland), Kolby Smith (Kansas City), Kerry Rhodes (New York Jets), and Chris Kemeoatu and William Gay, both of whom played for Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Carroll College graduate was a four-year starter and was a team captain in 1994.

Veltkamp earned his master's degree in exercise science from Utah State in 1998 and is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He also is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and American Football Coaches Association.

Since arriving at Arkansas, Veltkamp has developed the Razorback Football Champions booklet and brought the Ring the Bell tradition to the program. He also authored an article entitled Pillars of Strength for Training and Conditioning Magazine and delivered speeches on in-season training and motivating collegiate football players at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association Convention.

He and his wife Kristen have two sons, Caden and Colton.

MARK ROBINSON
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Mark Robinson is in his fifth year as Arkansas' director of football operations after spending five years as a football operations assistant at Texas A&M. He joined the UA staff on Jan. 3, 2008.

Robinson oversees all the daily operations of the Arkansas Football program. He is responsible for the operation of the football program's budget, scholarships, team travel, housing, camps and clinics, NFL relations and other administrative responsibilities. Robinson is the staff liaison to the Southeastern Conference. He also monitors and records all athletic related events for the football program.

This past year, at the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic, Robinson coordinated the scheduling and all travel arrangements. He created daily itineraries, including the game day timeline, published the travel roster, organized all team meals and distributed player per diem funds. He took personal responsibility ensuring the Field Scovell Trophy, given to the Cotton Bowl champions, made a safe return to Fayetteville. It was Robinson's third bowl trip at UA after he also coordinated the Razorbacks' trip to the 2010 Liberty Bowl and the 2011 Sugar Bowl, the first BCS game in school history.

Robinson served as the Assistant Director of Football Operations at Texas A&M from 2003-07. At A&M, he assisted with the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, practice, game day operations, recruiting and coaching. He assisted the staff with recruiting letters and videos, worked with the compliance office, handled player guest tickets, coordinated various activities and functions related to three bowl games, assisted with recruiting weekends and official visits, put together a player policy manual and supervised team-building activities.

Robinson played on the offensive line at Appalachian State from 1998-2002, where he earned his bachelor's degree in communications. The Mountaineers were ranked in the top 10 in the nation in I-AA and earned playoff bids all five seasons. He set the school record with a 615-pound squat lift and received the Strongest Player Award on the team his senior year.

The Greensboro, N.C., native is married to the former Valerie Lynch. They have three children, Caroline, who was born in March 2008, Rocco, who was born in October 2009, and Nate, who was born in June 2011.

JASON SHUMAKER
DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS

Jason Shumaker is in his first season as Director of High School Relations for the Razorbacks and brings seven years of collegiate coaching experience to the staff.

Shumaker came to Fayetteville after spending the last two seasons at Midland University. He was the associate head coach/offensive coordinator in 2011 and the run game coordinator/head junior varsity coach in 2010. The Warriors' offense averaged more than 30 points per game and finished in the top 30 nationally in nearly every offensive category in 2011.

Shumaker was hired as the head coach of Dana College in December of 2009 and served in that role until the school closed in June of 2010.

Prior to Dana, he was at the University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth, Kan., for three seasons as the offensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator and offensive line and tight ends coach. The offense he developed while at St. Mary finished as the fifth-ranked passing offense in the nation in 2008 and broke numerous school records. The offense he directed finished in the top 30 in the nation in several different categories over two seasons and had four games with 500 yards of offense. He coached 21 players over three seasons that were All-KCAC selections. Due to this success, he was named the 2008 KCAC Assistant Coach of the Year.

Shumaker went to USM from Eastern New Mexico, where he served as fullbacks coach and defensive line coach over two seasons and coached three All-Lone Star Conference players. Prior to his time at ENMU, he was a teacher and a coach in Rowlett, Texas.

Shumaker was born in Salina, Kan., and went to high school in Grand Prairie, Texas. From there, he attended the University of Kansas, where he played fullback for the Jayhawks. He was also a five-time Jayhawk Scholar and was named to the Big XII Commissioner's Honor Roll five times.

Shumaker graduated from the University of Kansas with a Bachelor of Science in education in 2003 and received his Master's Degree in sports administration from Eastern New Mexico University in 2007. He is married to the former Kate Klepper and the two have one son, Davis.

TERRANCE BUTLER
GRADUATE ASSISTANT - OFFENSE

Terrance Butler is in his first season as a graduate assistant on the Razorbacks coaching staff after spending the previous two seasons working with the Arkansas strength and conditioning staff.

Butler was a four-year letterman at Louisville, where he played linebacker and helped the Cardinals to the first BCS appearance in school history. He appeared in 46 games and collected 66 tackles, 50 solo, including 3.0 tackles for loss. In 2007, he played in 10 games and made 19 tackles, with 16 solo stops. His junior season, he played in all 13 games and made 17 tackles as the Cardinals finished the year 12-1, won the Big East championship, defeated No. 15 Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl and ended the season ranked No. 6 in the country. In his first two seasons at Louisville, Butler saw action in 23 games, including all 12 as a true freshman in 2004, and recorded 30 tackles.

Butler, a Green Cove Springs, Fla., native, was a three-year starter at linebacker and safety and two-time all-county and all-district performer at Clay High School. He earned second-team all-state accolades and was named to the Florida Times-Union Top 24 after recording 88 tackles, 9.0 for loss, and 10 pass breakups as a senior. He also was a discus thrower for the Clay track and field team and finished eighth in the event at the state championships.

Butler graduated from Louisville in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in business marketing. He has a three-year-old daughter, Lauren.

JOSEPH HENRY
GRADUATE ASSISTANT - TIGHT ENDS

Joseph Henry, a former UA letterman, is in his first season as a graduate assistant for the Razorbacks in 2012 and will coach the tight ends.

After redshirting in 2005, Henry was part of the most recent Razorback team to win the SEC Western Division and play in the SEC Championship Game. The 2006 squad finished the season 10-4, 7-1 in the SEC, and is the only team in school history to win seven SEC games in a single season. Throughout his five seasons, Arkansas won 27 games and advanced to three bowl games, playing in the 2007 Capital One Bowl, the 2008 Cotton Bowl and the 2010 Liberty Bowl.

Henry, a Little Rock, Ark., native, was a two-year letterman at Central High School, where he played tight end and also punted. He was honored as an all-conference tight end and served as a team captain in his senior season. He averaged 52 yards per kick on three punts against Little Rock Catholic in 2004. He also lettered in basketball.

Henry graduated from Arkansas in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in finance and marketing.

BEN NEEDHAM
GRADUATE ASSISTANT - DEFENSE

Ben Needham enters his first season as part of the Razorback coaching staff in 2012 with seven years of experience dating back to his time as a student.

Needham comes to Arkansas after spending the past two seasons at Ohio State. In 2010, he was the team's defensive quality control assistant and in 2011 worked as the Buckeyes' defensive graduate assistant. The Buckeye defense led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA in total defense and also led the conference and ranked third in the country in points allowed in 2010. That season, they also led the Big Ten while tying for third in the NCAA in turnover margin and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

Prior to his time in Columbus, Needham spent the 2008-09 seasons as the defensive line coach at Drake University. While at Drake, he coached two all-conference performers and the Bulldogs ranked among the top-15 in FCS in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense both seasons.

He served as the defensive line coach at Wabash College in 2007 and helped the Little Giants advance to the quarterfinals of the Division-III playoffs.

A 2007 graduate of Ohio State, Needham was an undergraduate intern with the Buckeyes' football program from 2005-06 after beginning his collegiate career as an offensive lineman at DePauw University.

LD SCOTT
GRADUATE ASSISTANT - DEFENSE

LD Scott is in his first season as a graduate assistant for the Arkansas football team.

Scott lettered at Louisville from 2006-09 and was part of a team that beat Wake Forest 24-13 in the 2007 Orange Bowl, the first BCS Bowl game in Cardinals' history. Scott appeared in 35 games with 15 starts as a Cardinal and recorded 83 tackles, 15.0 for loss, 4.0 sacks, seven pass breakups and two fumble recoveries.

In 2009, he played in all 12 games, making 10 starts, and recorded 41 tackles, 7.0 for loss, 3.0 sacks, two pass breakups and one fumble recovery. His junior season, he made 22 tackles, 6.0 for loss, with four pass breakups and one fumble recovery while appearing in 10 games with two starts. As a sophomore, he played in 11 games with three starts and made 20 tackles, 2.0 for loss, with 1.0 sack, one quarterback hurry and one pass breakup.

Scott, a native of Auburn, Ala., was a two-time all-conference selection at Auburn High School. He was selected the team's Defensive MVP and Most Valuable Defensive Lineman after his senior season that featured 65 tackles and four sacks despite missing four games due to an injury. As a junior, Scott piled up 70 tackles, 30 for loss, and six sacks.

Scott earned his degree in communications from Louisville in 2009. He and his wife, Kelsey, have one daughter, Brianna, and one son, Braylon.

WAQA DAMUNI
DIRECTOR OF ACADEMICS - FOOTBALL

Waqa Damuni is entering his fifth year with the Razorbacks and his first as Director of Academics. Damuni's responsibilities include tracking NCAA initial and continuing eligibility, coordinating the academic affairs for football student-athletes, and assisting the coaching staff with recruiting and day-to-day operations.

Damuni joined the Arkansas staff in the spring of 2008. Under Damuni's tutelage, the Razorback football team posted its highest GPA ever in the history of Razorback Football. In his first year at Arkansas, Damuni was responsible for the restructuring of the entire football academic program and implemented a monitoring and reporting system for football student-athletes.

Prior to landing in Fayetteville, Damuni made stops at Colorado, Memphis, and his alma mater, Utah State University, where he was an assistant director, counselor and graduate assistant, respectively. Some of the duties he has held included working with numerous men's and women's teams by assisting each of his coaching staffs with on-campus recruiting and a shared academic vision of the university with prospective student-athletes.

Damuni was a counselor for the State of Utah-Juvenile Justice Services in Logan, Utah, serving in different capacities including detention, family crisis intervention and community outreach services. He also served as the liaison between the Juvenile Justice Services and the Hispanic community in the Cache Valley area. He is fluent in Spanish after serving a two-year church mission in Monterrey, Mexico.

Damuni earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Utah State University in Logan, Utah. He received his bachelor's of arts degree in sociology in 1998 with minors in social work and Spanish. He went on to earn a master's degree in business information systems in 2005. He began his football career as a tight end at Dixie Junior College in St. George, Utah, and played at Utah State University under head coach John L. Smith. A three-year letterman, he helped the Aggies win back-to-back Big West Conference championships, including a trip to the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl in 1997.

A 2010 graduate of the NCAA Leadership for Ethnic and Minority Institute, Damuni is also a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

A native of Laie, Hawai'i, he is married to the former Val Tonga of Millbrae, Calif. They have seven children - Emosi, Levani, Junior, Jovesa, Lavinia, Lusiana and Damien.

CHUCK HALL
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Chuck Hall is in his second season as equipment manager for the University of Arkansas' football team after joining the staff in May of 2011.

Hall handles the ordering, maintaining and distribution of equipment for the Razorback football team as well as coordinates with the coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts. He came to Arkansas with experience in the National Football League as well as the Big 12 and Big East.

In his first season with the Razorbacks, he implemented a move to equip each player with a practice helmet and a game helmet while also improving helmet safety and fit for each player. He also oversaw a redesign of the equipment room to make it more functional for staff and players.

Before coming to Arkansas, Hall spent the previous two years at Kansas State, where he led the equipment department for head football coach Bill Snyder.

Prior to working with the Wildcats, Hall served nine seasons at Louisville, including eight as director of equipment operations, where he spent three seasons with UA football head coach John L. Smith and also worked with coordinators Paul Haynes and Paul Petrino, as well as strength and conditioning coach Jason Veltkamp. Hall spent the 2000 season as Louisville's assistant equipment manager and was promoted prior to the 2001 season.

Hall worked as a student equipment manager at Kansas State from 1995-98 and was hired as a full-time assistant following his graduation. While he was a student, he also served a summer internship with the Washington Redskins and the San Diego Chargers.

He is married to the former Leslie Begshaw. The couple has one child, Averi.

ZACK HIGBEE
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL MEDIA RELATIONS

Zack Higbee is in his fourth year at the University of Arkansas. Higbee joined the Razorback staff in January of 2009 as Associate Director of Media Relations. In August of 2010, he was promoted to Director of Football Media Relations. Previously, he worked at Florida, UConn and Oklahoma.

At Arkansas, Higbee supervises the media relations office and leads responsibilities for the Razorback football program.

In his media relations career, Higbee successfully promoted the first underclassman ever to win the Heisman Trophy as well as winners of the Maxwell Award (2007 and 2008), Sullivan Award (2007), Davey O'Brien Award (2007), ESPY for Best Male College Athlete (2007 and 2008), Manning Award (2008), Disney Spirit Award (2008 and 2010), Mackey Award (2010) and the inaugural Johnny Rodgers Award (2011).

He has also been one of the primary contacts for football teams that have appeared in three BCS games including the 2007 and 2009 BCS National Championship Games and the 2011 Sugar Bowl.

Higbee joined the Razorbacks after working the previous six and a half years as one of the primary football contacts at the University of Florida. While at Florida, Higbee coordinated the football game-day operations for the media relations office. His duties included press box set up, supervising game-day staff, production of notes packages and post-game press conference management.

Prior to working with the Gators, Higbee served as the assistant director of athletic communications at Connecticut. While with the Huskies, he was the second media contact for the 2002 Big East regular season and tournament champion men's basketball team as well as for football.

Higbee interned with the Huskies and had a brief stint in the Razorback media relations office after his graduation from Oklahoma in 2000 with a degree in communications. At OU, Higbee was also active in the sports information office as a student assistant.

Higbee is married to the former Jodi Smith and the two have one daughter, McKenna.

MATT SUMMERS
HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Matt Summers is in his fourth year as the Head Football Athletic Trainer. He joined Arkansas' staff July 25, 2009, after gaining experience in both intercollegiate athletics, including the Southeastern Conference, and in the National Football League.

Summers, along with the collaboration of team physicians, is responsible for overseeing the healthcare of football student-athletes. He develops, designs and implements strategies to prevent, treat and rehabilitate athletic and non-athletic related injuries. He also supervises two certified full-time athletic trainers, two certified graduate assistants and multiple undergraduate and graduate student athletic trainers.

Before coming to Arkansas, Summers spent the 2008-09 year as senior athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky. He was the director of rehabilitation, generated daily injury reports for coaches, supervised graduate assistants and students, was responsible for the budget and supplies and maintained injury records.

During the 2006 and 2007 football seasons, he was assistant athletic trainer for the NFL's San Diego Chargers. He conducted and monitored the rehabilitation program, monitored the field and communicated with the coaching staff during practices, managed inventory and budgeting and was responsible for the interviewing and hiring of summer students and seasonal interns. Following the 2007 season, Summers was a member of the 2008 AFC Pro Bowl Athletic Training staff.

He worked at the University of Louisville from 2003-06. Summers was a graduate assistant from May 2003 through June 2005 and assistant athletic trainer from 2005 until going to San Diego in 2006.

With the Cardinals, he assisted the head athletic trainer with the prevention, assessment and care of athletic injuries related to football, designed and implemented rehabilitation protocols and recruited and supervised graduate assistants and students. As a graduate assistant, responsibilities included assisting in the design, implementation and documentation of rehabilitation protocols and supervising the student staff.

Summers, who earned his bachelor's degree in education majoring in kinesiology from Kentucky in 2002 and his master's degree in health and wellness from Louisville in 2005, interned with the Chargers during the 2002 NFL season.

He is married to the former Kim Ahr. They have a four-year-old son, Jonathan, and a one-year-old daughter, Ashlyn.

ANDY WAGNER
DIRECTOR OF SPORTS VIDEO

Andrew Wagner is in his fifth season with the University of Arkansas football team as the Director of Sports Video.

Since arriving in Fayetteville, Wagner and his staff have been instrumental in numerous enhancements to create an environment conducive to the Razorback coaching staff and players utilizing game film. In his efforts, Wagner has overseen the redesign of the video room in the Broyles Center and upgrades to equipment in all player meeting rooms. He was recognized by the Collegiate Sports Video Association as the 2011-12 Southeastern Conference co-Video Coordinator of the Year.

Under Wagner's direction, the video department has streamlined the network in order for coaches and players to have open access to watch video. Today, a Razorback player can easily view all of his reps or study tendencies of an opponent, and coaches have instant access to recruiting film online in order to evaluate potential future players.

Most recently, in 2011, Wagner and his staff overhauled their equipment and became one of the first programs in the country to film all aspects of game and practices in high definition.

Additionally, Wagner has been a key developer of UA's first recruiting web site, Thisisarkansasfootball.com, where visitors can learn about life as a Razorback through content produced by the athletic department. Most recently, Wagner helped develop an app that was released in the spring of 2011 for iPad, iPhone and Android. Both of these ventures were recognized with awards.

Wagner came to UA after spending eight years with the Jacksonville Jaguars and 10 years overall in the National Football League.

Prior to arriving in Fayetteville, Wagner was an assistant video coordinator with the Jaguars where he broke down game film on opponents, maintained professional and amateur video tape libraries, created highlight tapes and maintained the computer servers that housed Jacksonville's archives.

Wagner's professional career began in the summer of 1998 as an intern with the Indianapolis Colts where he stayed for two seasons.

A native of Indiana, Wagner graduated from Bremen High School in Bremen, Ind., before attending Butler University where he earned a bachelor's of science degree in telecommunications in 1999. Wagner and his wife Karen reside in Springdale with their two daughters, Katelyn, 6, and Makenzie, 5.

ALVIN BAILEY

OG, 6-5, 312, JR-2L
Broken Arrow, Okla.
Broken Arrow HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Bailey has started all 26 games of his Razorback career and blocked consecutive seasons with a 3,000-yard passer, including the first season in school history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2010.

2011: He was named an All-American by Pro Football Weekly and a second-team All-SEC performer by the Associated Press and the conference's coaches. He started all 13 games as part of an offensive line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records. He was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week following the 52-3 win vs. New Mexico in which the Razorbacks piled up 632 yards of total offense while averaging 7.8 yards per play and earning 34 first downs, the second-highest single-game total in school history. Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense to become just the fifth different school, and first since 2001, to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and became the sixth team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the SEC in passing offense for three straight seasons. The Razorbacks ranked 13th in the country with their average of 300.7 passing yards per game, 15th in the nation with an average of 36.8 points per game and 29th in the NCAA with an average of 438.1 yards of total offense per game. Quarterback Tyler Wilson broke nine UA records and led the SEC in passing and total offense while becoming the first Razorback to be a first-team All-SEC selection at quarterback. Wide receiver Jarius Wright also earned first-team All-SEC honors after he broke seven school records and led the conference in receiving yards per game with an average of 93.1 to rank 18th in the country and in receiving touchdowns with 12, a total that tied for seventh in the NCAA. The Razorback offense posted the second-best single-season total in school history for completions (299), passing yards (3,909), passing yards per game (300.7), first downs (279) and passing first downs (166) while totaling the third-highest total offense yardage total (5,695) and third-best total offense per play average (6.45).

2010: He started all 13 games for the Razorbacks as Arkansas was the only school in the SEC to start the same offensive line every game in 2010. He was named to the FWAA Freshman All-America Team and the SEC All-Freshman Team. The line allowed Arkansas to break 24 game or season school records on offense. He blocked for the first season in UA history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher. Quarterback Ryan Mallett set the Arkansas single-season passing yards record with 3,869 and running back Knile Davis posted the fourth-highest single-season rushing yards total in program history with 1,322 yards. The Razorbacks were the only team in the country to boast a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and five 600-yard receivers. Arkansas finished the season first in the SEC and fourth in the NCAA in passing (333.7), becoming just the third team since 1992 to lead the conference in passing in consecutive seasons. The Razorbacks also ranked second in the SEC and ninth in the country in total offense (482.5) and second in the conference and 17th in the NCAA in scoring offense (36.5).

2009: He redshirted in 2009 and practiced with the scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL: He anchored the offensive line for Broken Arrow for three straight years. During his senior season, Bailey recorded 116 knockdowns and did not allow a sack. He graded out at 89 percent on the year. Bailey guided the Tigers to a breakout season in 2008, helping the squad defeat eventual Class 6A state champion Tulsa Union in the opening week of the season. He was named to the 2008 all-state team by the Daily Oklahoman and was an all-district Class 6A honoree. He was ranked the No. 27 offensive guard in the nation and the No. 13 prospect in Oklahoma by Rivals.com. He bench pressed more than 400 pounds and squatted 590 pounds. He was coached at Broken Arrow High School by Ron Lancaster. Bailey was also recruited by Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Michigan State and Nebraska.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 26, 1991, he is the son of Alvin Sr. and Delores Bailey. His father was a basketball player for the Razorbacks in the late 1970s. Alvin is majoring in recreation and sports management.

AUSTIN BECK

OT, 6-7, 307, FR-RS
Nowata, Okla.
Nowata HS

2011: Beck worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Beck played both ways in the trenches for Nowata High School under head coach Eric Walkingstick. A towering offensive and defensive lineman, Beck was ranked as the 10th-best prospect in the state of Oklahoma and the No. 71 offensive tackle in the nation by Rivals.com. He was considered the No. 37 offensive tackle recruit in the nation by Scout.com. Beck helped anchor his Nowata squad to a berth in the second round of the Oklahoma Class 3A state playoffs. He made 51 tackles as a senior, including 35 solo stops. Beck made at least three tackles per game in his final high school season, with back-to-back seven-tackle outings against Sperry and Dewey. The Tulsa World recognized Beck on its 2010 all-state team. Beck picked the Razorbacks after also receiving offers from Baylor, Illinois and Missouri.

PERSONAL: Born March 19, 1993, he is the son of Doug and Michelle Beck. He is majoring in agriculture education.

ERIC BENNETT

S, 6-0, 206, JR-2L
Tulsa, Okla.
Booker T. Washington HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Bennett has appeared in 25 games with 13 starts and recorded 89 tackles, 4.0 for loss, four pass breakups, three interceptions and one fumble recovery. His career interception and pass breakup totals are the most among current Razorbacks. He played his true freshman season at cornerback and was moved to safety in the spring of 2011.

2011: Bennett started all 13 games at safety after moving from cornerback during spring practice and finished the season with 74 tackles, 3.0 for loss, three interceptions and three pass breakups. He ranked second on the team and tied for 12th in the SEC in interceptions, fourth on the team in tackles and tied for fourth among Razorbacks in pass breakups. His two interceptions on the road tied for fifth in the SEC. He put out a two-tackle performance in the first start of his career, a 51-7 season-opening win vs. Missouri State. He made five tackles, including 0.5 for loss, in the 52-3 win vs. New Mexico. The next week, he recorded a then-career-high eight tackles, 0.5 for loss, and one pass breakup in a 38-28 victory vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, he made seven tackles. He made six tackles in the come-from-behind 42-38 win vs. No. 14 Texas A&M. He had a career-high nine tackles, 0.5 for loss, and made his first career interception in the 38-14 victory vs. No. 15 Auburn. He made five tackles and the game-clinching interception, which he grabbed with less than one minute to play in the 29-24 win at Ole Miss. He extended his interception streak to three straight games the next week as he made one interception and six tackles, including five solo, in a 31-28 victory at Vanderbilt. He recorded five tackles in the 44-28 win vs. No. 10 South Carolina. The next week he made three tackles, including 1.0 for loss, in a 49-7 win vs. Tennessee. He made four tackles, 0.5 for loss, and one pass breakup in the 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State. At No. 1 LSU, he tied his career high with nine tackles and added one pass breakup. He made five tackles, four solo, as the Razorbacks ended the season with a 29-16 defeat of No. 11 Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

2010: He appeared in 12 games, missing only Arkansas' 38-24 win vs. Ole Miss, and made 15 tackles, 1.0 for loss, with one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. Bennett made his Razorback debut in his first game on campus and made three tackles in UA's 44-3 win vs. Tennessee Tech. He posted a season-high seven tackles with one fumble recovery and one pass breakup in the Razorbacks' 38-31 double-overtime victory at No. 22 Mississippi State. He made one tackle in UA's 31-24 win at Georgia. He made two tackles, 1.0 for loss, in Arkansas' 49-14 win vs. Vanderbilt and also recorded two tackles in a 58-21 victory vs. UTEP.

HIGH SCHOOL: Bennett was a versatile athlete who played quarterback, running back, wide receiver and cornerback at Booker T. Washington High School and was one of the top-rated players in the state of Oklahoma. He was chosen as the No. 37 cornerback in the nation by Scout.com and the No. 49 athlete nationally by Rivals.com. He was also the No. 10 ranked prospect in Oklahoma by Rivals.com. He was named a 2009 first-team Oklahoma 5A all-state honoree as an all-purpose player. He played in only seven games as a senior due to a shoulder injury and completed 54-of-96 passes for 873 yards and nine touchdowns. He also carried the ball 100 times for 581 yards and five touchdowns. He had one of his top performances of the season in the top-ranked Hornets' 27-6 victory over No. 2 Carl Albert. Against the Titans, he carried the ball 11 times for 185 yards, including a season-long 67-yard run, and he threw for a touchdown. Against Broken Arrow, he had 22 runs for 118 yards and two touchdowns. He also completed 15-of-25 passes for 197 yards and a touchdown. As a junior, he led the Hornets to a 13-1 record and the class 5A state championship while passing and rushing for more than 1,000 yards and scoring 27 touchdowns. On defense, he had 11 tackles and one interception. He also ran track and clocked a 10.7-second time in the 100 meters. He was recruited by Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Tennessee, Kansas State, Iowa State, Oregon State and Texas Tech.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 17, 1992, he is the son of Eric, Sr., and Stacy Bennett. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

DYLAN BREEDING

P, 6-1, 211, SR-3L
Hoover, Ala.
Hoover HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Breeding has appeared in 38 games and punted 166 times for 6,971 yards, an average of 42.0 yards per punt, with a long of 70. He ranks fifth all-time at Arkansas in punts, punt yardage and punt average.

2011: He saw action in all 13 games and was named second-team All-SEC by the Associated Press and the conference's coaches. He punted

53 times and averaged 45.3 yards per punt with a long of 70. Breeding's average was the third-highest single-season average in school history, led the SEC and ranked seventh in the NCAA in 2011. He became the first punter in school history to lead the SEC in punting average and the first to top the conference since Greg Horne led the Southwest Conference in 1986. He boomed 17 punts of 50 yards or longer, dropped 16 inside the 20-yard line with just three touchbacks and had 16 punts result in a fair catch. Breeding was nominated for the Brandon Burlsworth Trophy, which goes to the nation's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on. He averaged at least 40 yards per punt in each game with the exception of Arkansas' 44-28 win vs. No. 10 South Carolina, a game in which he did not attempt a punt. He averaged a career-high 50.4 yards per punt, including a career-long 70 yarder, on five punts with two of more than 50 yards and two inside the 20-yard line at No. 1 LSU. In the season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State, he punted twice, averaging 41.0, with a long of 50 yards and one punt inside the 20. He had one 41-yard punt the next week in a 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico before averaging 42.3 yards on five punts with a long of 53, two of at least 50 yards and three inside the 20 the next week in a 38-28 win vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, he punted a season-high eight times and averaged 44.6 yards per punt with a long of 54, four punts fair caught, two of 50 or more yards and one inside the 20. Breeding crushed four punts of at least 50 yards with a long of 56 while punting seven times for an average of 48.4 in the 42-38 come-from-behind victory vs. No. 14 Texas A&M. He also punted seven times in the 38-14 victory vs. No. 15 Auburn and averaged 44.4 yards per punt with a then-season-long 59 yarder and two inside the 20. He had four punts for an average of 43.8 in a 29-24 win at Ole Miss and averaged 41.2 yards on five punts with two fair catches and one inside the 20 in a 31-28 win at Vanderbilt. Breeding punted three times for an average of 49.3 yards with a long of 55, two of more than 50 yards and two inside the 20 in the 49-7 victory vs. Tennessee and averaged 43.0 yards on two punts in the 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State. In Arkansas' 29-16 defeat of No. 11 Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl, he punted four times for an average of 46.8 with a long of 63 and two inside the 20.

2010: He appeared in all 13 games for the Razorbacks and averaged 42.5 yards per punt on 52 punts with a long of 60 that came vs. Texas A&M. He placed 18 punts inside the 20-yard line and had 10 of at least 50 yards. Breeding was nominated for the Brandon Burlsworth Trophy and the Rudy Award, which honors student-athletes who demonstrate exemplary character, courage, contribution and commitment as members of their team on and off the field. He boomed a then-career-long 60 yarder as part of an eight-punt performance that included four inside the 20-yard line and two longer than 50 yards in the Razorbacks' 24-17 victory vs. Texas A&M. He punted three times, including a then-career-long of 59 yards, while averaging 45.7 yards per punt in UA's 31-7 win vs. ULM. He punted six times, averaging 47.3 yards per punt, with a long of 57 as well as picked up an errant snap and rushed for five yards to convert a first down and keep a first-quarter drive alive in Arkansas' 31-24 win at Georgia. He punted seven times, with a long of 54, and placed two inside the 20-yard line while also making one tackle in Arkansas' 38-24 victory vs. Ole Miss. Breeding also averaged at least 40 yards per punt at No. 7 Auburn, at No. 18 South Carolina, vs. UTEP and vs. No. 6 LSU. Breeding concluded his season with seven punts for a 43.7 average with four inside the 20, including three downed inside the 10-yard line, in the Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 6 Ohio State.

2009: Breeding appeared in 12 games for the Razorbacks, missing only the Eastern Michigan contest. He led the squad in punts with 61 for a total of 2,359 yards and an average of 38.7. He recorded his season long of 54 yards against Texas A&M and a career-high number of punts, nine, against Alabama. He had one punt blocked against Alabama. On the season, he downed 14 punts inside the 20-yard line. Against Alabama, Florida and East Carolina, three of Breeding's punts were inside the 20-yard line.

HIGH SCHOOL: At Hoover High School, he was a member of two state runner-up teams under coach Josh Niblett. He also lettered in baseball. As a senior, he was named all-state after he punted 59 times for 2,447 yards, an average of 41.5 yards per punt, with a long of 59. He dropped 18 punts inside the 20-yard line and had nine result in fair catches. He also handled kickoff duties for the Buccaneers and recorded 20 touchbacks on 81 kickoffs.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 14, 1990, he is the son of Marve and Kerri Breeding. He is majoring in marketing and was named to the Athletic Director's List for the fall of 2009. He was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and the Athletic Director's List for the fall of 2010 and fall of 2011.

KNILE
DAVIS

RB, 6-0, 226, JR-2L
Missouri City, Texas
Fort Bend Marshall HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Davis has appeared in 26 games with nine starts and rushed 237 times for 1,485 yards and 17 touchdowns. His career rushing yards and rushing touchdown totals are the most among current Razorbacks. He also has caught 21 passes for 140 yards and one touchdown. He announced on Jan. 10, 2012 that he was returning to the Razorbacks for the 2012 season.

2011: Davis was voted a team captain and was named to numerous preseason All-America and All-SEC teams as well as watch lists for the Doak Walker Award, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award. He missed the entire 2011 season after suffering an injury Aug. 11 during a preseason scrimmage.

2010: He appeared in all 13 games with eight starts for the Razorbacks and was named first-team All-SEC by the AP and second-team All-SEC by the conference's coaches after becoming just the 10th player in Arkansas history to post a 1,000-yard season on the ground. He rushed for 1,322 yards, the most by a running back in the SEC and the fourth-highest single-season total in program history. His average of 101.7 rushing yards per game ranked second in the SEC and 16th in the NCAA. He also ranked sixth in the SEC with 13 rushing touchdowns, tied for the 10th-highest single-season total in Arkansas history, and tied for sixth in the SEC for points by a non-kicker with 84. His six 100-yard rushing games tied for the fourth-highest single-season total. His 6.48 yards per rushing attempt was the highest in the NCAA among running backs that carried the ball at least 200 times and ranked as the fifth-highest single-season average at Arkansas. He averaged 112.2 all-purpose yards per game, which ranked sixth in the SEC. Davis ended the season with five consecutive 100-yard rushing games and his 157.8 rushing yards per game in November made him the only SEC player to average 100 yards per game on the ground in the season's final full month. He rushed for a career-high 187 yards and two touchdowns on a career-high 30 carries, as well as collected two receptions for 12 yards and his first career receiving touchdown, in Arkansas' 38-31 double-overtime win at No. 22 Mississippi State. His touchdown reception was from seven yards out and accounted for the winning margin in the second overtime. He tied his career-high carries mark the next week, rushing for 152 yards and one touchdown in the Razorbacks' 31-23 victory vs. No. 6 LSU. He ran for a then-career-high 182 yards with one touchdown on just 11 carries and added one three-yard reception in UA's 58-21 win vs. UTEP. In Arkansas' 38-24 victory vs. Ole Miss, Davis rushed 22 times for a then-career-high 176 yards and a career-high three touchdowns with two receptions for 19 yards. He tied his career-high touchdown total in helping the Razorbacks to a 41-20 win at No. 18 South Carolina, finding the end zone three times while carrying the ball 22 times for 110 yards and hauling in one pass for five yards in a performance that earned him SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors. He ran for 139 yards on 26 carries and had three receptions for eight yards in the Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 6 Ohio State. In Arkansas' 49-14 win vs. Vanderbilt, he had three catches for 42 yards to supplement his 82 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries. He toted the ball 14 times for 91 yards and added three receptions for 22 yards at No. 7 Auburn. He recorded 82 yards on 10 rushes in UA's 24-17 win vs. Texas A&M and ran the ball five times for 19 yards in a 31-7 victory vs. ULM. He posted 67 rushing yards on six carries and added one 15-yard reception in the Razorbacks' season-opening 44-3 win vs. Tennessee Tech. Davis carried the ball six times for 42 yards and caught two passes for 14 yards vs. No. 1 Alabama. In the Razorbacks' 31-24 win at Georgia, he scored one touchdown on three rushes.

2009: He played in all 13 games with a start vs. No. 17 Auburn. He finished fifth on the team with 163 yards on 33 carries. His four touchdowns ranked second and his 4.9 yards per carry average was third among players with 10 or more rushes. He also had two catches for four yards and made four tackles on special teams. He rushed the ball a season-high seven times for a season-high 59 yards and two touchdowns against Eastern Michigan. Davis scored on the opening drive of the game on a 36-yard run followed by a five-yard touchdown run in the second half. His first career rush was a 15-yarder in the opener against Missouri State. He had two carries each at Alabama, for six yards, and against Texas A&M, for 11 yards. He had six carries for 26 yards against No. 17 Auburn. Davis ran four times for 20 yards against South Carolina and four for 13 against Troy. He had two carries for six yards at LSU and two for three in the Liberty Bowl victory over East Carolina.

HIGH SCHOOL: Davis played for Fort Bend Marshall High School and as a senior had 33 carries for 278 yards and two touchdowns as well as three receptions for 46 yards. He finished his junior season with 425 rushing yards and four touchdowns, despite playing in only four games due to a fractured collarbone. He was rated the No. 17 running back in the nation by Rivals and No. 23 by Scout. Rivals.com also listed him as the No. 18 prospect in the state of Texas and he was on the Rivals.com 250 list. He was also selected as the second-best running back in the state of Texas by The Dallas Morning News. He bench pressed 350 pounds and squatted 450 pounds. He had a 31-inch vertical leap. He was coached in high school by Darryl Phipps and also ran track. He selected Arkansas over Oklahoma, LSU, Missouri, Nebraska, Georgia Tech and Texas A&M.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 5, 1991, he is the son Regina Gardner and Kevin Davis. He is majoring in criminal justice.

2011: Highsmith started all 13 games of his first season at Arkansas and finished the season first on the team and 10th in the SEC with 12.5 tackles for loss. He recorded 80 tackles, including 12.5 for loss with 4.5 sacks, two quarterback hurries, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, one interception and one pass breakup. His sack total was second on the team, and his tackle total ranked third on the team. He made a career-high 12 tackles, including a career-high-tying 2.0 tackles for loss, in the 38-14 win vs. No. 15 Auburn. He scored his first touchdown as a Razorback on a 47-yard fumble return and also made seven tackles with 0.5 sack at No. 1 LSU. He opened the season with four tackles and 2.0 for loss, which was the third-highest TFL total by an SEC player in the season's first week, in a 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. The next week, he started a stretch of six straight games with at least five tackles by making five stops in the 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico. He made five tackles, 1.0 for loss, in the 38-28 win vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, Highsmith recorded eight tackles, 2.0 for loss and 1.0 sack. He made seven tackles, 0.5 for loss, in the come-from-behind 42-38 victory vs. No. 14 Texas A&M before his 12-tackle performance against Auburn. He made six tackles, 1.5 for loss with 1.0 sack that resulted in a 23-yard loss in a 29-24 win at Ole Miss. The next week, he accounted for one tackle and forced one fumble in the 31-28 victory at Vanderbilt. He recorded six tackles, 1.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, and one interception in the 44-28 win vs. No. 10 South Carolina. He made nine tackles and one pass breakup in the 49-7 victory vs. Tennessee and the next week accounted for three tackles and one quarterback hurry in the 44-17 win vs. Mississippi State. He ended the season with seven tackles, 2.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, and one quarterback hurry as Arkansas defeated No. 11 Kansas State 29-16 in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

BEFORE ARKANSAS: He was a junior college All-American linebacker at Phoenix College. In 2010, Highsmith recorded 94 tackles, 79 solo, including 12 tackles for loss and four sacks. He notched two forced fumbles and recovered two fumbles. He received recognition as NJCAA Region One co-Defensive Player of the Year and was named the WSFL Defensive Player of the Year. He was coached in junior college by Land Jacobsen and at Elkins High School by Aaron Clark. Highsmith signed with the Razorbacks over offers from Washington, SMU and Cincinnati.

PERSONAL: Born Nov. 21, 1989, he is the son of Alonzo Highsmith and Shwayne Sesler. His father played running back for the University of Miami and had a seven-year NFL career and his brother A.J. is currently a safety at the University of Miami. Alonzo is majoring in sociology.

RAZORBACK PLAYERS: Returning Players

ZACH

HOCKER

K, 6-0, 180, JR-2L

Russellville, Ark.

Russellville HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Hocker has appeared in all 26 games as a Razorback. He is 111-of-113 on PATs and 37-of-46 on field goals for a total of 222 points scored and has kicked off 93 times for an average of 67.8 yards per kick and 40 touchbacks. Entering the 2012 season, he holds the Arkansas record for career field goal percentage (min. 20 made) at 80.4. His PAT kicks made total is tied for fourth on the school's all-time list, and his 222 points rank sixth in school history. He is tied for sixth on Arkansas' career made field goals list and on the UA career PAT attempts list. His career field goal attempts total ranks ninth in school history.

2011: Hocker broke the Arkansas single-season record for points by a kicker with 118 as he made 21-of-27 field goal attempts and 55-of-57 PATs. He also kicked off 93 times for an average of 67.8 yards per kick with 40 touchbacks in his first season as a collegian handling kickoff duties in addition to placekicking. He led all SEC kickers and was second overall in the conference and 17th in the NCAA with his average of 9.1 points per game. He also tied for second in the SEC and for 11th in the NCAA with 1.6 made field goals per game. His 40 touchbacks were the most in the SEC and ranked second in the NCAA, and his touchback percentage of 43.01 was second in the conference and third in the country. His average kickoff distance of 67.8 yards also was second in the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation. His 21 made field goals and 27 field goal attempts both ranked second on the respective single-season lists at UA, while his 57 PAT kick attempts stood as the third-highest single-season total in school history and his 55 PAT makes ranked fourth on the single-season list. His 77.8 field goal percentage was the seventh-best single-season percentage in school history among kickers with at least 10 makes in a season. He scored a career-high 14 points, which tied for sixth on Arkansas' single-game kick scoring list, vs. No. 10 South Carolina and vs. Mississippi State. Against the Gamecocks, he was 3-of-5 on field goal attempts and 5-of-5 on PATs while tying his career high with nine kickoffs that resulted in three touchbacks as UA won 44-28. He was 3-of-4 on field goals and 5-of-5 on PATs with nine kickoffs for a career-high-tying five touchbacks in the 44-17 victory vs. the Bulldogs. He opened the season with nine points on 6-of-7 PATs and 1-of-1 field goals with a career-high nine kickoffs and a career-high five touchbacks in a 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. He was 7-of-7 on PAT attempts and 1-of-2 on field goals while kicking off nine times and earning two touchbacks the next week in a 52-3 win vs. New Mexico. He was 5-of-5 on PAT attempts and 1-of-1 on field goals with two touchbacks on seven kickoffs in the 38-28 victory vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, he was 2-of-2 on PATs and kicked off three times for an average of 70.0 yards per kick and two touchbacks. He was 4-of-4 on PATs and 2-of-2 on field goals with eight kickoffs resulting in two touchbacks in the 42-38 win vs. No. 14 Texas A&M. The next week, he was 5-of-5 on PATs and 1-of-2 on field goals with a career-high-tying five touchbacks on seven kickoffs in the 38-14 victory vs. No. 15 Auburn. He was 3-of-3 on PATs and 2-of-2 on field goals while kicking off six times with two touchbacks in a 29-24 win at Ole Miss. He was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week after he was 2-of-2 on PATs and 3-of-3 on field goals, including a season-long 50 yarder, and recorded two touchbacks on seven kickoffs in the 31-28 victory at Vanderbilt. He tied his career high with seven made PATs and added four touchbacks on eight kickoffs in a 49-7 win vs. Tennessee. At No. 1 LSU, he was 2-of-2 on PATs and 1-of-1 on field goals with two touchbacks on four kickoffs. He wrapped up the season by tying his career high for field goals with a 3-of-3 performance, tying the bowl record for made field goals, and adding two PATs and four touchbacks on seven kickoffs while helping Arkansas defeat No. 11 Kansas State 29-16 in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. He also made three tackles, one each vs. New Mexico, vs. South Carolina and at LSU, and recovered one fumble vs. South Carolina.

2010: He appeared in all 13 games for the Razorbacks and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after scoring 104 points, 56-of-56 on PATs and 16-of-19 on field goals. Hocker's 104 points scored were seventh in the SEC and ranked as the fourth-highest single-season total in school history and the third most by a kicker. He was one of just two kickers in the SEC to be perfect on PAT kicks, and his 56 made PATs ranked second in the conference and tied for 12th in the NCAA and as the third-most in a season by a Razorback kicker. His .842 field goal percentage ranked third in the SEC and tied for 21st in the NCAA and was the third-best single-season percentage (min. 10 attempts) in school history. His long of 51 yards was an Arkansas freshman record and the longest by any UA kicker since 1988. It came as part of a 2-of-2 field goal performance with five PATs in the Razorbacks' 41-20 win at No. 18 South Carolina. The Gamecock contest was in a run of seven consecutive games in which he made at least four PAT kicks, a streak that began at No. 7 Auburn and stretched through Arkansas' 31-23 win vs. No. 6 LSU. He also started the season with three straight games of at least four PATs, making six in the season opener vs. Tennessee Tech and four each vs. ULM and at Georgia. He made a career-high three field goals on three attempts, with a long of 47, to go with one PAT made in the Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 6 Ohio State. He was 2-of-2 on field goals vs. No. 1 Alabama and vs. Vanderbilt and connected on one field goal vs. ULM, at Georgia, vs. Texas A&M, vs. Ole Miss, vs. UTEP, at No. 22 Mississippi State and vs. No. 6 LSU.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hocker earned all-state honors in 2009 at Russellville High School under head coach Jeff Holt. As a senior, he was also named the Defensive Player of the Year by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. He was ranked as the best kicker in the state of Arkansas by Scout.com. Hocker was selected to play in the Arkansas High School Coaches Association East-West Shrine Game. As a senior, he helped Russellville to an 8-3-1 record and kicked a school-record 15 field goals. All but three of his 61 kickoffs reached the end zone for a touchback, resulting in opponents starting from their 20-yard line more than 95 percent of the time. He finished the season with a 45-yard average on 35 punt attempts. He averaged more than 45 yards in seven games and 14 of his punts were downed inside the 20. He kicked four field goals in a 26-26 tie at Fayetteville, including a school-record 52 yarder. As a junior, he averaged 38 yards per punt. He selected Arkansas over Hawaii, Arkansas State, Memphis and North Carolina.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 23, 1991, he is the son of Roy and Sandy Hocker. He is majoring in communication.

COLTON
MILES-NASH

DE, 6-6, 261, SR-3L
Sulphur Springs, Texas
Sulphur Springs HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Miles-Nash has played in 32 games with three starts and made 19 tackles, including 1.5 for loss with 0.5 sack, blocked one punt and caught one pass for six yards. He played the 2009 season at tight end due to injuries at the position, moved back to defense for the 2010 season and then opened the 2011 season at tight end before moving back to defensive end in October.

2011: Miles-Nash played in 11 games with two starts and did not see action in the 49-7 win vs. Tennessee or the 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State. Splitting the season between tight end and defensive end, he made five tackles and caught one pass for six yards. He made one tackle in the season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. He started and made one six-yard reception that led to a one-yard touchdown rush by the Razorbacks on the next play in a 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico. His other start came in UA's 38-14 victory vs. No. 15 Auburn. He recorded one tackle in the 38-28 win vs. Troy and the 44-28 win vs. No. 10 South Carolina. He also made one tackle at No. 1 LSU and in Arkansas' 29-16 defeat of No. 11 Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

2010: He appeared in all 13 games for the Razorbacks and finished the season with 14 tackles, including 1.5 for loss and 0.5 sacks, and one blocked kick. He opened the season with a two-tackle performance in Arkansas' 44-3 win vs. Tennessee Tech. He recorded one tackle vs. ULM. He made one tackle, 0.5 for loss, in the Razorbacks' 24-17 win vs. Texas A&M. He also made one tackle at No. 7 Auburn. He added two tackles in a 41-20 win at No. 18 South Carolina. In UA's 49-14 victory vs. Vanderbilt, Miles-Nash made two tackles, including 1.0 for loss. He also recorded one tackle vs. UTEP, at No. 22 Mississippi State and vs. No. 6 LSU. In the Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 6 Ohio State, Miles-Nash blocked a Buckeye punt to give Arkansas possession inside the OSU 20-yard line with just more than one minute to play. He also made two solo tackles in the Sugar Bowl.

2009: He moved from defensive end to tight end in preseason drills due to a season-ending injury to Chris Gragg. Miles-Nash played in eight games and started at tight end in the Troy contest. He did not record any stats during the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: During his senior season, Miles-Nash totaled 110 tackles (80 unassisted), 23 quarterback hurries, eight tackles for loss and four sacks to help lead Sulphur Springs to a 14-2 record and a state championship. He was named first-team all-district for his efforts. As a junior, he had 43 tackles and six sacks. He was ranked as the No. 35 strong side defensive end in the country by Rivals.com. He was coached in high school by Greg Owens. He also played basketball in high school. He was also recruited by Auburn, Baylor, Colorado, Colorado State, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and UTEP.

PERSONAL: Born March 24, 1991, he is the son of Charles and Biankah Nash. He is majoring in criminal justice.

KEANTE MINOR

WR, 6-0, 205, SO-1L
East St. Louis, Ill.
East St. Louis HS

2011: Minor saw action in 11 games, mostly on special teams, missing only the games at No. 3 Alabama and No. 1 LSU. He returned three kickoffs for 67 total yards, an average of 22.3 yards per return, with a long of 29 yards. He returned one kickoff for 19 yards in the 52-3 win vs. New Mexico. He returned two kickoffs for 48 total yards, including his long of 29, in a 44-28 victory vs. No. 10 South Carolina. He also helped block for the Razorback special teams that returned an NCAA-leading six total kicks for touchdowns, including four punt return touchdowns by Joe Adams, a number that tied the SEC single-season record.

HIGH SCHOOL: Arkansas added a prep 1,000-yard receiver in Minor, who snagged 55 passes for 1,022 yards and 13 touchdowns in 2010 for head coach Darren Sunnett. Considered the No. 14 recruit in the state of Illinois by Rivals.com, Minor showed his explosiveness with two punt returns taken back for touchdowns as a senior. He was ranked as the No. 41 wide receiver recruit in the country by Scout.com, while Rivals.com pegged him 64th at the position. In 2009, Minor made 42 catches for 812 yards and eight touchdowns. He also played a key role for East St. Louis' basketball team, averaging 19.3 points per game as a junior, 14.3 as a sophomore and 8.7 as a freshman. Minor picked Arkansas after also drawing interest from Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 25, 1992, he is the son of Kevin Minor and Katrina D. Gregory. He is majoring in sports management.

OT, 6-4, 305, SR-1L
Milledgeville, Ga.
Baldwin HS/Citrus (Calif.) College

CAREER SUMMARY: Peacock has seen action in all 13 games at Arkansas with nine starts after transferring prior to his junior season.

2011: Peacock played in all 13 games and started the last nine as part of a line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records. Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense to become just the fifth different school, and first since 2001, to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and became the sixth team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the SEC in passing offense for three straight seasons. The Razorbacks ranked 13th in the country with their average of 300.7 passing yards per game, 15th in the nation with an average of 36.8 points per game and 29th in the NCAA with an average of 438.1 yards of total offense per game. Quarterback Tyler Wilson broke nine UA records and led the SEC in passing and total offense while becoming the first Razorback to be a first-team All-SEC selection at quarterback. Wide receiver Jarius Wright also earned first-team All-SEC honors after he broke seven school records and led the conference in receiving yards per game with an average of 93.1 to rank 18th in the country and in receiving touchdowns with 12, a total that tied for seventh in the NCAA. The Razorback offense posted the second-best single-season total in school history for completions (299), passing yards (3,909), passing yards per game (300.7), first downs (279) and passing first downs (166) while totaling the third-highest total offense yardage total (5,695) and third-best total offense per play average (6.45).

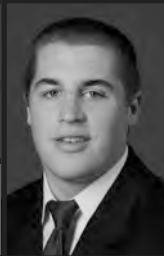

BEFORE ARKANSAS: After playing two seasons in the junior college ranks, Peacock made his move to Arkansas. The physical lineman earned second-team All-Central Conference honors while playing for junior college head coach Ron Ponciano. He was a Citrus teammate of current UA offensive lineman Chris Stringer. Peacock earned all-state honors from the Georgia Sportswriters Association for his performance at Baldwin High School under head coach Jesse Hicks. In 2008, Baldwin advanced to the state quarterfinals of the Class AAA playoffs. Peacock sided with the Razorbacks after also considering Arizona, Houston, Mississippi State, New Mexico and Utah. He enrolled at Arkansas in the spring of 2011.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 12, 1989, he is the son of Jason and Cathy Peacock. He is majoring in sociology.

MITCH SMOTHERS

OG, 6-4, 296, SO-1L
Springdale, Ark.
Springdale HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Smothers has played in seven games with four starts. He became the first true freshman in school history to start a season opener on the offensive line when he opened at tackle vs. Missouri State.

2011: Smothers saw action in seven games and started the first four games of the season. With his start in the season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State, he became the first true freshman in school history to start a season opener on the offensive line and was one of just four true freshman offensive line starters on a BCS automatic-qualifying team in the season's first week. He was part of an offensive line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records and produce a 3,000-yard passer for the third straight season. Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense to become just the fifth different school, and first since 2001, to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and became the sixth team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the SEC in passing offense for three straight seasons. The Razorbacks ranked 13th in the country with their average of 300.7 passing yards per game, 15th in the nation with an average of 36.8 points per game and 29th in the NCAA with an average of 438.1 yards of total offense per game. Quarterback Tyler Wilson broke nine UA records and led the SEC in passing and total offense while becoming the first Razorback to be a first-team All-SEC selection at quarterback. Wide receiver Jarius Wright also earned first-team All-SEC honors after he broke seven school records and led the conference in receiving yards per game with an average of 93.1 to rank 18th in the country and in receiving touchdowns with 12, a total that tied for seventh in the NCAA. The Razorback offense posted the second-best single-season total in school history for completions (299), passing yards (3,909), passing yards per game (300.7), first downs (279) and passing first downs (166) while totaling the third-highest total offense yardage total (5,695) and third-best total offense per play average (6.45).

HIGH SCHOOL: Smothers was recognized on ESPN's Top 150 class of 2011 list and was part of three Arkansas Class 7A playoff teams at Springdale High School. He was rated as the fourth-best prospect in the state of Arkansas and as the No. 17 offensive guard in the country by Rivals.com. He was ranked No. 29 in the 2011 class of offensive tackles by Scout.com. After his senior season under head coach Shane Patrick, Smothers was selected to Under Armour's All-America team and appeared in the Under Armour All-American Game held in Tampa, Fla. Smothers was a first-team Class 7A West All-State pick by the AHSAA and a first-team all-state selection by ArkansasVarsity.com. He was also recruited by Auburn, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Missouri, Oklahoma State, South Carolina and UCLA.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 20, 1992, he is the son of Kirk Smothers and Lori Cornella. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

CHRIS STRINGER

OT, 6-7, 304, SO-RS
Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.
Alta Loma HS/Citrus College

2011: Stringer appeared in the first three games, a season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State, a 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico and a 38-28 win vs. Troy, before missing the rest of the season due to injury. He was granted a medical redshirt for the 2011 season.

BEFORE ARKANSAS: At Citrus College in 2010, Stringer earned all-conference honors after just one season, taking a spot on the Central Division West second team at offensive tackle. Stringer was coached in junior college by Ron Ponciano. He was a Citrus teammate of current UA offensive lineman Jason Peacock. At Alta Loma High School in 2009, Stringer played on the offensive line for head coach Dan Bornfeld.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 11, 1991, he is the son of Ed and Sue Stringer. He is majoring in history.

TRAVIS SWANSON

C, 6-5, 305, JR-2L
Kingwood, Texas
Kingwood HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Swanson has started all 26 games of his Razorback career and blocked for consecutive seasons with a 3,000-yard passer, including the first season in school history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2010.

2011: Swanson started all 13 games as part of an offensive line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records and produce a 3,000-yard passer for the third straight season. Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense to become just the fifth different school, and first since 2001, to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and became the sixth team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the SEC in passing offense for three straight seasons. The Razorbacks ranked 13th in the country with their average of 300.7 passing yards per game, 15th in the nation with an average of 36.8 points per game and 29th in the NCAA with an average of 438.1 yards of total offense per game. Quarterback Tyler Wilson broke nine UA records and led the SEC in passing and total offense while becoming the first Razorback to be a first-team All-SEC selection at quarterback. Wide receiver Jarius Wright also earned first-team All-SEC honors after he broke seven school records and led the conference in receiving yards per game with an average of 93.1 to rank 18th in the country and in receiving touchdowns with 12, a total that tied for seventh in the NCAA. The Razorback offense posted the second-best single-season total in school history for completions (299), passing yards (3,909), passing yards per game (300.7), first downs (279) and passing first downs (166) while totaling the third-highest total offense yardage total (5,695) and third-best total offense per play average (6.45).

2010: He started all 13 games for the Razorbacks at center as Arkansas was the only school in the SEC to start the same offensive line every game in 2010. He was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. The line allowed Arkansas to break 24 game or season school records on offense. He blocked for the first season in UA history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher. Quarterback Ryan Mallett set the Arkansas single-season passing yards record with 3,869 and running back Knile Davis posted the fourth-highest single-season rushing yards total in program history with 1,322 yards. The Razorbacks were the only team in the country to boast a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and five 600-yard receivers. Arkansas finished the season first in the SEC and fourth in the NCAA in passing (333.7), becoming just the third team since 1992 to lead the conference in passing in consecutive seasons. The Razorbacks also ranked second in the SEC and ninth in the country in total offense (482.5) and second in the conference and 17th in the NCAA in scoring offense (36.5).

2009: He redshirted and worked out with the Arkansas scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Swanson was a first-team all-state selection by the writers and a second-team honoree by the coaches. He was rated as the No. 33 offensive guard by Scout.com and the No. 73 offensive guard by Rivals.com. He was named one of 10 finalists for the Greater Houston Area Offensive Player of the Year and was the only lineman among the finalists. He was coached by Dougald McDougald. He was also recruited by Arizona, Houston, Kansas and Texas Tech.

PERSONAL: Born, Jan. 30, 1991, he is the son of Todd and Gina Swanson. He is majoring in criminal justice. He was named to the Razorback Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2011.

TYLER WILSON

QB, 6-3, 220, SR-3L
Greenwood, Ark.
Greenwood HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Wilson became the first Razorback in school history to be named first-team All-SEC quarterback when he was selected to the first team on the AP and coaches' teams in 2011. He is 344-of-547 passing for 4,378 yards and 31 touchdowns. He is the 10th 4,000-yard passer in school history and ranks fourth in career touchdown passes, sixth in career pass completions and ninth in career pass attempts. Wilson holds nine school records, including career completion percentage, and has produced three of the top five single-game completions marks in school history. He announced on Jan. 13, 2012 that he was returning to the Razorbacks for his senior season.

2011: In his first season as a starter, Wilson started all 13 games after being selected as a team captain and led the Razorbacks to 11 wins, which tied the school's single-season record and was just the third time in school history with 11 wins. He was named first-team All-SEC by the AP and coaches, which made him the first Razorback in school history to be named first-team All-SEC quarterback. Wilson finished the season 277-of-438 passing for 3,638 yards and 24 touchdowns with six interceptions, becoming just the second Razorback in school history to pass for 3,000 yards in a season. His completions and attempts totals were single-season school records. His passing yards total ranked as the second-highest single-season mark in school history and the eighth-highest single-season total in SEC history, while his 63.2 completion percentage was the third-highest single-season total in school history. He was responsible for 28 touchdowns, which ranked as the third-highest single-season total in school history, and his passing touchdown total ranked fourth on UA's single-season list. He broke Arkansas' single-season record with 498 plays of total offense and his 3,635 yards of total offense ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history and was the 10th-highest single-season total in SEC history. Wilson's attempt-to-interceptions ratio of 1:73 was the third-best in SEC history with a minimum of 300 attempts and fourth-best in conference history with a minimum of 200 attempts. He was a finalist for the Manning Award and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award. He broke Arkansas' record for consecutive passes without an interception by throwing 184 passes, stretching from the second quarter at Alabama to the second quarter vs. South Carolina, between interceptions. His streak also ranked as the sixth longest in SEC history. Wilson led the SEC and ranked 16th in the NCAA with his average of 279.8 passing yards per game and led the SEC and ranked 23rd in the NCAA with his average of 279.6 yards of total offense per game. His completions total was the highest in the SEC and ranked 25th in the NCAA, and his 24 touchdown passes ranked second in the conference and 32nd in the nation. Wilson's pass efficiency rating of 148.35 led the SEC and ranked 22nd in the NCAA, and his completion percentage ranked third in the SEC. He ranked third in the SEC and was tied for 13th in the NCAA with his average of 13.13 yards per completion, and his average of 8.31 yards per pass attempt ranked second in the SEC and tied for 18th in the NCAA. He led the SEC and ranked seventh in the NCAA with 94 passes of at least 15 yards and led the SEC and ranked eighth in the country with 33 passes of 25-plus yards. His 61 passes of 15-plus yards in the first half led the conference and ranked fourth in the NCAA, and his 2,179 first-half passing yards led the SEC and was 10th in the nation. He also led the SEC and ranked eighth in the NCAA with 1,261 passing yards in the second quarter. Wilson opened the season with the ninth-highest single-game completion percentage in school history with an 18-of-24 performance for 261 yards and two touchdowns in a 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. He was 18-of-26 passing for 259 yards and one touchdown through the air and also added 48 rushing yards on five carries in a 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico. Wilson passed for 303 yards and two touchdowns while completing 23-of-36 passes in the 38-28 win vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, he was 22-of-35 passing for 185 yards and two touchdowns. Wilson was named SEC co-Offensive Player of the Week after breaking the Arkansas school record with 510 passing yards while leading the Razorbacks from an 18-point halftime deficit to a 42-38 victory vs. No. 14 Texas A&M inside Cowboys Stadium. He finished the day 30-of-51 passing for 510 yards and three touchdowns, breaking the UA record for pass attempts and producing the fifth 500-yard passing game in SEC history and first since 2001. His passing yards total was the highest in the SEC and the fourth-highest single-game total in the NCAA in 2011. He also broke the Arkansas single-game record with 481 yards of total offense, which was the most in the SEC and 12th-highest single-game total in the NCAA, and with 57 plays of total offense against the Aggies. Wilson completed a career-high 18 consecutive passes in Arkansas' 38-14 win vs. No. 15 Auburn, which tied for the third-longest overall streak in SEC history and tied for the second-longest single-game streak in conference history. He finished the game against the Tigers 24-of-36 passing for 262 yards and two touchdowns through the air and also added one rushing touchdown. Wilson was 13-of-28 passing for 232 yards and rushed for two touchdowns in the 29-24 win at Ole Miss in which he led the team back from a 17-point deficit. He completed 27-of-43 passes for 316 yards and one touchdown in a 31-28 win at Vanderbilt, leading the Razorbacks back from 14 points down. He was 20-of-37 passing for 299 yards and two touchdowns, including a career-long-tying 68 yarder, in the 44-28 win vs. No. 10 South Carolina. He completed 16-of-26 passes for 224 yards and three touchdowns in a 49-7 win vs. Tennessee. Wilson was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in Arkansas' 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State in which he broke the school record with 32 completions, bettering the previous record of 31 that had stood since 1971. He finished the game 32-of-43 passing for 365 yards and three touchdowns. At No. 1 LSU, Wilson was 14-of-22 passing for 207 yards and one touchdown. He was named Offensive MVP of the Cotton Bowl after he was 20-of-31 passing for 216 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions while leading the Razorbacks to a 29-16 win vs. No. 11 Kansas State.

2010: He appeared in six games for the Razorbacks and finished the season 34-of-51 passing for 453 yards and four touchdowns with three interceptions. He became just the ninth quarterback in Arkansas history to throw for 300 yards in a game when he came on in relief of an injured Ryan Mallett in the second quarter at No. 7 Auburn. In less than three full quarters against the Tigers, Wilson passed for a then-career-high 323 yards, including a then-career-long 54-yard completion, and a career-high four touchdowns. His touchdown total was tied for the fourth-highest single-game output in school history, and his passing yardage was the 14th-best single-game performance by a Razorback. His four passing touchdowns tied for the third-highest single-game output in the SEC in 2010, and his passing yards were the 12th-best single-game total in the conference. His four touchdowns were the most the Tigers had allowed at home since 2000, and his 332 passing yards were the most given up by an Auburn defense inside Jordan-Hare Stadium since 2001. The next week, he again stepped in for an injured Mallett and was 3-of-5 passing for 71 yards while finishing off a 38-24 win vs. Ole Miss. He was 4-of-5 passing for 36 yards in the Razorbacks' 58-21 victory vs. UTEP. He completed one pass for eight yards in UA's 49-14 win vs. Vanderbilt and opened the season with one completion for six yards in a 44-3 victory vs. Tennessee Tech. He played the final two offensive series but did not attempt a pass in Arkansas' 41-20 win at No. 18 South Carolina.

2009: Wilson played in five games for Arkansas including action against Alabama. He finished the season 22-of-36 with 218 yards and two touchdowns. Wilson passed for a total of 138 yards on 13-of-19 passing and both touchdowns in the season opener against Missouri State. At Alabama, he completed 4-of-6 passes for 31 yards. He saw plenty of time in the victory over Eastern Michigan and was 5-of-11 for 49 yards.

2008: He played in two games, completing 11-of-22 passes for 69 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions. He was 4-of-7 for 27 yards with a touchdown and an interception against Alabama, and 7-of-15 for 42 yards with an interception the following week at Texas. He missed the remainder of the season due to an illness and received a medical hardship to make him a redshirt freshman. His touchdown against Alabama was a 10-yard toss to Michael Smith.

HIGH SCHOOL: He turned in one of the most prolific high school careers in Arkansas history, passing for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdown passes. He also completed 62 percent of his passes during his high school tenure. As a senior, he led Greenwood High School to its third straight state title-second with Wilson starting at quarterback-while passing for 3,939 yards and 42 touchdowns for coach Rick Jones. He was named the MVP of the 5A state championship game. He was also named as one of two quarterbacks on the Associated Press Super Team following his senior season after completing 294-of-473 passes. He also rushed 65 times for 199 yards and four touchdowns. He was recognized with the Landers Award as the state of Arkansas' top player and selected an all-conference and all-state performer. He was a 2007 all-state selection. As a junior, he completed 294-of-434 passes for 4,222 yards and 50 touchdowns. The No. 9 pro-style quarterback in the nation, as rated by Rivals, he was also ranked the No. 5 overall recruit in the state of Arkansas by the same scouting service. He was rated No. 10 overall in the state by the HawkSports.com Natural 21 rankings and No. 6 by Hawks Illustrated. He was ranked, by Scout, as the No. 35 quarterback in the nation and the No. 7 player in Arkansas. He was also recruited by Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri and Nebraska.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 16, 1989, he is the son of Don and Suzy Wilson. He is majoring in sports management and earned a place on the Athletic Department Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2009. He was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the fall of 2011.

TENARIUS
WRIGHT

LB, 6-2, 252, SR-3L
Memphis, Tenn.
Whitehaven HS

CAREER SUMMARY: Wright has appeared in 34 games with nine starts. He has collected 95 tackles, 20.0 for loss with 9.0 sacks, eight quarterback hurries, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He leads current Razorbacks in career tackles, tackles for loss, sacks, quarterback hurries and forced fumbles and is tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries. He moved to linebacker during 2012 spring practice.

2011: Wright started all eight games in which he appeared and recorded 25 tackles, 5.0 for loss with 1.5 sacks, five quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. His quarterback hurry total tied for the team lead despite him being injured early in the game at No. 3 Alabama and missing the next five games. He opened the season with four tackles, 0.5 for loss, in a 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. The next week, he again made four tackles with 0.5 for loss and also added one forced fumble in the 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico. He recorded two tackles in a 38-28 win vs. Troy before being injured the next week at Alabama. He returned with one tackle and one quarterback hurry in the 49-7 victory vs. Tennessee. He made four tackles, 0.5 for loss, and had a career-high three quarterback hurries in a 44-17 win vs. Mississippi State. At No. 1 LSU, he made a season-high five tackles, 0.5 for loss with 0.5 sack, and one quarterback hurry. He tied his season high with five tackles, including a career-high 3.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, and added one fumble recovery in helping Arkansas defeat No. 11 Kansas State 29-16 in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

2010: He appeared in all 13 games for the Razorbacks and finished the season with 36 tackles, including 8.0 for loss and 6.0 sacks, three quarterback hurries, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. His sack total tied for ninth in the SEC. Wright made a career-high nine tackles, including a then-career-high-tying 2.0 for loss with 1.0 sack, in Arkansas' 38-31 double-overtime win at No. 22 Mississippi State. His sack came on fourth down in the second overtime and sealed the win. He recorded a career-high 2.0 sacks as part of a then-career-high five tackles and forced one fumble vs. No. 1 Alabama. He had one tackle in the season-opening 44-3 victory vs. Tennessee Tech. He made two tackles in UA's 31-7 win vs. ULM. He made four tackles, including 0.5 sack, in the Razorbacks' 31-24 win at Georgia. He recorded two tackles, 1.0 for loss with 0.5 sack, in the Razorbacks' 24-17 victory vs. Texas A&M. He made one tackle at No. 7 Auburn. Wright made three tackles, 0.5 for loss, and recovered one fumble at the Arkansas 4-yard line in the fourth quarter of a 38-24 win vs. Ole Miss. He recorded three tackles, including 1.0 sack, and one quarterback hurry in UA's 49-14 victory vs. Vanderbilt and made three tackles with one quarterback hurry in the 58-21 victory vs. UTEP. He made one tackle in the 41-20 win at No. 18 South Carolina. He made two tackles, including 1.0 sack, and registered one quarterback hurry in Arkansas' 31-23 victory vs. No. 6 LSU.

2009: He saw action in all 13 games with a start against South Carolina. He was 12th on the team with 34 tackles, fifth with 7.0 tackles for loss of 28 yards and first with three forced fumbles while adding 1.5 sacks to earn SEC All-Freshman honors. He was second in the SEC with the three forced fumbles. He was named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week for the Texas A&M contest when he had three tackles, including 2.0 for loss and 1.0 sack, and forced two fumbles. He had five TFLs through the first four games of the season with at least one in each contest. He had five tackles at Alabama, four against Missouri State, and three against Georgia, Texas A&M, Florida, Ole Miss, Eastern Michigan and Mississippi State. He also had his third forced fumble against Mississippi State.

2008: He practiced with the scout team during his redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed the first four games of his senior season due to injury, but still totaled 92 tackles, 5.0 sacks, three forced fumbles and three interceptions for coach Rodney Salisbury. As a junior at Whitehaven High School in Memphis, Tenn., he recorded 98 tackles and 11.0 sacks. He also spent time at the defensive end position. He was Rivals.com's No. 15 overall prospect in the state of Tennessee. He was ranked as the No. 28 middle linebacker in the nation and the No. 9 prospect in the state by Scout.com. He was also recruited by Kentucky, North Carolina and Ole Miss.

PERSONAL: Born March 8, 1990, he is the son of David Jones and Teresa Wright. He is majoring in criminal justice.

2011 Season In Review

UA TIES SCHOOL RECORD WITH 11 WINS AND EARNS TOP -5 FINISH

► Arkansas tied a single-season school record with 11 wins in 2011. The 2011 Razorbacks became the third team in school history to win 11 games, joining the 1964 team that was awarded the national championship by the FWAA after an 11-0 campaign and the 1977 squad that finished No. 3 in the country and 11-1 after defeating second-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

► Arkansas finished fifth in the AP and USA Today polls, marking the fourth time in school history and first time since 1977 the Razorbacks recorded a top-five AP finish. At the end of the 2011 season, the Razorbacks' run of 32 weeks in the AP poll was tied with Oklahoma for the seventh-longest active streak in the nation.

► Arkansas' 11 wins in 2011 gave the team 21 wins in 2010-11, which tied the UA record for most wins in a two-year span. The only other time in school history the Razorbacks had earned 21 wins in two seasons was 1964-65.

► The Razorbacks won at least 10 games in consecutive seasons for the third time in school history and the first time since 1988-89.

TEAM NOTES

► The Razorbacks broke or tied 24 school records in 2011.

► Arkansas led the SEC in passing offense (300.7), total offense (438.1) and scoring offense (36.8), becoming just the fifth different school to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and first since Florida in 2001. UA became the sixth SEC team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the conference in passing offense for at least three straight years. UA led the SEC in total offense for the first time in school history. The Razorbacks led the conference in scoring offense for the second time in the last three years and finished in the top-three for the third consecutive season.

► The Razorbacks were 7-0 at home in 2011 for the first undefeated home season since 1999. UA and LSU were the only teams in the SEC to finish the season without a loss at home. Arkansas enters the 2012 season with an 11-game home winning streak.

► Arkansas defeated four teams ranked in the top 15 of the AP poll, which was the highest single-season total in school history and tied for the most among teams ranked in the final AP top 25.

► UA reached a program-high third in the BCS standings on Nov. 20th and was sixth in the final BCS standings, the school's highest BCS finish. At the end of the 2011 season, Arkansas had been ranked in the top 10 of the BCS for a program-record 10 straight weeks.

► Arkansas returned an NCAA-leading six kicks for touchdowns (4 punts, 2 kickoffs) and was one of three teams in the nation with multiple punt return touchdowns and multiple kickoff return touchdowns.

► Arkansas won six SEC games for the second consecutive season, marking the most SEC wins in a two-season span in school history and the first time UA earned a winning SEC record in consecutive seasons.

► The Razorbacks passed for 300 or more yards in a game five times in 2011, the highest number in the SEC. UA also had four separate receivers record at least one 100-yard receiving game for eight total 100-yard receiving games, the second-highest totals in the SEC.

► Arkansas ended the season having forced at least one turnover in nine straight games. In the final nine games, the Razorbacks forced 19 of their 21 turnovers forced for the season. They intercepted three passes vs. Auburn and recovered three fumbles vs. South Carolina.

► Arkansas recorded a non-offensive score in six of the last seven games of the season and finished 2011 with nine non-offensive scores.

► UA scored 14 touchdowns of more than 50 yards in 2011 and scored at least one in 10 different games.

► Arkansas had 21 touchdown drives of less than two minutes in 2011.

► Arkansas was the only school in the SEC with multiple players ranked in the top 10 of the conference in kickoff return average.

2011 SEC FOOTBALL REVIEW

► The SEC has won six consecutive national championships and eight BCS National Championships overall. The SEC has won 22 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, Coaches poll) since the BCS began in 1998.

► Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Alabama, 2011 and 2009; Auburn, 2010; Florida, 2008 and 2006; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the BCS crown. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) each have had two schools win titles since 1998.

► Since 2006, more than half of the slots in the BCS National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (7 of 12). The Big Ten and Big 12 have two each and the Pac-12 has one.

► No other conference has won the BCS National Championship since Texas defeated Southern California 41-38 in the Rose Bowl following the 2005 regular season.

► An SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 20 of the last 24 quarters in the BCS National Championship Game.

► Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked No. 1 in the weekly BCS standings in 26 of the 48 weeks, with four different teams holding the top spot. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 13 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for five weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice and Missouri once) and the Pac-12 for four weeks (all Oregon).

► In the BCS standings of Nov. 20, 2011, the SEC became the first conference in the history of the BCS to hold the top three spots in a weekly ranking (LSU, Alabama, Arkansas).

► The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The conference has had 11 of its 12 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006 for a total of 238 times. The SEC breakdown: LSU (45), Alabama (35), Florida (33), Auburn (29), Arkansas (23), Georgia (23), South Carolina (21), Tennessee (14), Mississippi State (8), Kentucky (4) and Ole Miss (3).

► Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 9-3 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.750) than any other conference. The win total equals that of the next two conferences.

► The SEC has had at least five teams ranked in at least one AP Top 25 poll every year since 1992. In 2011, the SEC had at least five teams ranked in every AP poll.

► Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (36) and appearances (55) than any other conference. The conference's .655 bowl winning percentage during that time is third behind the Big East (23-10, .697) and Mountain West (20-9, .690). In the 2011-12 bowl season, the SEC and Big 12 tied for the most wins (6) and the SEC's .667 winning percentage was the second-highest among conferences with at least six teams in bowl games.

► The Southeastern Conference had 23 first-team All-Americans listed on 10 different squads (AP, ESPN.com, Walter Camp, CBS Sports, AFCA, Sports Illustrated, Pro Football Weekly, Rivals, FWAA and Capital One Academic)

In 2011, Arkansas defeated Texas A&M 42-38 to win the Southwest Classic inside Cowboys Stadium for the third straight year.

The Razorbacks defeated No. 11 Kansas State 29-16 to claim the Field Scovell Trophy as 2012 Cotton Bowl champions.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP

2012 Southeastern Conference Championship Game

The SEC's Western and Eastern Division winners meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series.

The 21st annual title game is set for Dec. 1 and will be nationally televised by CBS Sports.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history in 1992. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: Florida 38, Arkansas 28 — Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas.

Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21.

Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three.

Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: Georgia 30, Arkansas 3 — Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus.

Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards.

Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game.

The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line.

On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin.

Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: Florida 34, Arkansas 3 — A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory.

Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times.

Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.

SEC NOTES

• Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the SEC leads all conferences with eight national champions – Tennessee in 1998, LSU in 2003, Florida in 2006, LSU in 2007, Florida in 2008, Alabama in 2009, Auburn in 2010 and Alabama in 2011.

• Since SEC expansion in 1992, the league leads the nation with 10 national champions.

• Since 1998, Arkansas has won or shared four SEC Western Division championships.

• The SEC had 42 players selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, marking the sixth straight year the conference has led the country in draft picks.

• Teams from the SEC have posted 37 wins in the last six years against non-conference Top 25 teams (at time game was played), an average of more than six wins per season.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 279-63 record, an 81.6 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last six seasons (2006-2011). In 2011, the SEC was 48-8 (.857), the second highest percentage among FBS conferences.

ARKANSAS' 6-1-1 SEC SCHEDULE

The 2012 season is the first of a 6-1-1 scheduling format. With the SEC expanding to include Texas A&M and Missouri for a total of 14 teams, each team will play the other six teams in its division, as well as one permanent opponent and one rotating opponent from the other division. Arkansas and South Carolina have been permanent crossover opponents since joining the SEC in 1992, but beginning in 2013 the Razorbacks will be matched with border rival Missouri.

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his '64 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time — The Associated Press and the United Press International — did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion — The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation — named Frank Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

He was in the backfield 37 times for 216 yards in losses during his career. Following the 1977 regular season, Walker recovered a fumble that aided in the Hogs' drumming of Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. A year later, he made 86 tackles with a then-school-record 19 tackles for loss and was named the most outstanding defensive player after making 10 tackles in the 1978 Fiesta Bowl.

TE D.J. WILLIAMS

2010 SI, Scout.com 2nd / AP 3rd

The Mackey Award winner as the nation's best tight end, Williams also was named first-team All-SEC. He finished the 2010 season with a team-leading 54 receptions, the fourth-highest single-season total in school history, to give him two of the top four single-season reception marks in UA's record book. He gained 627 yards and four touchdowns on his 54 catches. His 4.2 receptions-per-game average ranked seventh in the SEC and tops among the conference's tight ends. He also won the Disney Spirit Award and was Arkansas' first Sullivan Award finalist.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARD WINNERS

HISTORY: National Individual Award Winners

In 2010, D.J. Williams was the recipient of the Disney Spirit Award, given to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure, and the Mackey Award, given to the best tight end in college football. Williams was the first student-athlete in school history to win either award.

Darren McFadden (left) poses with the other 2006 Heisman Trophy finalists. McFadden was the Heisman Trophy runner-up in 2006 and 2007.

Joe Adams won the inaugural Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers National Return Specialist Award following the 2011 season.

D.J. WILLIAMS

DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

(COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S MOST INSPIRATIONAL PLAYER, TEAM OR FIGURE)

The Disney Spirit Award is given annually by Disney Sports to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. D.J. Williams was the 2010 recipient after overcoming domestic abuse.

From participation in the Big Brothers and Big Sisters program, to the local Boys & Girls Clubs and Children's Hospital, Williams demonstrated his big heart and passion for giving back to his community. He used his stature as a prominent college football player to raise awareness and inspire others to abandon troubled relationships and seek help.

On the field, Williams excelled as well, finishing his career with 152 receptions, the second-highest total in school history and the most by a non-wide receiver, 1,855 receiving yards, which ranks eighth on the school's all-time list, and 10 touchdowns. He also won the 2010 Mackey Award as the best tight end in college football.

LOYD PHILLIPS

OUTLAND TROPHY

(OUTSTANDING LINEMAN IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL)

Named for John Outland, an All-American tackle at the University of Pennsylvania in 1897, this trophy is presented by the Football Writers' Association of America to the nation's outstanding collegiate interior lineman.

Arkansas boasts two Outland Trophy winners in its history. An offensive guard and defensive tackle, Bud Brooks was the first UA honoree in 1954. Tackle Loyd Phillips became the Hogs' second winner when he won the award in 1966. The honor is one of the most prestigious awards ever earned by an individual UA player.

1966: Loyd Phillips, defensive tackle

1954: Bill "Bud" Brooks, offensive guard/defensive tackle

DARREN MCFADDEN

DOAK WALKER AWARD

(OUTSTANDING RUNNING BACK IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL)

The Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

The award is named for the former SMU great, who earned All-America honors in 1947, '48 and '49, and won the Heisman Trophy in 1948. Ten semifinalist are selected by the SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors and the winner then chosen by the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee.

Darren McFadden won the award as a sophomore in 2006 and as a junior in 2007 when he was also named the Walter Camp National Player of the Year. He also was the Heisman Trophy runner-up each season. He set a school rushing record with 1,647 yards and 14 touchdowns as a sophomore, and topped those totals with 1,830 yards and 16 TDs as a junior. He led the SEC in rushing and all-purpose running both years.

JONATHAN LUIGS

RIMINGTON TROPHY (MOST OUTSTANDING COLLEGIATE CENTER IN NCAA FBS)

The winner is selected by determining the consensus All-American center from four existing All-America teams — the American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation, The Sporting News and Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named after Dave Rimington, a two-time consensus All-American at Nebraska in 1981 and 1982. Rimington also won the Outland Trophy those two seasons. The trophy is sponsored by the Boomer Esiason Foundation to support treatment and research of cystic fibrosis.

Jonathan Luigs won the award in 2007 after helping clear the way for Darren McFadden, the Heisman Trophy runner-up and Doak Walker Award winner, to rush for 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns; and for All-American Felix Jones, who ran for 1,162 yards and 11 scores.

Luigs earned first-team All-America honors from the FWAA, The Sporting News, Walter Camp, Rivals, College Football News and Phil Steele. Arkansas set school records with 3,725 rushing yards on the season and ranked fourth in the nation, with 5,850 yards of total offense, and in scoring with 485 total points and 37.3 points per game.

D.J. WILLIAMS

JOHN MACKEY AWARD (MOST OUTSTANDING TIGHT END IN FBS COLLEGE FOOTBALL)

The John Mackey Award, established in 2001, is awarded annually to the most outstanding tight end in FBS college football. In addition to demonstrating outstanding athletic prowess on the field, the award also stands for positive sportsman-like behavior, good academic standing and exceptional leadership qualities.

In 2010, D.J. Williams became the first Razorback to win the award after becoming the school's first semifinalist in 2008. He finished the season with a team-leading 54 receptions, the fourth-highest single-season total in school history, for 627 yards and a career-high four touchdowns. He was named first-team All-SEC after helping the Razorbacks be the only team in the country with a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and five 600-yard receivers. His 4.2 receptions-per-game average ranked seventh in the SEC and tops among the conference's tight ends.

Williams finished his career with 152 receptions, at the time the second-highest total in school history and the most by a non-wide receiver, 1,855 receiving yards, which ranked eighth on the school's all-time list, and 10 touchdowns. He was a three-time All-SEC selection and also was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team in 2007.

JOHNNY "THE JET" RODGERS AWARD (COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S BEST RETURN SPECIALIST)

Established following the 2011 season, the Johnny Rodgers Award is given to the best return specialist in college football. The award is named after 1972 Heisman Trophy winner and 2000 College Football Hall of Fame inductee Johnny Rodgers, who finished his career holding NCAA records for career punt return touchdowns (seven) and total kick return touchdowns (nine) while helping Nebraska to consecutive national titles in 1970-71.

Joe Adams won the inaugural award in 2011 after he recorded four punt return touchdowns and averaged 16.89 yards per return. Adams' touchdown total tied the single-season SEC record, and his average led the conference, ranked second in the NCAA and was the fourth-highest average in school history. Adams also tied an SEC record with two punt return touchdowns in a game, a feat he accomplished in the season opener vs. Missouri State while breaking the UA single-game punt return yardage record with 174.

Adams concluded his career with five punt return touchdowns, tied for third in SEC history, and an average of 15.83 yards per punt return that ranked second all-time at Arkansas.

Billy Ray Smith Sr. (left) earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors in 1956 while Billy Ray Smith Jr. made the first team in 1981 and '82.

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 117 years that the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott (No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) have worn numbers no future Razorback will ever wear.

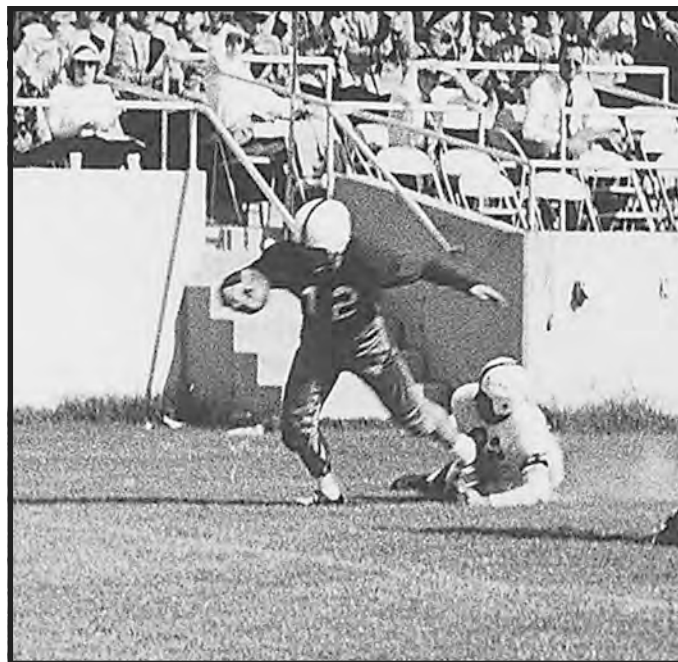

No. 12

CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT – #12 (1946-49)

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success came in 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, Coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career.

No. 77

BRANDON BURLSWORTH – #77 (1994-98)

The athletic department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

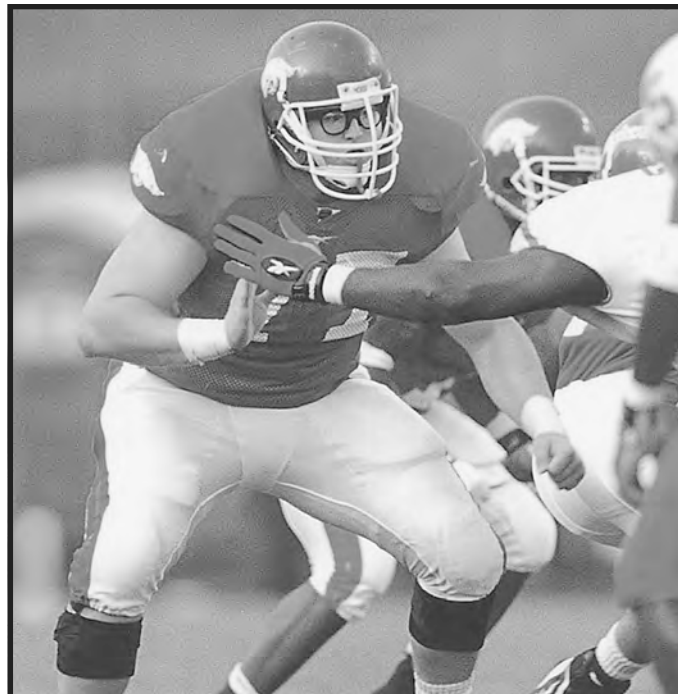

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but unfortunately would die tragically in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletic director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

Burlsworth's locker remains intact as a tribute to his memory in the UA football dressing room.

*Drafted first round

Years spent with each team not available for all players.

Mitch Petrus was drafted by the New York Giants in the 2010 NFL Draft. He has appeared in 21 games and helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI last season.

RAZORBACKS IN THE SUPER BOWL

Steve Atwater's three Super Bowl appearances as a player are the most by a former Arkansas student-athlete. After making his Super Bowl debut in Super Bowl XXIV, Atwater helped the Denver Broncos win back-to-back Super Bowls as they took Super Bowl XXXII against Green Bay before winning Super Bowl XXXIII against Atlanta.

Billy Ray Smith became the first former Razorback to appear in the Super Bowl when the Baltimore Colts faced the New York Jets in Super Bowl III. He returned to the Super Bowl with the Colts two years later and helped them defeat the Dallas Cowboys to win Super Bowl V.

Mitch Petrus and former UA teammate Tony Ugoh became the latest Razorbacks to lift the Lombardi Trophy when they helped the New York Giants to a 21-17 defeat of the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. Entering the 2012 season, the Razorbacks have been represented in four straight Super Bowls and on three straight Super Bowl champions.

Ken Hamlin lettered at Arkansas from 2000-02 and left as UA's record holder for career tackles with 381. In 2000, he became the first Razorback freshman to lead the team in tackles as he collected 104. He was a first-team All-American in 2002 and a first-team All-SEC selection in 2001 and 2002. Following his career, he was drafted 42nd overall by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2003 NFL Draft.

A two-time All-SEC honoree, Malcolm Sheppard lettered for the Razorbacks from 2006-09 and served as team captain his final two seasons. He led the team in tackles for loss in each of his final three seasons, including a career-high 14.5 in 2008 in a season in which he also led the team with 6.5 sacks. Sheppard concluded his career tied for fifth on the school's all-time career tackles for loss list with 36.0.

Pat Summerall was a defensive end, tight end and placekicker for the Razorbacks from 1949-51. He served as a team captain in 1951 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1952 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions. Summerall went on to a 10-year NFL career before moving into the broadcast booth, where he worked for CBS, ESPN and Fox. He was paired with John Madden for 22 years to make up one of the most well-known broadcast partnerships in TV history.

HUGO BEZDEK
5 SEASONS — 1908-12, 29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season.

In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season — a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

E.T. PICKERING

2 SEASONS — 1913-14, 11-7-0

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed nearly a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player; Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

T.T. MCCONNELL
2 SEASONS — 1915-16, 8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi A&M.

NORMAN PAINE
2 SEASONS — 1917-18, 8-3-1

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Fighting Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history — a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

Although J.B. Craig's only season included a lopsided 63-7 loss to Henry Kendall, it concluded with a 7-6 win over Oklahoma in the Razorbacks' most recent home meeting with the Sooners. The win avenged the 103-0 loss at Norman, Okla., the year before.

2 SEASONS — 1920-21, 8-5-3

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shutout SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0-0 conference mark.

FRED THOMSEN

Still the second-longest-tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 SEASON – 1942, 3-7-0

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

JOHN BARNHILL
4 SEASONS — 1946-49, 22-17-3

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS
3 SEASONS — 1950-52, 9-21-0

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 — the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT
2 SEASONS — 1953-54, 11-10-0

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES
19 SEASONS – 1958-76, 144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution.

He served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

HOUSTON NUTT
10 SEASONS — 1998-2007, 75-48-0

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC

Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

BOBBY PETRINO
4 SEASONS – 2008-11, 37-14-0

Bobby Petrino was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on Dec. 11, 2007. In just his third season, he led Arkansas to the first BCS game in school history against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In his final season, he took the Razorbacks to a school-record-tying 11 wins and the first top-five AP finish since 1977.

RAZORBACKS IN OVERTIME

Arkansas has established itself as an authority on overtime games. In 2001, the Razorbacks won the longest game ever played, the 58-56, seven-overtime thriller at Ole Miss. In 2003, UA matched that effort with another seven-overtime thriller, the 71-63 win at Kentucky. Earlier that season, Arkansas claimed a double-overtime victory at Alabama. In 2007, the Razorbacks won a 50-48, triple-overtime thriller at No. 1 LSU. At the 2010 Liberty Bowl, Arkansas topped East Carolina, 20-17, in one overtime period. The Razorbacks won 38-31 in double overtime at No. 22 Mississippi State in 2010.

Arkansas had played extra-period games before those mentioned, but the Ole Miss and Kentucky games, and the six-overtime loss at Tennessee in 2002, rank at the top of the charts for the most overtimes played in NCAA history.

Key Points Regarding Overtime Games

- The team winning the coin toss has the option of taking the ball first or playing defense first. The team losing the coin toss selects the end of the field for both possessions.
- The team losing the coin toss has the option of going on offense or defense first for the second overtime while the other team chooses the end of the field.
- Each team gets the ball at the opponent 25-yard line.
- Beginning with the third overtime period, teams must attempt a two-point conversion following a touchdown.

ARKANSAS 71, KENTUCKY 63 (7 OT)

Nov. 1, 2003 • Lexington, Ky.

Game Notes

- Matches the record for the longest game in NCAA history (UA-Ole Miss in 2001)
- DeCori Birmingham had a career-best rushing performance, and the 11th-best in school history, with 196 yards and two TDs on 40 carries.
- UA set an NCAA team record for the most points in overtime with 47.

ARKANSAS 58, OLE MISS 56 (7 OT)

Nov. 3, 2001 • Oxford, Miss.

Game Notes

- The seven overtimes is an NCAA record.
- The 114 combined points scored is an SEC record.
- UA All-American linebacker Jermaine Petty made his 20th tackle on his 103rd play of the game when he stopped Ole Miss tight end Doug Zeigler two yards short of the end zone on a two-point conversion attempt that would have forced an eighth extra period.
- Quarterback Matt Jones accounted for 116 of UA's 157 yards of total offense in the extra periods with 61 yards rushing and 55 passing. He did not start, but played all of the fourth quarter and all seven overtime periods.

The policies that follow have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes and coaches, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate any special requests you may have.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the media relations department. Coaches and student-athletes are instructed to decline any interviews not pre-arranged by the media relations department. UA football coaches and student-athletes are generally available for in-person interviews following practice. During a game week, coaches and student-athletes will be available post-practice Tuesday and Wednesday. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to politely decline interviews when contacted by telephone.

Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Following each practice session, head coach John L. Smith or a member of the UA coaching staff will conduct a group interview with members of the media. Video and still photographers from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the media relations department for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

Following each practice session Monday through Thursday, the media relations department will produce a brief, Associated Press-style practice story. The story may be retrieved from the Razorbacks' official website, ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the UA media relations department for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Smith and student-athletes.

SEC WEEKLY COACHES' TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, head coach John L. Smith will participate each week in the league's teleconference of football coaches. The teleconferences will be conducted each Wednesday from Aug. 31 to Nov. 23 from 10 a.m. CT to Noon CT. Coach Smith's scheduled time slot is from 11 a.m. CT to 11:10 a.m. CT. Accredited media members only may access the broadcast-quality teleconference. Callers may participate in the question-and-answer session with an individual coach or all SEC coaches. For more information and the teleconference number, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3000.

ARKANSAS FTP SITE

An FTP site is available for members of the media. For more information concerning the FTP site, contact Blair Cartwright (jcartw@uark.edu) or Matt Wolfe (mawolfe@uark.edu).

ARKANSASRAZORBACKS.COM

The latest information on all Razorback sports, including football, can be found at ArkansasRazorbacks.com — the official website of UA athletics. Game notes, quotes from press conferences and daily practice stories are just a few of the items included online. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics, game stories and schedules.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least two weeks in advance.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see media credentialing guidelines online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas.

Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The University of Arkansas Media Relations reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning three hours prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Be prepared to present photo identification when picking up credentials.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville and Little Rock for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

TELEPHONES

UA provides ample telephones on a first-come, first-served basis for media members in the press boxes at both Fayetteville and Little Rock. A credit card is required for making calls from these phones.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Interested members of the media are asked to check with UA media relations staff members for assistance.

FAN GUIDE

For more game day information and to download a copy of the Arkansas Football Fan Guide, please go to the University of Arkansas' athletics department website at www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com. Select the Fan button and then Fan Guides.

COUNTERFEIT TICKETS

Fans are reminded about the potential of counterfeit tickets being sold at Razorback games. The lone authorized outlet for ticket purchases is the UA Ticket Office, and tickets acquired in any other way put the buyer at risk. If fans have any doubt about the validity of their tickets, they can visit the UA Athletic Ticket Office on Razorback Road to verify their tickets during regular business hours, between 8:30 and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. On game day, fans can visit the Ticket Office at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium's Gate 1 starting four hours prior to kickoff. Further, those suspecting they have counterfeit tickets in their possession should contact UAPD to report this as soon as possible. The UA Athletic Ticket Office would also like to remind fans that any persons attempting to enter the stadium with a counterfeit ticket could be denied admission and subject to an investigation. Also, any person discovered inside the stadium with a stolen or counterfeit ticket will be escorted out.

E-TICKETS

Razorback E-Tickets, a customer-friendly interactive digital ticketing solution, has been implemented for the 2012 University of Arkansas football season. With the change to digital ticket scanning, Razorback football fans will benefit from the heightened protection against counterfeit tickets and can take advantage of new digital ticketing services including print-at-home single game tickets and ticket transfers for season ticket holders. Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, like many other college and professional venues, will scan all tickets using a bar-code on each ticket to verify admission. Scanning will identify counterfeit and stolen tickets and provide improved security and service. Help windows will be located at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium at Gates 1, 13 and 16 to help fans with any ticket scanning issues or to answer questions regarding the new technology. It is recommended that fans plan on arriving earlier than normal to avoid any delays in entering the stadium in the initial implementation of the new digital ticketing system.

TAILGATING POLICIES

Tailgating at the University of Arkansas is a cherished part of the Razorback game day tradition. In order to provide a great game-day experience for all those who choose to tailgate, we remind you to please follow the tailgating policies outlined in the 2012 Arkansas Football Fan Guide. Your cooperation and consideration of all tailgating policies will be especially helpful as it pertains to one parking space/one car, no tents permitted in a parking space and adherence to the policies about the installation and size of tents.

Setting up tents, awnings and similar equipment for tailgates may commence on Friday beginning at 5 p.m. The items must be taken down and removed by Noon on Sunday. If a tent is placed before 5 p.m. on Friday, it will be removed and can be picked up from lost and found through Facilities Management, which can be contacted at 575-5050. In order to have your tent for Saturday's game, it must be picked up from the Facilities Management office before 5 p.m. on Friday.

VICTORY VILLAGE

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department is set to debut Victory Village, a reserved tailgating area near Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, for the 2012 football regular season. The Athletic Department has established the program, which will be coordinated by Intents Party Rentals, to provide fans a convenient, worry-free tailgate experience close to the stadium. There will be several basic packages offered that include set up and tear down, along with multiple add-on options, lending to an individually tailored, carefree gameday tailgate. Fans needing to drop off large items for their reserved space can begin to do so six hours before kickoff and continue until four hours prior to kick.

Victory Village will have two areas, a Victory Village North located above Lot 44 by the John W. Tyson Poultry Science building, and Victory Village East located across Stadium Drive from Lot 44 on the Administration Hill. Spots in Victory Village can be reserved on a single-game or season-long basis. Tailgating in Victory Village will only be permitted with a reservation. For more information, contact Intents Party Rentals at 479-251-8368. The Arkansas Athletic Department will continue to provide the popular AT&T Fan Zone at the Gardens for free. The AT&T Fan Zone at the Gardens includes inflatable games for kids, live music, televisions and food and drink vendors.

BAG POLICY

For information on the UA bag policy for events, please visit ArkansasRazorbacks.com or refer to the Football Fan Guide.

TRAVEL TO THE STADIUM

Fans are reminded that if you are parking in lots South of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, it may be best to enter campus off of I-540 at Martin Luther King Blvd. (Exit #62). If you are parking in lots North of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, it may be best to enter campus off of I-540 at Wedington Drive (Exit #64). As a reminder, traffic control begins four hours prior to kick. The pre-game and post-game traffic routes can be found in the 2012 Football Fan Guide at www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

GAME DAY PARKING

Parking lots to be used for home football games are indicated on the football parking maps on the University of Arkansas Transit and Parking website at www.parking.uark.edu. Also available is a listing of parking policies, maps and diagrams, pre- and post-game traffic flow and shuttle information for all Razorback home football games. Vehicles will be relocated from the designated parking lots by midnight prior to kick-off.

GENERAL PUBLIC PARKING

Public parking is limited on campus on game days. Fans are encouraged to arrive early. Pay parking is available at the Harmon Avenue Parking Garage located North of Center Street on Harmon Avenue. There is a $10 charge per vehicle for parking. Spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

RESERVED PARKING

Certain lots will be reserved on game days. Parking passes for Fayetteville games at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium are available through the Razorback Foundation Priority Plan. For information about Razorback Foundation, Inc., please go to www.razorbackfoundation.net. Please note that counterfeiting of any parking pass is strictly prohibited and may result in forfeiture of parking privileges. Additionally, parking passes must be visibly displayed on the windshield of the car while parked in the designated lot.

Please refer to the Razorback Foundation's Scholarship parking map located at www.razorbackfoundation.net or the University of Arkansas' athletics department website at www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com for the locations of those reserved lots.

DISABILITY PARKING

Disability parking with a state-issued hang tag is available in Lot #56 which is at the corner of Martin Luther King Blvd. (6th Street) and Razorback Road. Patrons with a disability may ride the disability shuttle which originates at Lot #56 and unloads at Gates 1 and 8 (both on the West side of the Stadium) and 14 and 16 (both on the East side of the Stadium).

RE-ENTRY POLICY

Once a guest leaves the stadium, they will not be permitted back in. This is a University of Arkansas and Southeastern Conference Policy and applies to every ticket holder. Guests should plan accordingly and bring everything they need to the stadium upon initial entry.

LOST AND FOUND

During the game you may check one of three Guest Service locations at Gates 1, 13 & 16 for lost items. After the game, all unclaimed items will be turned over to the Guest Service Center at Gate 16. If you have any questions, please contact Gate 16 Guest Services at 479-575-4087. You may also stop by the Guest Service Center at Gate 16 during any home game to inquire about a lost item.

STADIUM TEXTING SERVICE

The University of Arkansas' Athletics Department will again provide a fan text messaging service that will be available inside Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. The service will allow fans to communicate directly with event management personnel in important security and guest issue situations. Fans needing assistance should text HOGS <space> your issue and location to 69050. Standard text message rates and other charges may apply. Razorback fans are reminded that they can contact the nearest usher or security personnel, or stop by the nearest guest services location to report an issue.

SMOKING/TOBACCO FREE

The University of Arkansas is a tobacco-free campus. This means no cigarettes, pipes, cigars, dip or chew anywhere on campus and includes no stadium exiting for tobacco use outside the stadium. Additionally, violations of the State of AR Clean Air Act of 2009, which applies to smoking, may result in a fine.

FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

Razorback fans are the best of the best. They model this by loudly supporting the Razorbacks and displaying respect and good sportsmanship toward the visiting team and visiting fans. The NCAA, SEC and UA have assigned a high priority to assuring athletic events are conducted in a safe and enjoyable atmosphere which promotes good sportsmanship by spectators, student-athletes and coaches. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants, officials, those around you and event management in a positive manner and treating others with courtesy and respect. Refrain from throwing objects onto the field for any reason. Do not enter the playing areas at any time, unless directed to do so in an emergency situation, including after-game celebrations.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and IMG are in their fifth year of a powerful partnership that created Razorback Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, RSP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. They continue to expand the coverage of the Razorback Sports Network. This statewide radio network, consisting of 50+ affiliates, covers all of Arkansas and parts of all six surrounding states.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback Football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held each Wednesday night at the Catfish Hole and is aired live on the Razorback Sports Network. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and regionally throughout the week during football season.

Inside Razorback Athletics, the official newspaper of Razorback Athletics, continues to give Razorback fans a behind the scenes look into the University of Arkansas Athletic Department.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

CHUCK BARRETT — PLAY-BY-PLAY

Barrett is entering his sixth season as the play-by-play announcer for the Razorbacks and as a member of the Athletic Department staff, but he's no stranger to Arkansas fans or the Razorback Sports Network broadcast team. This is his 18th year on the broadcast crew, including spending 12 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities in the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pre-game show, halftime and scoreboard shows, and the football version of the Razorback Report. He has also worked as the play-by-play man for baseball since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992 and added men's basketball play-by-play to his duties prior to the 2010-11 season. Barrett was recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the 2007 and 2008 Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year.

KEITH JACKSON — COLOR ANALYST

Jackson is in his 13th season as a part of the broadcast team. The Little Rock native was a two-time All-American at Oklahoma, and a six-time Pro Bowl and three-time All-Pro selection, playing in the NFL with Philadelphia, Miami and Green Bay, and winning a Super Bowl championship with the Packers. Jackson has worked as an analyst for TNT and FOX Sports network telecasts.

QUINN GROVEY — CO-HOST AND SIDELINE REPORTER

Grovey is in his 15th year on the broadcast team. The former Hog quarterback is a co-host of the pre-game and post-game shows, and provides insight during games as a sideline reporter. Grovey is a regional personnel manager for Home Depot.

SCOTT INMAN — CO-HOST

Inman is in his 14th year working on game broadcasts. He serves as the pre-game show and post-game Scoreboard Show co-host along with Quinn Grovey. Inman is also co-anchor of KATV's 5, 6 and 10 p.m. newscasts. A native Arkansan, he grew up in Stuttgart and graduated from Arkansas State University in 1995, where he served as the voice of Jonesboro High School football and basketball, as well as ASU Lady Indians basketball.

Founded in 1871, The University of Arkansas is the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas System. Located in Fayetteville in Arkansas' northwest corner, the U of A is the state's foremost partner and resource for education and economic development.

The U of A offers 213 baccalaureate, master's, doctoral, professional and specialist degree programs. In keeping with its status as Arkansas' land-grant university, the U of A has a 140-year-old mandate to educate, to conduct basic and applied research, and to extend knowledge and resources to the people of Arkansas and beyond through public engagement and service. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching recently classified the U of A as a national research university with a very high level of research activity, based on the number of doctoral degrees awarded, research grants received, and other factors. The U of A is the only Arkansas institution with such a ranking and is among just 108 institutions in the United States (out of 4,633) to have received that classification.

The U of A has enormous influence over Arkansans' social, cultural, and recreational life, especially the widespread passion for the university's athletics teams, the Arkansas Razorbacks. The U of A's location in northwest Arkansas is viewed as one of the university's strongest attributes. Fayetteville is widely recognized as one of the best college communities in the U.S. The city's Dickson Street district abuts the U of A campus and features scores of restaurants, shops, and entertainment venues. Northwest Arkansas is a vibrant economic region with a national reputation for its high quality of life.

Three of the U.S.'s largest corporations have their world headquarters in the region: Tyson Foods, J.B. Hunt Transportation, and the world's largest retailer, Walmart, Inc. Because of their presence, many other corporations have established primary or secondary headquarters in Northwest Arkansas. Their close proximity to

OLD MAIN

One of the original buildings on Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1875, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as had happened to its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fundraising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2005. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

the U of A campus, along with their executives' and employees' active involvement in university life, offers students and faculty exceptional opportunities for research partnerships, internships, and post-graduation employment.

The U of A boasts one of the most unique features and traditions found on any college or university campus: Senior Walk, a nearly three-mile stretch of concrete sidewalks criss-crossing campus into which the names of every U of A graduate are engraved. More than 140,000 names currently appear, grouped alphabetically by year of graduation. Senior Walk epitomizes the university's emphasis on "putting students first," a philosophy captured in its tag line, "the YOU of A."

The U of A features distinctive architecture, including its signature building, Old Main, finished in 1875. As the original administrative facility, the iconic building now houses the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The college is named in honor of former U of A President (and, later, U.S. Senator) J. William Fulbright, who helped create the prestigious international scholarship and fellowship programs that bear his name. The U of A's distinctive Fulbright Peace Fountain, designed by architect Fay Jones, recognizes its namesake's role in promoting peaceful resolution of world conflicts.

Academically, the U of A is organized into 10 schools and colleges: the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences; the College of Education and Health Professions; the College of Engineering; the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences; and the Sam M. Walton College of Business. The university also features the Fay Jones School of Architecture, the Graduate School and International Education, the Honors College, the School of Law and the Global Campus, which provides academic outreach and programs to more than 15,000 learners a year.

The U of A's total annual operating budget for FY2012 is $528 million. Tuition and fee revenues make up the largest source of revenues, followed by an annual state appropriation. Almost 77 percent of all full-time undergraduate students receive some form of financial aid. U of A undergraduate tuition rates were ranked 38th lowest in the nation among land-grant universities, in keeping with the university's emphasis on keeping itself accessible and affordable.

In August 2011, the U of A enrolled a record 23,119 students. The student body consisted of students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. More than 300 student organizations also exist on campus. There are plenty of things to do on- and off-campus. The HPER Center, the university's state-of-the-art recreational facility, offers a great place to climb, swim, run, lift weights, do aerobics and yoga, or play basketball. Cultural and recreational options include attending lectures, readings, and theatrical performances, shopping opportunities, and listening to live music on nearby Dickson Street.

In 2009, University Chancellor G. David Gearhart presented a long-range strategic plan that was formally endorsed by the elected leaders of the faculty, staff, and student body. The plan emphasizes a commitment to "students first," and outlines goals and strategies to ensure that all students receive the resources and support they need to achieve their academic goals. The plan also emphasizes the U of A's commitment to transparency and accountability to the people of Arkansas in its operation.

More information about the U of A may be found at www.uark.edu.

SENIOR WALK

The University of Arkansas is proud to be the last university in the nation maintaining what once was a common tradition of etching its graduates' names into the campus sidewalks. The 100,000th graduate's name went down in cement during the 1990s. The names on Senior Walk stretch over three miles of campus sidewalks.

The story of Senior Walk is a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas brings its commitment to the past together with innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the University of Arkansas turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine -- the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across the front lawn of Old Main, etching the names of graduates into sidewalks.

DR. G. DAVID GEARHART CHANCELLOR

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university as vice chancellor for university advancement. Previously he was senior vice president of Penn State University, during which time he was named a Fulbright Scholar, studying at Oxford University in Oxford, England.

His Bachelor of Arts degree is from Westminster College in Missouri. Both his law degree and his doctor of education degree are from the University of Arkansas. He is a native of Fayetteville.

Prior to being appointed chancellor, Dr. Gearhart oversaw the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs.

As chancellor, Dr. Gearhart instituted the first tuition freeze in 24 years and implemented a $220 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campus-wide energy savings plan. He has also undertaken a renewed emphasis on the arts on campus, including the establishment of the "All Steinway Campus."

Dr. Gearhart has additionally implemented a major cost savings program that has already resulted in over $29.4 million in cost reduction and savings to the flagship campus. Campus enrollment has also grown by nearly 4,000 students in the past three years to more than 23,000 students. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly.

He and his wife of more than 35 years, Jane, have two children and two grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from July 1, 1990 until June 30, 2011 except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions. On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt stepped down as department head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX.

After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of undergraduate courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student-athlete well-being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student-athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department.

Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have an adult son and daughter as well as a grandson.

JEFF LONG

VICE CHANCELLOR FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his fifth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has guided the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics through a period of unprecedented transition and gained national attention for his leadership while revitalizing a tradition-rich athletics program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program uniformly committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A part of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community. In each of the past three years, Razorback Athletics has made a $1 million gift to support the university's academic mission. The department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives has grown to more than $5 million annually.

Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics has not gone unnoticed. In 2011-12, Long was named a finalist for the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 11 conference championships and advanced to 68 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football, while drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. In 2011-12, Arkansas finished No. 20 in the Learfield Sports Directors Cup, a year-long competition ranking the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs, the fourth time in the past five years the Razorbacks have finished in the nation's top 25.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a student-athlete grade point average of 3.07 in 2011-12. It marked the fourth consecutive year Razorback student-athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0. Arkansas exceeds the national APR multi-year rate by more than 10 points in 18 sports and has seen a steady rise in graduation success rates.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 5,000 hours of time for more than 100 agencies, organizations and schools.

One of the nation's most active athletic directors on Twitter, Long embraces the opportunity to interact with members of the Razorback Nation whether in person or through social media.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Long has also worked tirelessly to maintain long-time relationships and to forge new relationships for the benefit of the Razorback program including extending Arkansas' relationship with War Memorial Stadium and partnering with former Razorback Jerry Jones to develop the Southwest Classic, a football series with Texas A&M played at the spectacular Cowboys Stadium.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes. According to the Wall Street Journal, Arkansas is one of only 22 self-sustaining Division

I-A athletic programs in the nation. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade-long agreement. Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014-15 season. In December 2011, Forbes Magazine estimated the value of the Razorback Football program at $89 million, eighth in the nation. Arkansas saw the largest increase (59%) from the previous rankings released in 2009.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the Southeastern Conference and nationally over the next 30 years. The first major project from the master plan, the football center, is currently being constructed with a targeted completion date in 2013.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC – gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long currently serves on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

BEV LEWIS
ASSOCIATE VICE CHANCELLOR
ASSOCIATE AD

Bev Lewis has served the University of Arkansas and its Razorback athletic programs for more than three decades.

The former women's athletic director prior to the department merger in 2007-08, Lewis now serves as the associate vice chancellor and executive associate athletic director for administration and sport programs. Lewis is also the coordinator of a five-member sport administrator group that provides day-to-day administrative support for each of Arkansas' 19 sports. Lewis is the sport administrator for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, softball and volleyball. In addition, Lewis is the primary administrator working with the Razorbacks' strength and conditioning units and athletic training and sports medicine program as well as overseeing media relations. She also serves as a liaison to the faculty senate and the faculty athletic committee, and coordinates the department's NCAA certification, Title IX compliance and strategic planning. Lewis was elected to the 2011-12 Southeastern Conference Executive Committee assisting the league office in a leadership role.

The largest portion of her service to the university was her 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the university's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the university's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' $6 million facility be named the Bev Lewis Center. In 1998, she was voted into the University Of Arkansas Hall Of Honor.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, first with the NCAA Championship Cabinet and recently on the NCAA Management Council. Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's squad to achieve a national ranking and the first conference championship team with the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981. The former Bev Rouse, she is married to Harley Lewis.

MATT
TRANTHAM
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD

Matt Trantham joined the University of Arkansas in 2008 as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations. He oversees Razorback facilities, event management and equipment operations.

Supervising several major projects in his first year with the Razorbacks, Trantham guided the $2.5 million renovation of Bud Walton Arena and the $1.3 million restoration of synthetic playing surface at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium in 2008-09.

This year, he is overseeing the Master Plan currently underway for all athletic facilities. One of the first projects within the master plan began during the 2011-12 academic year with the expansion of the football practice facilities including meeting rooms, academic center and offices. Progress continues on those projects with the football center scheduled to open in the fall 2013.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Trantham began his career with the University of Oklahoma in July 1999 as the promotions director for the athletic department where he worked with all 20 of OU's teams. He was named assistant athletic director for event management in 2004 and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2006.

In his role as associate AD for event management, Trantham oversaw more than 500 events a year, coordinated the efforts of more than 1,500 event staff members and was responsible for activities within 13 athletic facilities. He also served as OU's liaison with all postseason events including both Big 12 and NCAA championship competitions. Prior to joining the Sooners, Trantham spent five seasons in professional sports in Washington, D.C. Trantham earned his bachelor's of science degree in business management from Centenary College in 1990 and a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1998.

Trantham and wife Kristen are parents of two sons, Will and Davis, and two daughters, Morgan and Paige.

JON FAGG
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
COMPLIANCE AND
STUDENT-ATHLETE
SERVICES

Jon Fagg joined the University of Arkansas as a senior associate athletic director for compliance and student-athlete services in the summer of 2008, overseeing all aspects of compliance and academics. He serves as a member of the senior management group for the Razorbacks.

Fagg supervises NCAA and Southeastern Conference rules compliance and education. He reports directly to the vice chancellor and director of athletics, and has an informational reporting relationship on compliance issues with the university's Office of the General Counsel.

In addition to compliance, Fagg also supervises the student-athlete services department which advises and offers support to more than 450 Razorback student-athletes.

Fagg joined the Razorback staff after spending the past seven years at North Carolina State. Hired in March 2001, he served four and half years as an assistant athletics director for compliance before being promoted to associate athletics director for compliance in the fall of 2005.

While with the Wolfpack, Fagg's responsibilities included coordinating all aspects of the NCAA compliance program, including rules education for intercollegiate staff and related university personnel, and advisement, education and interpretations regarding NCAA rules and regulations.

Prior to his tenure at North Carolina State, Fagg spent three years as the assistant athletics director for compliance at Fresno State. He also served one year as director of compliance for the Big South Conference.

His first athletics administrative experience came at Mars Hill College where he handled compliance duties as well as serving as an assistant coach for the football team for three seasons. His coaching experience also includes a stint as an assistant coach at Davidson from February 1992 to June 1993 and as a GA coach at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, from January 1991 to February 1992.

Fagg and his wife Amanda have three children: Jon Madison and twins, Reed and Ellie.

CHRIS WYRICK
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FOR DEVELOPMENT

Chris Wyrick joined the University of Arkansas in April 2008 and has served in several different capacities over the last four years.

Originally hired as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs, Wyrick's oversight included marketing and promotions, media relations, new media, ISP/IMG multi media partners, special events, ticket operations, major gift fund raising, as well as sports administrator duties for Men's Basketball and Men's and Women's Golf.

Two years ago, Wyrick was called upon to lead the Razorback Seat Value Plan (RSVP) as part of the Answer the Call Campaign. As a Razorback Foundation employee, Wyrick served as Executive Director of RSVP and led a staff through the yearlong effort of realigning fans' seat locations with their Razorback Foundation donor classifications. The highly successful program introduced 2,600 new members to the Razorback Foundation and yielded over 6.5 million dollars in new revenue. To date, both these numbers are the largest single year growth in Foundation history.

Upon completion of RSVP, Wyrick returned to the Athletic Department in August of 2011 as a Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development. His current duties include all development activities including major gift contributions, as well as serving as the departmental liaison to the Razorback Foundation. Wyrick also oversees the Razorback Ticket Office, the office of Public Relations, and works directly with the Associated Student Government (ASG). Under Wyrick's watch, major gift fundraising produced over 38 million the last fiscal year which was the second most in school history and was the largest amount raised throughout the university.

A native of Greensboro, N.C., Wyrick joined Arkansas after two years at South Carolina where he was associate athletics director for development. Prior to USC, he spent six years at Vanderbilt as an administrator.

A 1992 graduate of North Carolina State with a degree in political science, Wyrick and his wife Merrily have two daughters, Caroline and Caitlin.

CLAYTON HAMILTON
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Clayton Hamilton joined the Razorbacks in January, 2010, assuming the role of Chief Financial Officer with oversight of the athletic department's financial affairs, business operations, contracts, human resources, payroll, and retail store operations. He was promoted to Senior Associate AD in the summer of 2012.

Hamilton has over 16 years of financial management experience, including positions with the University of Colorado, Florida State University, the Dallas Cowboys and the Cleveland Cavaliers.

He is an active member of the College Athletic Business Management Association, having served most recently as president in 2009, and has served on various NCAA strategic task forces. He is also a past recipient of the College Athletic Business Manager of the Year Award, and was recognized in 2011 as one of Northwest Arkansas' Top Forty Under 40.

A native of Arkansas, Hamilton graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He obtained a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1997, and his CPA certification from the State of Arkansas in 1998.

Hamilton and his wife Stephanie have two children, Lauren and Caylee.

CHRIS POHL
Associate AD for Events

A former championships director for the NCAA, Chris Pohl joined Arkansas in 2002 to manage marketing and promotion for the women's sports after 11 years at the NCAA. Pohl moved into event management in 2008 and oversees the event management department which coordinates all home and postseason events for the Razorbacks. Her primary sport responsibilities include football, men's and women's basketball and swimming and diving. Pohl and her staff prepare and monitor budgets for events, work with service departments including facilities, custodial services and grounds, handle game management responsibilities for all on-campus athletic events; ensuring all aspects of the facilities are ready for competition and spectator hosting, coordinate fan services for game and event management including marketing and promotions, parking services, public safety, law enforcement, life safety/emergency responders, merchandising, concessions, and other aspects of creating a first-class spectator experience.

A 1981 graduate of Central Michigan and basketball letterwinner, she earned her master's in 1984 from Penn State.

BRIAN PRACHT
Associate AD for Marketing

Brian Pracht joined the University of Arkansas Athletic Department staff as the associate athletic director for marketing and licensing in July 2010.

His responsibilities at Arkansas include overseeing marketing, promotions, ticket sales, RazorVision Productions, website development and spirit squads while also serving as the staff liaison to the university's multi-media rights holder (IMG College/Razorback Sports Properties). He is a member of the athletic department's Executive Staff. Pracht also directs the University's trademark licensing program, which currently ranks in the top 15 for gross revenue production among all Collegiate Licensing Company partners, and serves as the staff liaison to the SEC's television partners.

With more than 17 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, Pracht joined the Razorback staff following seven years at Wichita State where he was the senior associate athletics director for external operations.

Pracht graduated in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Emporia State in Kansas. He and his wife Amy have two daughters, Caroline and Lily.

TRACEY STEHLIK
Associate AD for Compliance

Starting her 29th year with the University of Arkansas, Tracey Stehlik serves as associate athletic director for compliance. In addition, Stehlik serves as the sport administrator for women's basketball, swimming and diving and men's and women's tennis. She began her career as an assistant women's basketball coach and was a part of the staff that won the only women's hoops conference championships at Arkansas. Stehlik worked in a variety of administrative roles since leaving the court including compliance and game management. She and husband Wayne have two daughters, Mollie and Maggie.

KEVIN TRAINOR
Associate AD for Public Relations

Starting his 18th season at Arkansas, Kevin Trainor is in his fifth year as associate athletic director and his third as the department's Public Relations Director. Trainor coordinates the department's executive and crisis management communications and is the primary department liaison with University Relations. He is in charge of producing the department's annual report and serves as managing editor of Inside Razorback Athletics. He also serves as the sports administrator for baseball.

Trainor was a nearly 20-year veteran in the media relations office before assuming his current role. A university graduate in journalism in 1994, he earned his master's at Arkansas in 2005. He is an active member of the Public Relations Society of America.

Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, are the parents of two daughters, Emma and Ellie.

JUSTIN MALAND
Assistant AD for Facilities

Justin Maland joined the Razorbacks in 1999 and is beginning his seventh year as an Assistant AD for facilities in 2012. His areas of responsibility include oversight of all Razorback athletic facilities, including budgeting, game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance, long-range planning, daily facility operations, contracting services with outside vendors and coordination of special events. Maland supervises a staff whose responsibilities include custodial and housekeeping, buildings, grounds and other service areas and oversees external events and facility operations on campus.

The Harrison, Ark., native and former college student-athlete provides management services in all athletic facility renovation projects and construction management of all new projects including the state-of-the-art Razorback Football Center, part of the Athletic Department's Master Plan. One of Maland's recent projects is the installation of the new videoboard for Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Maland is a 1999 graduate of Hendrix College and earned his master's degree in sports management at Arkansas in 2001.

Maland is married to the former Sarah Parnell of Booneville and they have three children, Macy, Jack and Addy.

ERIC A. WOOD
Associate AD for Student-Athlete Services

Eric A. Wood joined the university in 2009, and is responsible for the oversight of student-athlete services including academic support, life skills and career development programs that contribute to the personal growth and character development of our more than 450 Razorback student-athletes. Other responsibilities include housing, student conduct, student-athlete appearance requests, drug testing administration, coordinator of diversity initiatives and the liaison to Student Affairs. Wood, a member of the athletics department senior staff, was promoted to Associate Athletic Director July 2011 and currently serves on the department's Executive Staff.

Wood and his wife Celia have a daughter, Eliana Jewel.

RAZORBACK SUPPORT SERVICES

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Recognizing the difficulty of balancing the demands of athletic competition at the highest level and completion of the rigorous academic standards of a Carnegie research-level university, the Razorback Athletic Department provides support services through both facilities and personnel to guide Arkansas student-athletes to their ultimate goal: University of Arkansas diploma.

The key components of the Center for Student-Athlete Success (CSAS) are personal development, career development, academic tutoring, study hall facilities, class attendance monitoring and incentive awards recognizing academic achievement.

THE BOGLE ACADEMIC CENTER

There is no higher priority for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department than the academic progress of its scholar-athletes. Thanks to the generous gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the home of the Razorback Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Academic Support and Achievement program is the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center. The 15,000-square foot Bogle Academic Center is located in the east side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Under the overall direction of Senior Associate Athletic Director Jon Fagg, the Bogle Academic Center houses the Arkansas Razorbacks Academic Support Program, the Razorback Student-Athlete Development Office and the Career Development Program.

Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Services Eric A. Wood oversees the staff of professionals dedicated to directing student-athletes to reach their personal academic goals, and to do so in ways that balance their academic, athletic and personal lives.

STUDY HALL AND TUTORS

A quiet setting for uninterrupted study, the Bogle Academic Center provides three types of study hall space. The computer lab has more than 30 stations for individual computer-based study. An open study hall is available for group or individual study, and monitored by staff members of the SAASA. There are 17 individual study carrels that provide space for tutors to meet with student-athletes for individual instruction in specific subjects.

Each Razorback team sets its own criteria for study hall attendance. The use of tutors is a key element for academic success, allowing for individualized assistance and for reaching academic excellence in advanced subjects.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

The mission of the Student-Athlete Development Office is to contribute to the personal growth and character development of Razorback student-athletes through holistic programming for success in life.

The Student-Athlete Development Office continues to expand its commitment to the offerings and opportunities in the following areas:

- * Academic Excellence
- * Athletic Excellence
- * Career Development and Graduate School Preparation
- * Community Service
- * Personal Development
- * Health and Wellness
- * Leadership and Character Development
- * Financial Planning

Our Goals

- * Provide the resources to support the academic progress toward intellectual development and graduation for our student-athletes.
- * Provide career development programs that will enable our student-athletes to develop and pursue career and life goals.
- * Engage our student-athletes in experiences involving the university, local, state, national, and global communities through services.
- * Support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle, decision-making skills, encouraging emotional well-being, and personal growth for our student-athletes.
- * Invest in the personal development of our student-athletes through various programs that enable them to be successful in the classroom, the community, and in their athletic activities.

The Student-Athlete Development Office coordinated more than 6,000 hours dedicated to service in Northwest Arkansas and worldwide. Razorback student-athletes worked with more than 100 agencies giving of their time and energy last season.

Razorback student-athletes took advantage of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the SEC in 2010-11 as well. Student-athletes, coaches and staff were shown steps to become better leaders on their teams, in the classroom, in the workplace and in life.

Finally, student-athletes participated in Hogs in Transition, a program designed to help Razorbacks make the move to life after college and athletics. Student-athletes took part in career fairs, corporate office visits and interview training.

New for 2011-12 was the debut of the Hogspy awards, modeled after the ESPY's, to recognize academic and athletic achievements as well as leadership and community service.

COMPLIANCE

The University of Arkansas Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is proud to have your interest and support in the Razorbacks. The Razorback Athletics Compliance Office works hard to educate its student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters on the rules and regulations mandated by the Southeastern Conference and the NCAA.

SEC and NCAA rules and regulations can be complex, and every situation is different. The Razorback Compliance Office makes every effort to disseminate information, and they encourage student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters to contact them if there are questions.

The Razorback Athletics Department is proud of your support of the Razorbacks, but we caution you that inadvertent actions by our fans may jeopardize the department, current student-athletes or potential student-athletes.

MARKETING

The excitement and support of the University of Arkansas athletic teams is at an all-time high. Recently, single-game attendance records have been set for many sports including football, baseball, gymnastics, soccer and soccer. Bud Walton Arena has also seen an insurgence of fans with Mike Anderson's return to Fayetteville with his "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" recapturing the spirit of Razorback fans.

State-of-the-art facilities, the nation's best coaches and players and the greatest fans in college athletics come together for some of the most exciting events that take place in the state of Arkansas. The Razorback marketing staff is a big part of the behind-the-scenes success of all 19 teams at the university. They assist in the branding of our image, getting information to our fans and helping to fill our venues.

Their work is evident in our stadiums, on the videoboards and during pre-event, halftime and post-events. They work with sponsors, maintain the department's social media presence and welcome new fans with creative ticket and suite packages. The Razorback Marketing Office also handles the University's trademark licensing program ensuring fans get the Razorback quality they have come to expect.

SPIRIT SQUAD

Along with being a Razorback, serving as a Razorback Spirit Squad member has a long tradition at the University of Arkansas. Currently, the Razorbacks have two co-ed cheer squads - Arkansas Cheer and Razorback Cheer - that inspire the crowds at all home and away football games, men's and women's basketball games, volleyball matches, gymnastics meets and many other pep rallies and on-campus and NWA community events.

Arkansas also has two dance teams, Arkansas Pom and Razorback Pom, that perform at all home football games, men's and women's basketball games as well as pep rallies and on-campus and community events. The squads also perform at baseball games as the RBI Girls.

Both the cheer and dance teams compete nationally at the Universal Cheer and Dance team competitions in Orlando in January.

Arkansas has a team of uniformed mascots, led by the original Big Red, the Fighting Razorback. Sue E. joined the family along with kid-sized Pork Chop in the late 1990s. Boss Hog is a 9-foot-tall inflatable mascot and Ribby, the baseball mascot, complete the mascot team. They can be found at all Razorback games and events.

Jean Nail serves as the director of the spirit squad program and is assisted by Craig Jimenez, cheer coach, and Brooke Bailey, dance coach. For more information on the cheer, pom and mascots and tryouts, go to the Spirit Squad section of ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Arkansas Sports Medicine staff is committed to provide each Razorback student-athlete with state-of-the-art medical care. The goal of our sports medicine program is to assist every student-athlete in staying healthy and injury free. The athletic training staff, in conjunction with our team physicians, will coordinate the delivery of professional and comprehensive preventative, treatment, rehabilitation, and counseling services.

Performing the vital role of supporting the student-athletes at the University of Arkansas with financial support, the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is in its fourth decade of working alongside the athletic department to advance Razorback athletics.

The goal of the foundation is ensuring that the more than 460 student-athletes at Arkansas have the equipment, facilities, and overall support to achieve the goals of graduation and athletic achievement.

Over the past year, with the support of our dedicated members, the Razorback Foundation has experienced a year of dynamic growth in multiple areas. Our membership and annual fund dollars raised is at an all-time high and it can be directly attributed to the passion and commitment of those who love the Razorbacks. Additionally, the Razorback Foundation saw another increase in Capital gifts, and the result of this generosity is the construction of a new Football Center, which is scheduled for completion in 2013.

The Foundation, officially incorporated and relocated off campus in 1988, has helped provide financial aid for the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center (football and administrative offices), Charlie Baum Stadium at George Cole Field (baseball), John McDonnell Field (outdoor track and field), Randal Tyson Track Center (indoor track and field), Dills Indoor Tennis Center, the George M. Billingsley Tennis Center (outdoor), Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (football) and Bogle Park (women's softball). In the future, as new facilities are planned and others enhanced, we will again need the support of all those who have a desire for the University of Arkansas to provide the very best for our student athletes.

Mission Statement

The stated mission of the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

Membership Levels

The opportunity to participate in the annual fund giving to the Razorback Foundation, Inc., has several levels, beginning at the $50 Razorback level and continuing up to Broyles-Matthews Scholarship Platinum ($20,000 or more). For more information about levels of giving and benefits, please visit the foundation's website at RazorbackFoundation.com.

FRANK BROYLES

Athletic Director Emeritus

J. Frank Broyles and long-time assistant, Donita Ritchie, joined forces with the Razorback Foundation in 2008 and are instrumental in all facets of the fundraising process. Coach Broyles closed out a 50-year career of service to the university and now offers consultation and expertise for various fundraising opportunities, facility planning and donor relations.

THE RAZORBACK FOUNDATION SAYS THANK YOU!

The Razorbacks are truly fortunate to have loyal, passionate fans to support our athletic programs and our student-athletes. Over the past two years, the Razorback Foundation has experienced tremendous growth thanks to the generosity of our approximately 13,000 donors. Your support continues to enable us to be among the finest in the extremely competitive Southeastern Conference. On behalf of our over 460 student-athletes, we say "Thank You."

Thank You to our Razorback Club Presidents!

We want to acknowledge the significant contribution of those who serve in volunteer leadership positions for our Razorback Clubs. The Presidents (and their boards) allow us to connect in a meaningful manner with those who love the Razorbacks and support us in so many ways. During the past year these clubs combined to contribute a record $260,000 to the Razorback Foundation and allowed our coaches and staff to interact with over 9,000 people at 35 Razorback Club sponsored events.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS), following a major expansion and renovation project completed prior to the 2001 season, gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation.

The $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, saw the capacity of the stadium increased from 51,000 to 72,000.

The concrete and steel below the stands were completely enclosed with a brick and glass facade. The look rivals that of many of the newer Major League Baseball stadiums. In addition to covering the steel and concrete, the concourses are wider and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

The east concourse is "Championship Alley" with displays of conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse is "All-American Alley" and is dedicated to Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse is "Bowl Alley" with tributes to each bowl team.

Other than the facade covering, the other most noticeable addition is the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chairback seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats with space for an additional upper deck that would push the capacity to 80,000. The enclosure also includes a food court with space for five vendors.

Other major additions include an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, and the addition of luxury suites.

Sixty-eight suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 132. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

Other additions include the 15,000 square foot Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center and the 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews "A" Club, both on the east side where an upper deck, which seats 6,500, was added along with enclosed premium club seating.

For the 2012 season, there will be a new video display on the North end zone scoreboard. Built upon LSI's SMARTVISION® LED technology, the 16mm video display will be one of the biggest in college football. Measuring at nearly 38' x 167' the display will give the stadium a true high definition video display area with the actual width exceeding HD resolution.

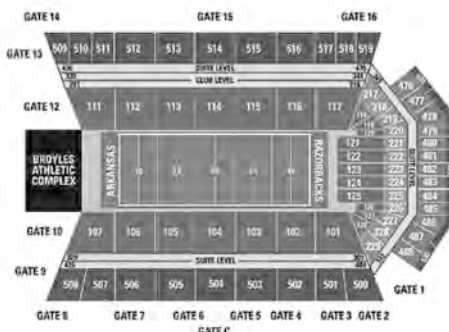

The stadium's debut came on Sept. 24, 1938 as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7. It was dedicated on Oct. 8 that year when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

In 1950, a new press box was constructed and 5,200 more seats were built on the west side. A 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957. Expansion projects in 1965 and 1969 increased capacity to 42,678 — a figure that held steady until a year of construction on additional seats and skyboxes brought the facility to 50,000 seats prior to the 1985 season.

Other improvements during the facility's 69-year history include the addition of Astroturf in 1969 and the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center, which houses athletic administration and coaches' offices, at the north end of the stadium in 1975. The Broyles Athletic Center underwent renovations, completed in 1994, while the playing surface was returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to the most recent change to synthetic turf prior to the 2009 season.

Arkansas' all-time record at DWRRS is 163-79-2 (.670). Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.

FRANK BROYLES FIELD

Named for Arkansas' long-time head football coach and athletic director, Frank Broyles Field, located within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, is the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game on Nov. 3, 2007, the on-field ceremony began with the legendary coach once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A." The festivities included a surprise visit and narration from college football broadcasting legend and former Broyles' ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

The Razorbacks capped the special evening with a 48-36 win over the No. 23 Gamecocks, including a record-breaking, 321-yard rushing performance by Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden.

For more than five decades, Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletic director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an all-sport program that produced 43 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments.

Broyles has termed this remarkable transformation "The Razorback Miracle." But for millions of Razorback fans, Frank Broyles has been the miraculous Razorback that has spent more than half a decade nurturing Arkansas into one of the most successful athletic programs in the nation.

championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM AT&T FIELD

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 65 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field is slated to host Arkansas football games until 2016 after a two-year extension was signed in August 2008. During that span, the facility will host two UA games annually, including at least one Southeastern Conference game each season.

Three-year UA letterman and Congressional Medal of Honor Winner Maurice (Footsie) Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its 65-year existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 53,955.

A complete lighting system and AstroTurf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new 7.5 million dollar press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.
